NIAGARA RIVER.

PROPOSITION TO DAM THE

International Committee to Make Investigations-President Authorized to Employ Engineers and Lawyers.

Washington, March 13.-Several lays ago representative Alexander brought to the attention of the rivers and harbors' committee the report of the deep waterways commission, which provides for a dam at the head waters of the Niagara river. Coupled with the report he presented statistics to show that during the last four years there has been a gradual lowering of the lake level, which led to the appointment of a sub-committee condisting of chairman Burton and representative Alexander to draw up a day, and it will be made a part of the river and harbor bill that will be reported to The house. The section provides for the formation of an international commission, composed of three members from the United States and three from Great Britain, to represent Canada, whose duty it will he to report upon the advisability of tocating a dam across the Nisgara river at the outlet of lake Erie, with a view of determining whether such a the cold elements. The president is authorized to ap point a United States engineer and a civil engineer well versed in the hydraulics of the great lakes; also a lawyer experienced in international and riparian law, and to fix the compensation of the commissioners. The salaries and expenses are authorized to be paid from the St. Mary's river fund, provided for in the river and harbors' account of September 19th.

Speaking of the proposed project, representative Alexander said that the building of such a dam would compel | While the grand duke is blamed al the construction of a channel for deep draft vessels around the rapids and shoals at the head of Niagara river, regardless of cost, Mr. Alexander also expressed the opinion that the dam Germany, England, Benmark and Ruswould raise the water from two to three feet above the low water level of the lakes. When half an hour out the skill was upset, a terrific gale being blowing. Three men were drowned, but George Callaghan and a companion managed to swim ashore and were saved, though they suffered

Writing to his friends, Mr. Callaghan states that he is unable yet to be around; he has not the use of his hands nor feet, they being benumbed from the severe treatment accordthem by cold water and wind; only in one finger and thumb is there any sensation of life. He expects that some months will elapse ere he will be feeling himself again. As to the accident Mr. Callaghan writes : "We were fourteen hours in that extremely cold water, submerged to our armpits and the waves rolling over us every now and again. To make our discomfiture more complete snow fell thickly, and a strong cold wind was blowing. After reaching the beach I felt exhausted and remained there six hours before being found, exposed to ed to the great beyond, but by hard work they pulled me through. If Casey had not had the strength to crawl to the shanties for help I would not now be penning these lines. I am not yet in a fit condition to give you all the details; it was a terrible experience and I will have to see you to tell you all; I cannot write about it."

Grand Duke's Anniversary.

Berlin, March 13 .- At Darmstadt today the grand duke Ernst Louis re ceived many congratulations on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of his accession to the throne of Hesse. most entirely for his matrimonial troubles, he enjoys, nevertheless a wide measure of popularity among his subjects. Among the royal families of sia, with all of whom the grand duke and duchess of Hesse are intimately connected by ties of blood, their do mestic infelicity has been much plored. Their efforts toward reconciliation, however, were futile and it is admitted generally that a definite When the constitution is neglected, separation has taken place. The grand duchess, who is a daughter of the late duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha and granddaughter of queen Victoria, is now in the south of France and has announced her intention to divide her time in future between the Riviera and Coburg. Under the agreement of their separation the two children, one son and one daughter, are to be allowed to spend a certain portion of each year with the grand duke. In accord ance with this agreement the children are now at Darmstadt where they princess Irene, who chose to spend her in the United States.

Death At Chatham, Ont.

Chatham Planet, Miss Anna Louise Vavasour Noel quietly away on Monday at the residence of her sister, Mrs. (Dr. J. L. Bray, King street, after a long and painful illness borne with christfortitude and great patience. Miss Noel was an active member of Christ church, and was especially in terested in the women's auxiliary, of which she had been vice-president for some years. Death is particularly sad, owing to the fact that her sister died but a few short weeks ago. Her death, while not entirely unexpected has come as a shock to the surviving members of the family, who have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends. Three sisters, Mrs. J. L. Bray, Miss J. V. G. Noel, of this city, and Mrs. Hainesworth, of Mon treal, survive.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescrip-German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually, Bos chee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and in now sold in every town and village i the civilized world. Will Fight For Fur Trade. Montreal, March 13.-The Hudson Bay company, whose sway over thousands upon thousands of miles of prairie and forest in the Canadian northwest for years has been undis puted, will meet with competition shortly, which promises to remind it of the days when the Great West com pany fought it tooth and nail for su premacy in the fur trade. According to an apparently well-founded report a rival company, backed by English and Canadian capital, is arranging to send vessels down Hudson and James' bays, and establish many trading posts along the east plain and on the west coast, which is the stronghold of the Hudson Bay company. Such a move would undoubtedly precipitate a life-and-death fight between the rival interests.
