A Lady Who Has Won Prizes for Her Work Writes About DIAMOND DYE MAT and RUG PATTERNS.

A lady residing in a progressive Ontario town, and who has been a user of Diamond Dyes for over twenty years, says: "I learned the art of making mats and rugs years ago. In many cases I was obliged to work up patterns that were not perfectly traced by hand or stamped by the old-fashioned methods."

DUNSMUIR IN PERIL.

Politics in British Columbia are a rare hodge-podge. The government, (Dunsmuir's) is principally conservative, and it has scored a notable victory in the election of Col. Prior, in Victoria, but by appeals which have been more or less misleading, and by bribery into which the courts will be invited to look later on.

THURSDAY THOUGHTS.

Mr. Tarte will see the king's coronation. The Journal will see in this another surrender to the English.

Ultimate In The Protection Idea.

Whenever one man is "protected" it is done at the expense of some other man. The wail of the infant industry for protection so soon grows into the hoarse and defiant howl of the gigantic and merciless trust that we look with suspicion upon every form of enterprise that starts with a plea to be fed with a spoon.

No Millions There.

Those people who are paying lawyers to seek for untold millions said to be hoarded in chancery in Great Britain awaiting claimants, may be interested in learning that an official statement just issued shows the total of the 3,200 separate accounts in the custody of the court to be about £1,000,000, amounts ranging from £150 to £1,000.

Ottawa, March 13.—T. A. Stevenson, of Wakefield, has been elected warden of Wright county, Que. Mrs. Birkett, wife of Thomas Birkett, M.P. for Ottawa, died this morning after a lengthy illness. The late Mrs. Birkett has been ill for a long time and her death had been expected for several days.

WHAT PAPERS ARE SAYING.

Well, Well. Tory Toronto World. Mr. Tarte in view of that fact the legislature should consider whether provision should not be made in every charter for the acquisition on just terms by the public of the franchise and property at the conclusion of the period for which it was originally granted.

In A Good Cause.

Chinamen in Canada have subscribed $20,000 to the reform movement in China. Now you know where the good money you pay out to have your shirt bosoms torn is going.

A Good Policy.

Public ownership, however, seems to be in the air, and in view of that fact the legislature should consider whether provision should not be made in every charter for the acquisition on just terms by the public of the franchise and property at the conclusion of the period for which it was originally granted.
