GREAT INTEREST

Evidenced in the Case of a Prominent Toronto Citizen.

The public generally who are acquainted with Mr. Alex. Lang, of St. James Street, Toronto, are wondering greatly at the remarkable recovery this gentleman had of a bad stomach disorder and blood disease by taking the new discovery, Dr. Chase's Kidney Pills.

FAIRLY SHORT SPEECHES

Wedding at Godfrey.

Godfrey, March 21.—On the evening of the 19th a pleasant and interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Godfrey, when their daughter, Evelyn, was united in marriage to Alfred Brock, one of Holloford's most esteemed young men.

Promptly at the hour of eight o'clock, while the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. E. Reynolds of Hartington, were being sung, the party entered the spacious parlor.

The group was attended by A. Miller, of Verona, while the bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss Minnie Campbell, of Hartington.

The bride was given away by her father, who was handsomely attired in white muslin, with lace trimmings, while she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid was also very becomingly dressed in white cashmere. The Rev. I. H. Richards, pastor of the Methodist church, Verona, performed the ceremony, after which the guests, about sixty in number, repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed.

After several hours of social enjoyment, Mr. and Mrs. Brock left for Holloford, where they will reside. The bride was the recipient of many useful and handsome presents, these testifying to the high esteem in which she is held. As one of Godfrey's most talented young ladies, she will be greatly missed, especially from among the circle of her friends in the church, where in the Sabbath school and public service, she has acted as organist and leader of the choir for a number of years.

A Wedding Wedding.

A wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Thomas Penny, when her only daughter, Miss Alice J., was united in marriage to Amos D. Hughes, Robin. The ceremony was performed Wednesday, March 5th, by the Rev. D. H. Brown, Sully, in the presence of about forty invited guests. As the wedding march was being played by Mrs. Norman Coburn, the bridal party entered the room. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of blue tulle, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Belle Cameron, who was also dressed in blue. The groom was assisted by his brother, Milton Hughes. After the ceremony was performed, and congratulations extended, the guests repaired to the dining room where a beautiful wedding supper was spread. The presents received by the bride were many and costly, showing the high esteem in which she was held. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will take up housekeeping along with Mrs. Penny.
