Pierrepont Opens Navigation.

At half past eleven o'clock this morning, the steamer Pierrepont started out from the ferry wharf to smash he bridge that spanned the city and he islands. Several hundred people along the harbor front watched the pont ran quickly through for a quarter of a mile until opposite Point Frederick where difficulty was encountered. However, this thick ice was slowly broken, the steamer backing and then attacking under full steam. Easy progress was made up the harbor to Channel Grove. It was expected that the steamer would reach Cape Vincent this evening. Navigation thus opens sixteen days earlier than in 1900

WYNDHAM CLINGS TO LAW.

IS OPPOSED TO PROCLAMATION OF IRISH LEAGUE.

Cabinet Much in Doubt-One Section, Headed by Lord Londonderry, Former Chief Secretary, Urges Suppression.

London, March 24.-The question now hanging in doubt with the cabinet is whether the United Irish league shall be proclaimed. It is understood that Friday's cabinet . council was again concerned with the contentions of the two sections of the cabinet, the one section headed by lord Londonderry, a former lord lieutenant Ireland favoring the mmediate suppression of the league, under crimes act; the other section, which includes Mr. Wyndham, the chief secretary, desiring to cling to the dinary law for the suppression of active crime as long as possible.
