Leckie, M.A., preached auspicious event to Anglican people distant climes in quest of health. The tor announcement that he would preach in the cathedral on Easter Sabbath evening brought forth a very large congregation. Evening service was conducted by the dean of Ontario, canon Grout and Rev. G. L. Starr. The music was a grand feature, the well-trained choir of forty voices swelling forth in the glad Easter music. The anthem was "Behold I Show You A Mystery," C. B. S. Harvey taking the solo. The cathedral's brilliant organist, R. R. F. Harvey, ably conducted the musical service. Bishop Mills' sermon was more than eloquent and powerful-it was convincing. His test was John xi, 25, "I am the resurrection and the life." Services At St. Mary's. Yesterday, being the great feast Easter or the "Queen of Festivals," it was observed in St. Mary's cathedral with all the grandeur and solemnity of the ritual of the Roman Catholic church. At the early masses the number of people who partook of their paschal communion was very large. At eight o'clock mass the members of the various Catholic societies were present and communicated together. Pontifical grand mass was celebrated by his grace the archbishop, assisted by Revs. Fra. A. Hanley, as deacon, and John Hanley, as sub-deacon, respectively. Rev. Fr. Salmon was dean of the mass and Rev. Fr. Mea was director of ceremonies His grace was vested with his pontifical robes on the throne and proceeded to the altar accompanied by his assistants in their magnificent Sons robes of silk and gold.
