'At Bethel Church.

The services on Sunday in Bethe Congregational church were bright and interesting. In the morning the members of the Sumay-school attended in a body and manifested the deepest interest in Rev. Mr. Morden's sermon, which was specially for young people. Mr. Morden spoke from Pro verbs xxx, on "Three things which are little but are exceeding wise-the ants the conies and the locusts. "The Resurrection" was the theme at the evening service, and in a convincing manner Mr. Morden presented this 'best attested fact of history.'
