His beard measures ten feet ten and one-half inches in length, while his moustache is over a yard and a half long. Of course he has taken his time to cultivate these amazing adornments, as you may gather from the fact that he is seventy-six years of age. He is very proud of them, and this is perhaps one reason among many why he does not permit the vulgar to gaze on his grandeur every day of the week. The inhabitants of Montelucon, in the department of Allier, where Coulon re sides, are very proud of him, and by way of acknowledging their appreciation, the man with the unlimited beard exhibits his luxurious growth to all and sundry who care to come and see him any Sunday. Indeed, it may be said that for him the Sab bath is scarcely a day of rest, when not on view he is carefully dressing his amazing appendage and moustache. During the week he rolls his beard in a sort of bag, so that he may be able to go about his occupation the more conveniently.
