Tell Me Somebody Who Wants to Get Well.

Let Me Tell Him My Way. I Will Pay The Cost, If It Fails.

I want not a penny from you. All I ask is the name of a sick one—simply a postal stamp which book I shall send.
I wish to explain a treatment that I spent a lifetime in learning. Then let the sick one decide if he wants it. If he tries it, and it fails, I will pay every penny of the cost.

I will do this at the start.
I will send the sick one an order on his or her druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I will tell that druggist to let him test it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself. I will leave the decision to you.

Don't misjudge my offer, for I do just as I say. I leave the matter to your honor. You could cheat me, if you would; but I trust you. I ask in return your confidence. There is no possible way in which I could be unfair with you.

In the past five years, I have furnished my treatment to over half a million people in just this way. My records show that 30 in each 40 paid for it, thereby admitting that it did what I claim.
That means that 30 in each 40 are cured.

This remarkable record results from the fact that I have learned how to strengthen the inside nerves.
I do not doctor the organ that is weak. But I bring back the nerve power which makes that organ act. I give it the strength to do its duty—nerve strength.

I have from a vast experience that in most chronic diseases there is no other way to get well. With any other remedy, the plan which I offer would bankrupt the man who made it.

Yet I cannot always succeed. Some of these troubles have causes, like cancer, which no man can cure. But these conditions are rare, and when a failure occurs, I alone am the loser. The patient is at least as well as he was, and not a penny the poorer.

If a man promised you wealth without the risk of a penny, how quick you would grasp it!
I promise you health, how much better is that!
Would you merely write me about it?

Simply state which: Book No. 1 on Dropsy, Book No. 2 on the Urinary Tract, Book No. 3 on the Lungs, Book No. 4 on Stomach, Book No. 5 on Rheumatism, Book No. 6 on Hypertension.

With care, and abstinence, sex often cured by one or two bottles. All our druggists.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT IN AN IRON TUBE FOUNDRY.
A New Lacrosse League Formed in Montreal, Will Not Exclude Toronto—The Price of Dominion Steel Still Keeps up Well.
Montreal, April 12.—A young lad, aged sixteen, named Vanlier, was tragically torn to pieces this morning in the iron tube foundry at St. Henri where he was employed. He was caught in the machinery and death was instantaneous.
The talk in lacrosse circles to-day is that when the senior lacrosse league meets this afternoon, in this city, the organization will disband and that subsequently a new organization will be formed which will not include Toronto. One reason for this action regarding Toronto is the expense of taking clubs to that city from the east, resulting in financial loss. There is talk of electing alderman Lamarche to the presidency of the proposed new organization which will include the Point St. Charles club in place of Toronto. Mr. Lamarche is now president of the National lacrosse club.
The first bid for Dominion steel, common, at the opening of the stock exchange to-day was at sixty-nine. He was immediately surrounded by a howling mob of sellers. When matters got straightened out 500 shares went on the board at these figures. A little later 601, the former top level, was reached with a subsequent reaction to 69. Yesterday's closing was 66 1/2. Canadian Pacific was also very strong, selling up to 117 by the first hour.

MAJOR WALLER

Attempts to Justify His Treatment of Samar Natives.
Manila, April 12.—Major Littleton W. Waller, of the marine corps, who is being tried by court-martial on the charge of executing Samar natives without trial, addressed the crowded court yesterday. The major said he was either right or wrong in his actions, and added that he desired to cite five precedents, which came under the head of his own case. He alluded to the naval battle at Santiago and the humanity he had shown the Spaniards thanking him for the kindness he had shown them.
Continuing, Maj. Waller said that, in 1882, he was with British forces in Egypt, where Arabs captured pickets of Bengal cavalry, decapitated the prisoners and placed their heads on poles. Afterwards, all the Arabs who were caught were shot without trial. During the campaign in China the Chinese mutilated the dead and tortured the wounded to death, consequently, when a Boer or a fanatic was captured, he was executed immediately, without reference. This was true in the case of the troops of every nation in China. It was true the three weeks he commanded the Americans there, that the same thing occurred, later, when he was no longer in command. No protest was made, and he had every right to believe that his acts were approved, so far as the American forces were concerned. He knew they were approved by those of the other nations.
"It is impossible to conceive such treachery as that of the natives of Samars," said the major. "They revel in blood, and have an appetite for human flesh." The major said he was not satisfied with the charges against him. He had a right to believe that his acts were approved, so far as the American forces were concerned. He knew they were approved by those of the other nations.

CHINA'S ENORMOUS WEALTH IN COAL

Among the great undeveloped resources of China are its coal-beds. In the province of Shanxi the coal-fields cover an area of 14,000 square miles and contain, it is estimated, more than 600,000,000,000 tons of anthracite—"enough," says the Engineer, "to suffice for the wants of the world at the present rate of consumption for over 2,000 years." With this great coal formation is associated a rich deposit of iron ore. Large coal-fields exist also in Honan and other provinces, none of which have been worked by the Chinese in a scientific manner. In short, coal is said to be, as far as yet ascertained, the most plentiful mineral in China; but iron is not so abundant.

BUDGET MAY BE POSTPONED.

Remote Chance That Hicks-Beach Will Recover in Time.
London, April 12.—There is still a possibility that the discussion of the budget will be again postponed. Last night Mr. Balfour announced in the course of business that there was a "very remote" chance of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, being sufficiently recovered to deal with the budget.

WHAT DUKE'S CREDITORS LOSE.

London, April 12.—In the bankruptcy court the registrar decided, in spite of rash speculation and extravagance in living "that he would annul the bankruptcy of the duke of Manchester, an arrangement having been reached by which the sum of £11,578 is provided, giving their creditors 12d. in the pound sterling.

TO INVESTIGATE METHODS

OF MINING IN NOVA SCOTIA BY ENGLISHMEN.
What Mr. Dick Has to Tell of His Recent Visit to Europe—Hopes to Secure Good Contracts in Scandinavia.
Halifax, April 12.—Alexander Dick, assistant to the general manager of the Dominion coal company, who has arrived here from his trans-Atlantic tour in the interests of the company, reports that he made a number of new contracts in Scandinavia and Denmark, and is hopeful that the large ones will be closed when the shipments to the St. Lawrence markets cease. Mr. Dick says he found competition much more than he was during his last visit. While in England Mr. Dick suggested to the British royal commission on coal the desirability of including the colonial trade in the sphere of its investigation. A number of English colliery proprietors and mining managers, he says, are about to visit Nova Scotia to study improved methods of mining.

ORGANIZE FORCES

All Over the Empire to be Always Available.
Toronto, April 12.—A meeting of the executive committee of the Toronto branch of the navy league was held yesterday, at which a memorandum, drawn up for submission to the dominion government, on the subject of imperial defense, was adopted. The memorandum, which is a lengthy one, urges the necessity for the organization of forces at the present available in the outlying parts of the empire so that in case the empire should be attacked these forces will be ready for immediate use. Such forces it is declared should be organized and maintained by the colonies, and remain under the absolute control of their respective governments.
The document also draws the attention of the government to the importance of adopting a policy whereby Great Britain and Canada, by a joint system of subsidization shall create a powerful fleet of merchant steamers in the North Atlantic, which would produce a large number of fleet auxiliaries in time of war, and outline a scheme whereby the merchant seamen and fishermen of the dominion of Canada may be organized and trained as a part of the Canadian militia system.
The document occurred yesterday of ex-Ald. J. B. Boustead, who for twenty years was a member of the Toronto city council. Mr. Boustead was sixty-seven years of age, and had been a resident of Toronto since he was twenty-one. He was prominent in business, church, municipal and social circles. He had been ill with paralysis for a year and a half.

RHODES' PORTRAITS ARE FULL-FACE.

A story illustrative of a side of this many-sided man is told by the artist, in the well-known portrait painter. Mr. Rhodes was in the artist's studio preparing to sit.
"How are you going to paint me?" he inquired, with undissimulated anxiety. Before the artist could reply Mr. Rhodes added determinedly, "if you don't paint me full face you don't paint me at all, unless it is the back of my head. Why does a man want to paint you straight in the face? No one ever saw me other than full face." Mr. Rhodes went on to tell how a distinguished R.A. had once painted him three-quarter face. He bought the picture at once for a large sum and destroyed it.

WHAT IS OFFERED.

London, April 12.—Among the many news rumors, this morning, the most interesting is to the effect that the Boers have intimated that they are willing to come into the British empire as junior partners, to give up their flag and become part of an African confederation with a flag of its own, with a supreme court and with practically an American constitution.

TRUTH WILL LAST.

Rev. Dr. McArthur, New York.
The pulpit has not lost its power. The world may have lost some of its former respect for the cloth, as cloth; but it never had greater respect for the manhood of the pulpit. The true minister cares neither for the old theology or the new as such, but he cares everything for the true theology, whether new or old.
