Leased A Residence Queen's college authorities have leasof the late W. R. McRae, on the corner of Earl and Clergy streets, for use as a woman's residence in connection with the college. The purpose is to make the place the ahode of the lady students, where the fullest enjoyments and comforts can be obtained, under the guidance and direction of an efficient chaperone. The college has bad a temporary residence in use during the past college term and found it a decided advantage. A committee of ladies has the matter in hand and are about to vigorously prosecute a can-vase for aid in properly equipping and furnishing the residence.
