WEALTH IN ONTARIO FARMS

TALK BEFORE CANADIAN CLUB BY C. C. JAMES.

Big Profit From Fruit—Two Problems For the Farmer—The Modern Pig is a Fortune Producer.

The members of the Canadian club know far more about the Ontario farmer, his cow and pig and sheep, than they did yesterday morning.

There are 175,000 farmers in Ontario and their invested capital amounts to one billion of dollars.

The speaker divided his subject into four heads: Wheat, fruit, live stock, and dairying.

CAUSES OF BAD EYESIGHT

OPINION OF EXPERT OCULIST IN LONDON OCCUPATIONAL.

It is in Many Cases the Result of Unnecessary Strain—Children Should Be Taught Alphabet By Means of Large Letters.

London, April 25.—Civilization has its drawbacks. An expert oculist connected with a London hospital was asked the other day what was the cause and cure for the large amount of defective eyesight among young people.

That unlovely animal, the pig, was the subject of an interesting five minutes. The hog of to-day is not the hog of the other day.

JAPAN'S LEADING ACTOR

His Ancestry Helps to Determine His Stage Rank. Japan has a leading actor whose place at the head of his profession is as undisputed as any actor's in England's in the theatrical world.

VERY PESSIMISTIC.

No Fear of British Flag Disappearing Off Seas. London, April 25.—The Daily Mail publishes a statement this morning to the effect that the promoters of the new shipping bill, that announce in a few days, that the arrangement is for mutual commercial convenience and has no special national significance.
