reasant Movement is Growing

London, April 28.—Telegrams from St. Petersburg and Russian despatch-es, through Berlin, show that the peasant movement is growing and teaching a serious stage. Hands, extinated to number 18,000 men, are ravaging the provinces of Poltava and Kharkhoff, where they are establishing a reign of terror. The duke of Mecklenburg's date at Karlovka was sacked because the steward, charged with distributing relisf, appropriated part of the money and pocketed the balance of a reduction of rent that the duke had conceded to his tenants.
