

Third of the Time.

ou'll Enjoy

our Sleep

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR NEW

KIRKPATRICK'S ART STORE

BY=

John H. Mills ROBERTSON

Are you selling out? if so em- GRAND ploy the best-you'll be more satisfied when your sale is over.

NOTICE. THE TIME FOR RECEIVING APPLICA nations for Church officer for St. Andrew's Church, has been extended to May 2nd.

AUCTION SALE 88 Wellington St., WED'Y, April 30th. HAIR CLOTH PARLOR SUITE, BED-ROOM

WANTED. BOY. APPLY TO OLDRIEVE & HO Calvin, 131 King atreet.

SOARDERS-TWO NICE ROOMS, WITH good board, may be had at 24 Steart street; also table board.

A CLERK WHO HAS HAD SOME EXPERI-once in a retell hardware store. Makel-vey & Birch, 69 and 71 Brock street. SUMMER BOARD FOR A FAMILY OF three, near Kingston, on the water front; farm house preferred. Address "W. J.," care Whig.

TEN BOYS, FROM 14 TO 17 YEARS OLD Who can work steady and earn from $2 to $8 per week. Apply to J. A. Gould & Co., Smith street, opposite 730 Prin-

THE METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE ents. Call at office, 115 Brock street and morning at 8 o'clock. Splendid acce for promotion.

ARSOLUTELY WATERPROOF wanted everywhere. Exclusive territory.

Jas. F. J. Guming & Co., 32 Church street, Toronto, Capada.

Terms moderate. Tools, trial, railroad ticket and catalogue ments.

mjured forty persons.

LOCAL MEMORANDA.

The Daily Note Book For Whig Readers to Post Themselves By. Certers' union, 8 p.m.

The love of money is never platonic

The undertaker finally overtakes us all. "Evil Eye," at the Grand overa house, 8 Court Eurl Roberts, I.O.F., dance, city

Nothing provokes a proud women pride of some other woman. When a man bonsts of his ancestors prob-

A statemen amisbly in the right is buildings at Queen's 10:45 a.m., to-morrow This day in the world's history : Close of Crimean war, 1856; Henry Clay died, 1852; siege of Orleans relieved, 1429; Capt. Cooks landed at Botany Bay, 1770; Coxey's army arrives at Washington, 1894; If. A. Massey, Toronto, born, 1823; Cervera's fleet leaves

The Latest.

Just Out.

OPERA Tuesday, April 29th Chas. H. Yale and Sidney R. Ellis' Big Trick Spectacle.

The beautiful Electric Ballet, the Victoria Troupe of Dancers, and

A Big Company of ARTISTS Prices 25c., 50c., 75c., $1.

ow on sale at HANLEY'S Friday and Saturday and May 2 and

THE BRINEST ACTOR

Friday Night, . "HAMLET." SATURDAY MATINEE, "ROMEO and JULIET." Saturday Night, "OTHELLO"

Appropriate Sconory. Superb Costumes. Prices-25c., 50c., 75c. Matinee-All chairs, 50c.; balance, 25c. box seats, 75c. Seats on sale 10 a.m., Wednesday, at

Would sesial in work of house in return TORONTO COLLEGE OF MUSIC,

LIMITED. ADIES AND GENTLEMEN ENJOY EVEN. In affiliation with the Universings at home by making twelve dollars per week. Head your address with two sity of Toronto.

12 and 14 Pembroke St. F. H. TORRINGTON, nations in Music

eld in Kingston in Juon next.

AUCTION SALE

Street, Toronto, Capadis.

AT MRS. SNOWDEN'S, 87 DIVISION
BIES, ALSO MEN, TO COPY LETTERS.
Street on FRIDAY, May 2nd, of her household effects, as follows: Bedreom Sets, daywing or avenings, strictly genuine emplot ment. EXCELSIOR MANUFACTUR.
ING CO. Station B, Clevelarsi Ohio.

BRIGHT AGENT, OF OURS EARNED
BRIGHT AGENT, OF OURS

THE TAWSE SCHOLARSHIPS. Sum of $900 Has Been Left to Toronto, Ont., April 29.-Mary Tawse, spinster, King township, who before the unfortunate, lad realized the died on March 16th last, left an cs danger. A boy may be full of mistate worth $2,832. By Miss Tawse's chief and very troublesome, but one will, entered for probate yesterday the such could hardly be imagined as sum of $900 is set aside for the found-committing a murder. The deed was ing of a scholership at Queen's col-lege. Kingston, to be known as the it is their testimony that will decide. ton, 1.

OR THE ONLY ACTHORIZED LIFE OF PARTY OF THE ONLY ACTHORIZED LIFE OF BRY, STATE OF THE ONLY ACTHORIZED LIFE OF BRY, STATE OF THE ONLY ACTHORIZED LIFE OF BRY, STATE OF THE ONLY ACTHORIZED LIFE OF THE ONLY STATE O just purchased the old Upper Canada sorrow, too, is deep and touching. the price paid for the property, but the deal involved many thousand.dol-P.Q. and 16 East Senera lars. The company's present building, on King street, has become al-

A Terrible Tragedy In Frontenac School

HOLLAND'S TEMPLE. After the Awful Deed the Lad Fled, But Later Gave Himself He Claims He Had no Intention of Shooting-The Revolver Went Off. young and innocent life. Eric Sharp, above the eye and an inch and a half the fourteen-year-old son of H. Sharp, to the outer side. grocer, shot and almost instantly killed Beatrice Holland, a young girl of his own age, the daughter of George Holland, Rideau street, engineer on the Kingston & Pembroke ticulars of the awful deed are these : About four o'clock the pupils in Miss Boyd's junior fourth class were one by one dismissed when they had finished their spelling lesson. Four or charged. five of these were in the cloak room, preparing to go home, and among them were Eric Sharp and Beatrice Holland. The latter, in a playful way, tipped the lad's hat off his head, and this action annoyed young Sharp. According to the other children present, he threatened to shoot Beatrice if she bothered him any more. Hardly had he spoken his warning, when he pulled a small revolver from his pocket. A quick report and a scream followed, and the poor, innocent girl temple. The teachers within reach and many pupils rushed to the scene had been sent to the station. Police tained. as the witnesses of the deed shrieked constable Aiken was the first to hear Gerald Balfour added that the board and the doctors, her spirit passed to Aiken proceeded to make a search for the better land. It was a hushed moment, and there were many tear-dimmed eyes, as the little form lay still He found a portion of it in the base-

Then the body was taken in Corbett's ambulance to the home of the a cartridge in a laneway between York stricken parents on Rideau street, where the child had only a few hours before left in the brightest of spirits. That home is now darkened by the shadow of death, and bitter is the anguish of those within. In their sorrow, the family are receiving the on Saturday night. The price paid deepest sympathy from every side.

The Boy Fled.

After committing the awful deed, upper portion of the city, and finally pointed the revolver at the girl, found bimself in the city park. There | thinking it was empty. vised to give himself up to the police. morine and Rev. A. W. Cooke. ed at the station.

when she knocked his hat, no such just before her child passed away. thing as injuring her ever entered his The junior fourth class at Frontemind. He took out the revolver to | nac school was dismissed this mornfrighten her. The lad's comrades say ing. The scholars and teachers will he had the weapon for some time, and | send wreaths to be placed on the cofused it to shoot frogs. After the un-fortunate boy had given himself up, he was visited by his father, who spent the greater part of the night with him. Mr. Sharp retained W. Mundell,

Few people believe that young Sharp deliberately shot Beatrice Holland. The general opinion seems to frighten her, and that it went off ere he knew it. The revolver, it is understood, is a small one, with a hairspring, and the hammer probably fell Tawse scholarship.

Frederick Nicholas, general manager pressed for the family of the boy of the Canadian general electric com- whose hand was the means of sendpany, states that his company has ing a young girl to her death. Their Story Of A Witness. A little girl named Marrison, living on York street, and a pupil in Miss loyd's class, was a witness of the shooting. Her story is very brief and simple, and is to this effect: While we were in the cloakroom, Bentrice Holhat with her hand. The hat fell to the floor. Then Eric pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot Beatrice, Melville Sands, Queen street, is now who less to the moor at once.

Harrowsmith, where he is engaged From the school pupils it is learned who fell to the floor at once. friends, and this the teachers also The Fuller Gould-Wabash syndicate The royal agus over the door of the vouch for. Last Friday, principal has now practically secured the West mayor's office at Limerick, was stollers says he understands that term Maryland railway.

Beatrice had been teasing Eric in a | T playful manner, but the boy didn't seem to mind it. The principal says

The flag on Frontenac school floats at half mast in memory of the dead girk, and in the play grounds all was quiet, the pupils being greatly affected over the tragic ending of the life of A BULLET PIERCED BEATRICE one of their number. When the teachers entered the cloak room, Miss Boyd stooped over the dying girl and spoke to her several times, but no answer came. From the up to the Police Authorities- moment the bullet pierced her forehead, she never uttered a word. The doctors applied stimulants, in the endeavor to keep up the heart's action, but to no avail. The bullet had A terrible tragedy occurred in Fron- well done its deadly work, and twelve tenac public school on Monday after minutes after the shot was fired, the noon at four o'clock, the result of little girl slept in death. The bullet which was the blotting out of a entered the right temple an inch

The Revolver Found.

The revolver was found near the school last evening by police constable the lad as he fled from the scene. It policy which led to the subvention of As far as could be learned, the parlittle weapons which take the eye of -----a boy, and which can be easily secreted in the pocket. Four chambers were found empty, and one other was

The Dead Girl.

Beatrice Holland, who met such tragic death, was a bright little girl. Everyone who knew her has a good word to say about her. She was clever at music, and a favorite with her playmates. She attended Queen street Methodist Sunday-school.

Action Of The Police. school, little Beatrice Holland was be- him down into the city, and arrived yond all earthly aid, and surrounded at the station just after the lad had by her young comrades, the teachers given himself up. Then constable > Cherry street, under the sidewalk, and and Main streets. Constable Aiken finally found that the revolver had been purchased in the second-hand store of I. Zacks, on Princess street, by a boy named Mc-Dermott, who got it for young Sharp was two dollars.

> Sharp, who told contradictory stories.

ment of the school, one chamber on Lad's Parents At Police Station. Mr. Sharp knew nothing about his he boy fled-whither no one knew. son having the revolver. At the police When the affair was reported to the station he besought the boy to tell police, diligent search was made for the whole truth about the matter. him, but no trace could be found. Mrs. Sharp also spent some hours However, at seven o'clock last even- with her son, who now realizes the ing he gave himself up at police head- enormity of his deed. Mr. Sharp told quarters, and was placed in custody. the police that his son had lately been He appeared completely dazed, and reading some obnoxious dime novels could tell very little of the terrible af- and had been smoking cigarettes. fair. When he realized what he had Young Sharp tells the police that he cone,he says that he became crazed, had been shooting frogs, and thought and dashed off, not knowing where he he had taken all the cartridges out. was going. He wandered through the It was under this impression that he States.

he sat down, and brooded over the The boy was shown every attention awful deed, of which he could remem- at the police station, and allowed to ber little, except that the bullet remain in constables' ward, not bestruck the girl. He told a boy named | ing put in the cells at all. He was Tompkins of the matter, and was ad- visited this morning by canon Mac-This advice he took, and soon appear- Immediately after the shooting, a boy on a bicycle tore down to the Young Sharp sain he had no inten- home of the girl's parents on Rideau tion whatever of shooting Beatrice street. Mrs. Holland hurried towards Holland when he pulled the revolver the school, but on the way was met Musical Director. from his pocket. She was his friend, by Mr. Lemmon, who drove her the he says, and though he was annoyed remainder of the way. She arrived

HURLED OVER A BRIDGE.

A Serious Accident Over The Grand River. was to have been held at two o'clock o'clock this morning ten care, on the eastbound freight train on the Michi- bund Hill, where a business session Press. gan Central railway, left the track on was held this morning. A public meetthe large iron bridge over the Grand ing will be held this evening at which river here and were hurled into the there will be an address by lieutenantwater lifty feet below. Particulars of governor Gilbert and the recitation of how the accident happened are not to hand, but fortunately no one was Sultana survivors. hurt or killed, though the bridge was somewhat damaged.

Yesterday's Results.

Has His Choice. Omemee, Ont., April 29.-Maj. Neill f the 45th regiment, has received an offer of an appointment in the fourth contingent, either as a captain of a fron or as veterinary captain.

He has not yet decided which position A billion dollar packing trust is among the possibilities, if the United States government should succeed in maintaining the contemplated injunction proceedings, says the Chicago na was well enough on Monday after-

Consul-general Osborne died at his time residence in Wimbledon, Eng., this The government will reduce the Yukmorning. He was a cousin of the late on gold royalty to two and a half or president McKinley.

The royal arms over the door of the Kingston Steam Laundry | A. C. JOHNSTON & B.O.

that young Sharp always appeared to be a manly lad, the only trouble he gave being in playing truant. He always took punishments without murmur and preferred whipping to extra

AND THE REAL POSITION WILL

BE DEFINED. No Change in Ownership or in Flag Has Taken Place-The Concern is Simply Bound by the Regulations of a Legal London, April 29.-Gerald Balfour, president of the board of trade, said, that the government had no official information as to whether the English shipping companies had entered terms as the German and American

Arnold Foster, parliamentary secretary to the admiralty, declared that whatever may have teen the original Whitney's Policy.

At Wolfe Island on Saturday night Hop. F. R. Latchford, minister of public works for Ontario, gave the following as Mr. Whitney's financial policy :-To collect less, To spend more,

And to have more left,

It was half-past five o'clock before the admiralty that definite functions currence, as very strangely no notice time of war, and they were to be reof the shooting, and his first act was of trade had no power to compel the Tender was the care bestowed upon to go to the boy's home. Not finding disclosure of any agreement in referthe dying girl. Doctors and ambu- him there he proceeded down to ence to the transfer of any British lance were telephoned for, and the re-sponse was immediate. But when Drs. Street car motorman that the boy think that further powers were requirfundell and Campbell reached the had crossed the commons. He traced ed for preventing the evasion, or infraction of the merchants' shipping act. The possible effects of the American combination were engaging the serious attention of the government. The Shipping Gazette states that it is informed on the highest authority that while there will be no sale of the shares of the White Star line there will be an exchange of the present shares for those of the new trust. The real position of the companies concerned, it explains, is to enter into a pooling

The Central News says that an days to English steamship owners regarding the combination. This will define the exact position of each company which has joined the trest. Reparding the White Star line the official statement will prove that neither a change of ownership nor flag has light pool.

Where Shares Are Held. London, April 29 .- The Belfast respondent of the Times says that a Lord Kitchener Sends Report majority of the shares in the new shipping combination will be held in the united kingdom, not the United Causing Anxiety.

combination have increased rather have surrendered. There has been than diminished the apprehensions of desultory fighting in various sections the eyes noticeable after midthe leaders in financial and industrial of the Transvant and the Orange die life. circles. It is hoped that the German River colony. The garrison at companies will prove able to safe O'Okiep (Care Colony) successfully guard their independence, but some of held out until it was relieved."
the alleged stipulations are causing anxiety especially the one limiting the extension of the German service from to the German companies.

Reunion Of Sultana Survivors. Fort Wayne, Ind., April 29,-The reans escorted the visitors to Saengerpersonal experiences by several of the

Capt. Rockwell Retires. Washington, D.C., April 29.-To the long list of important naval retire-American league At Baltimore, 7; ments this spring another was added Boston, 2. At Washington, 9; Phila- to-day when Capt. Charles Henry delphia, 12. At Chicago, 0; Cleve Rockwell was retired by operation of the age limit, Capt. Rockwell was National league-At New York, 9; [born in and appointed from Massa-Brooklyn, 3. At Philadelphia, 4; Bos | chusetts, and has served nearly forty years. He retires with the rank of rear admiral, junior class. Rice And Ryan To Meet. New London, Conn., April 29 .- Billy Ryan, of Syracuse, and Austin Rice, of this city, who are to appear in a twenty-round bout to-night before the National athletic club, ap- Days pear to be in fine fettle for the mill. As boys are clever and aggressive fighters an interesting contest is ex-

It is reported that queen Wilhelmi noon to leave her bed for a short

PROF. ELLIOTT

the Wesleyan College Staff.

REV. JAMES ELLIGTT, B.A. Montreal, April 29.-Rev. James Elliott, B.A., who has filled Methodist ulpits in Kingston and Ottawa, has been appointed to succeed Prof. Har ris as professor of theology at the Wesleyan college, in this city. There is to be a re-arrangement of the staff and another branch will be added to Prof. Elliott's work.

MISS STONE WINS HER CASE Court Allows Her to Keep Her Lecture Contract,

Boston, April 29 .- Judge Richardson in the equitsession of the superior court refused to grant the pe M. Stone, the missionary, by Richard Heard, Charles A. Williams and Mark the police knew anything of the oc- could be assigned to such ships in Nathan, to restrain her from completing her lecture contract with Maj. J. B. Pond.

The court refused to issue the injunction, upon the grounds that the contract between Miss Stone and her managers was incomplete, the element of mutuality being lacking. The contract which was the basis of the suit. was only signed by two of the three plaintiffs on their part. The plaintiff's counsel was asked by judge Richartison to explain the absence of Richard Heard's name from the document, which had been signed for Miss Stone by her brother Charles. The lawyer's answer to the court was to br ng Mr. Heard to the attorney's table and sign the contract, then and Miss Stone's counsel immediately objected. Simultaneously judge Richardson excluded the signature and asked Mr. Rowley, the lawyer, if he considered it a proper answer to the question to have the signature affixed to the document in dispute, right under the court's nose,

Mr. Rowley explained that he did not regard the signature as necessary. but judge Richardson said that without the names of all the plaintiffs upon the contract at the time it was taken place, and that the company is made, the instrument lacked mutualsimply bound by the regulations of a ity, and he therefore denied the peti-

TWENTY-FIVE BOERS KILLED

Desultory Fighting. London, April 29.—The war office has made public the following dispatch from lord Kitchener, at Pre-

"Since April 21st, twenty-five Boers" made here, regarding the shipping been taken prisoners and twenty-five

More May Die. Winnipeg, April 29 .- There will pro-England. It is fully believed the Am- bably be some more fatalities in conericans will use their utmost efforts to nection with the Monchamp fire at build steamers superior to the Ger. Norbet. The eldest girl, Martha, agmans, enabling them to dictate terms | ed twelve, is not expected to live through to-day. The three-weeks ba- Why out demented and the doctors doubt the recovery of her reason. Monmaining survivors of the historic Sul- champ, himself, probably will recover. tana disaster assembled in this city The funeral, yesterday, was one of the to-day, for their annual reunion, Sev. largest ever seen in the district, peoeral states are represented among the ple driving many miles to it and the visitors. The local grand army mem- scene in the church was most affect-Cayuga, Ont., April 29.-About ten bers and Spanish-American war veter ing, A subscription list for the survivors has been started by the Free

The Ninth Death. Port Dover, Ont., April 29 .-- Mrs. Poughner, who lives two miles from here, was found dying by her children and expired before aid could be summoned. She had taken an overdose of laudanum. It is supposed she had taken the drug to induce sleep. This is the ninth death in the family connection within fifteen months.

Ladies' Patent Leather Boots. See the prices in Abernethy's win

During Moving

> Send the ramily washing to us, and save yourself all the worry and labor. Our rates are reasonable, and the quality of our work

(Successor to Baker's) Phone 22. Princess Street

unsurpassed.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

Toronto, Ont., April 29.—Easterly and southerly winds, worm, showers and local thursder storms to-night: Wednesday showers in morning, then clearing, with westerly

There is a Big Difference in

Table Linens and Napkins

Lots of them are clumsily made; some are inartistically designed. Often the entire output of a careless maker don't contain a valuable o worthy thing. It is only by handling the productions of the oldest best known and most reliable weavers and Designers that we avoid the bad features that condemn many linen

Our linen department is well located on the first floor and it never knows dull season. Is it because of the worthy and large stocks or the attractive prices both, maybe, but the store is the place to find out. See our window display of Liddels' celebrated Irish Linens, then come inside and examine qualities and see

BORN

DUNLOP—On March 29th, Kaja, Japan, to Rev. J.

HITCHCOCK-1 Sunbury, April 28th, Emma Gordon, wife of Joseph Hitchcock, aged thirty-six years.
Funeral from her late residence to Sand Hill cemetery, Wednesday, the 30th, at one o'elook p.m.

We Have Every Facility

For the careful estimation and correction of any error of vision, whether the defective Berlin, April 29.-The statements have been killed, seventy-eight have sight of the young, or the gradual and natural failing of Results Guaranteed.

SMITH BROS. 350 King Jewelers and Opticians.

JAPANESE CATARRE CURE JAPANESE CATARRES CURE, cures. Here are a lew: John Sloan, Toronto, Catarrh 7 years—cured. Frank Dawns, Fort Höpe, Catarrh 3 years—cured. Joseph Little. Easington. B.C., Catarrh 25 years—cured. Mrs. James Windight, Toronto, Catarrh 5 years—cured. Try it yourself, that's the best test. Send 5c. for sample. 50c. at Druggists or postpaid from The Griffiths is Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto.

TINSMITHS Don't Strike

Who use our solder. It's such a pleasure to work. Half and balf, refined, wire, any THE CANADA METAL CO., William Street . Toronto.

Sol Smith Russell, the

Men's Patent Leather Boots

At Abernethy's.

the lowest

Watch

We Sell. They are accurate time-keepers. They are durably constructed and the price is

Goes With Every Wa ch