The machine described is only one of many which have been tried by the conservative party with more or les success. It is time all were smashed, contest may make an end of them. It is to be hoped they will, though in so doing it is not likely they will add to the hilarity of the folks on the Mail.

THE YOUNG MEN'S VOTES. The Brantford Courier disputes with the Whig about the franchise to young farmers. The fact remains, however, that the conservatives refused to recognize the farmers' sons as specially deserving of votes. The position these young men is a peculiar They are wanted at home. SPIRIT OF THE WEEK. The synod of Hamilton and London desires the bible to be studied erature in the schools. The grammatica matter of so much importance as the meaning which the language conveys, and, as one learns from Worklassic which is more appreciated than the bible, but its spirit is the thing which, religiously, carries with it an overwhelming and permeating influence. | The "critical" study of the hible is made manifest in many direc tions and here follows some of the periences of the past week.
