The Kind of Work Done by Paine's Celery Compound

Mrs. S. W. Sullivan, of Orliss, Ont. Had Rheumatism So Bad She Could Not Raise Her Hands to Her Head, and Could Not Walk Owing to Pains and Stiffness of Joints.

After The Use of Two Bottles of Paine's Celery Compound Her Aches and Pains are Banished, and She Finds Herself as Strong as Ever Before.

True merit, prompt and effective results and astonishing cures given Paine's Celery Compound a position on the highest round of the ladder of fame.

Paine's Celery Compound is today, the only spring medicine asked for and bought by thoughtful and discerning people.

"I was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that I could not raise my hands to my head, and my arms could not walk owing to pains and stiffness of joints.

TELLING THE WHOLE TRUTH. Mr. Foster, the most discredited politician in Canada—a veritable political wanderer and outcast—has had the nerve, in Toronto, to criticize the Ross government.

The conservative party is, therefore, shown to have entered into a corrupt campaign with a bad man, for political effect, and to have shielded him from the gao! to which he should have been sent.

A CONSERVATIVE'S REBUKE. One of the sharpest rebukes which the Whitney party has received comes from a political ally.

"The greatest mistake made by the conservatives during the present campaign," he says, "is their criticism of the government's pulpwood policy.

Mr. Davies shows that he is familiar with the business by discussing the value of the pulp-wood when cut for export, as it is in the province of Quebec.

"Go down to the sea and you will find a great industrial development in the island of Cape Breton. But, say these gentlemen, it was not they who did that. No, sir, it was not they who did that.

The policy of the government is to induce the capitalists to invest their wealth in pulp mills, which cost from half million dollars and upwards each.

people. Nearly five millions have been expended in this industry, and employment has been given to nearly two thousand hands.

WHITNEY IN HIS PLACE. The meeting in the City hall on Thursday night was small enough to be a party caucus, and the message which Mr. Pringle delivered was very confidential.

Mr. Colquhoun and the machine have been colliding in Hamilton real hard. And the mayor and ex-member is still in the ring.

Mr. Shaw has imitated Billy Maclean and put his ear to the ground. No one can tell what he heard, and he will not tell himself.

CANADA AND THE FINANCES. The opposition in the commons have not allowed the session to close without a resolution of want of confidence in the government.

The reply of Mr. Fielding was the more effective, though Mr. Tarte, in following Mr. Haggart, said some sharp things.

Mr. Fielding's finish was very effective. He said: "Go down to the sea and you will find a great industrial development in the island of Cape Breton.

"Go to the great west, and what do you find? These gentlemen, who pride themselves so much on what they did for the north-west, managed to produce a condition of affairs there which culminated at one period in a great rebellion.

Under the administration of this government, which has not been disposed to shrink from expenditure when such expenditure was needed.

ple hopeless and dependent, we find that not only are the people who were there before prosperous, contented and happy, but thousands are coming from all parts of the world.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The Hamilton Herald thinks that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt is a bigger man than his leader.

Mr. Colquhoun and the machine have been colliding in Hamilton real hard. And the mayor and ex-member is still in the ring.

"Ontario needs a housecleaning," says a conservative print. The work is being preceded by a sort of personal fumigation of opposition members.

How can there be a school book ring when any one complying with the government's conditions, as to materials, can go into the publishing business?

The miners in the United States struck against the advice and judgment of the president.

Thanks to Beattie Nesbitt the discovery has been made that a scholar can get a public school outfit of books, in the junior classes, for 11c. a year.

Several well known people—including one or two who usually carry the fortunes of the conservative party about in their pockets—were missed from the platform of the conservative meeting on Thursday evening.

Mr. Foy has been called in from the conservative tour to wrestle with perverse voters in South Toronto.

A freight and passenger steamship line, across the Atlantic, under government control, is the latest announcement from Ottawa.

A conservative journal resents the excuse that the Yukon railway was built on Sir Charles Tupper's recommendation.

Some women are tireless in their home work, others in their work in the church or their favorite society or club; they laugh and sing and are happy.

"I want every woman to know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of much value to a large number of women of our order.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was sick with female weakness. I took all kinds of medicines, you might say, and was operated on by doctors, but they did me no good.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony as we are constantly publishing: only the unquestionable merit of Mrs. Pinkham's great medicine can accomplish so much.

$5000 REWARD. We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission.
