the Attack On a Paralyzed Woman.

THREE LITTLE GIRLS CON-FESS THE CRIME.

Only Wanted to Hurry Their Victim, Whom They Beat With Sticks, Threw Sand in Her Eyes and Set Fire to Her Clothing.

Palmyra, N.J., May 24.—Helpless in bed, a paralyzed woman, eighty-five years old, is said to have been tortured by three little girls in a manner that seems almost beyond belief The three children, however, confess that they beat the poor old woman with sticks, threw sand in her eyes poured scalding water on her hand then set her clothing on fire.

These three little creatures admit the charges against them, and when arraigned yesterday they not only confessed to having applied the tor tures to the old woman, but added that they did it all only to "tease

After the death it was found that the old woman's clothing had burned, and investigation ended the arrest of the girls. Their confession followed, and this, added to the testimony of Mrs. Mary A. Polk and Dr. J. D. Janney, resulted in their committal to the county jail for trial Remorse seized the tots, however, and when taken to prison they wept and shrieked to be released, repeat ting that they didn't mean to hurt the old woman, but only intended to
