A Time For Shrieking.

We have no desire that the liberals should hold power by any but honest means. But shricking about fraud is a very different thing from procuring and producing the evidence thereof. However, there is no particular harm even in the shricking, and it may afford our friends the enemy some much needed relief. They are in a querulous mood just now, and inclined to extract dark and s nister meanings out of the most simple and straightforward language; but we suppose that is to be expected, too.

Did Not Return The Skiff. On election day a young man, who has resided in the city for some time. rented a skiff from William Card Wolfe Island, in which to come to the city, promising to return the boat next day. He did not do so, and yesterday Mr. Card came to the city, and informed the police. The skiff was found in the vicinity of Macdonald park, with the oars missing. The young man is not in the city at pres ent, and the cause of his action not known.

A Lively Runaway.

A rig from R. E. Wilson's livery was proceeding along lower Montreal street this morning when the axle broke and the horse ran away. After a furious run the animal rushed on to the wharf near Richardsons' elevator, and had the buggy not become fast in some lumber the horse would have gone into the lake. The rig was badly damaged, while the legs of the horse received deep cuts.
