W.C.T.U. MEETING. Observance of Lord's Day—The Flower Mission.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Macmillan, president, occupied the chair and conducted the usual devotional exercises.

The committee appointed at last meeting to prepare comfort bags for the lumber camps, met and got ready seventeen well-filled bags which will be sent shortly to the northwest.

The programme for the usual educational hour was the object of the flower mission and was exceedingly interesting. The provincial superintendent of this department, Miss Lida Patterson, Midland, in her circular letter, said: "This is our flower mission day."

The thought throughout the study is how much good may be done by simple acts of kindness. As there are few if any who do not prize the gift of a flower, besides almost any one rich or poor, can without much trouble and at small expense, be the means of giving pleasure to many others.
