APPLYING THE TERM

"Our Country" To Whole Of South Africa

AND BUT PART OF A GREATER

HE CALLED A TRUCE TO POLI-TICAL STRIFE.

The Boers Are Glad the War is Ended—Gen. Joubert Died of Illness and Not of Wounds—
The Influences That Caused Boers to Surrender.

Johannesburg, June 8.—Lord Milner attended a banquet given by the mechanical engineers' association, last evening, and in addressing the guests urged that there should be a truce to political strife during the next few years so that the country might be enabled to prosper. Replying to the toast of "The Land We Live In," his lordship expressed the hope that all would get the habit of applying the term, "Our Country," to the whole of South Africa and to it only as a part of a still greater people. He trusted that in the future all would try to develop a wider patriotism and devotion to South Africa as being part of a world wide empire.

Death of Joubert.
Durban, Natal, June 9.—Mr. Schalk-burger, the former acting president of the Transvaal, in an interview, published in the Mercury, says "that Gen.
Joubert died of illness and not of wounds as had been reported. Mr.

THE LATE GENERAL JOUBERT.
Stays in favor of peace and illness alone prevented him from attending the meeting of the Boer leaders at which the terms concluding hostilities were signed. Mr. Schalkburger said that there had been no correspondence with Mr. Kruger concerning the peace negotiations. The Boers admired the conduct of Lord Kitchener. Visits to the various camps showed that the people were glad that the war is ended.

The Mercury publishes a translation of the circular of the Boer leaders instructing readers to sign the peace conditions. The document points out that there was no further hope of producing independence, and that the country was being devastated, and the subsistence were disappearing. The Boer leaders were also influenced in favor of peace by the distress among the families in the British concentration camps. However, the Boers could not retain the thought of prisoners like the enemy. The small number of Boers and the overwhelming number of British precluded hope of victory, despite sacrifices, confidence in peace, and the desire to improve the conditions of the prisoners, and that the people may advance to the full enjoyment of privileges for which they are entitled to hope from the expected amnesty of rebels.

DEFEATS AURORA.

Supreme Court Refuses Request to Appeal Bonus Case.

Ottawa, June 10.—H. C. St. Pierre, K.C., Montreal, is to be appointed superior court judge of Beauharnois, in succession to Justice Belanger.

The supreme court has dismissed the application of the town of Aurora for leave to appeal from the decision quashing the by-law to bonus a shoe factory to move from Markham. This leaves Markham as the victor.

Sir Henry Strong, chief justice of Canada, was across the fire brigade the dominion during the absence of Lord Minto in England. He took the oath from Justice Sedgewick.

Frank Martin, arrested by the dominion police, yesterday, on a charge of having stolen in his possession for making counterfeit money, was arraigned before magistrate O'Keefe this morning and remanded until Friday as the request of the prosecution.

Joseph Deschatelet, charged with murdering A. Richon, by throwing him into the Little Nation river, near Pa-ineauville, was committed for trial in Hull yesterday. The prisoner is indoubtedly insane. His father has been out of his mind for twenty years. It likely the Quebec government will appoint a commissioner to examine into the prisoner's mental condition.
Maj. Gen. O'Grady-Haly has announced that he will be in his office Wednesday afternoon to bid good-bye to officers before he sails for England.

Seats Will Be Cheap.
London, June 10.—There seems likely to be a greater slump to the price of seats for the coronation fetes than was the case during the jubilee. The multiplication of stands has become so great that seats for which five guineas was asked a week ago are going now for two guineas. Many people are deferring purchases in the hope that seats will be still cheaper.

Four Chief Points.
Paris, June 10.—Prime minister Combes says that the four chief points in his programme are: First, a reduction of the term of military service to two years; secondly, the application of the law of associations strictly according to its spirit, as well as its theory; third, the abrogation of the law falloux, and fourth, a general tax for revenue.

Postponed.

sion will be run on Thursday, June 12th, on steamer America, leaving King-

ZOLLVEREIN POSSIBLE

Between Britain And Her Colonies

MINISTERS ARE NOT APART

AS WAS THOUGHT BY MANY PARLIAMENTARIANS.

Sir Alfred Jones is Not Decided as to Which of the Shipping Combinations he Will Join—He is Waiting to Learn What Governments Will do.

London, June 10.—Very great interest has been aroused by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's reference to a possible zollverein of Great Britain and the colonies. The chancellor of the exchequer's statement. He is waiting to hear the views of the various governments, but members of the house of commons have read into his speech a modified acceptance of his preferential policy. The language used by the chancellor has excited special attention on the opposition side of the house, as many liberals had brought themselves to believe that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach and Mr. Chamberlain were widely opposed in their opinions on this matter.

Contradictory accounts are published respecting the British shipping combination, and it is difficult to differentiate between them. I am convinced, after careful enquiries, that Sir Alfred Jones is still on the fence and may join either Mr. Morgan's force or the British combination. He has received offers from the Morgan force and has neither accepted nor refused them. He is waiting to hear from Mr. Morgan's offer the rates between Canada and Germany will be advanced, if shipping men can be believed, from 120 to 200 marks, but his friends assert that he will remain true to British and colonial interests and organize a new combination. They admit that the issue is not decided, and that everything depends upon the readiness and thoroughness with which the British government adopts a subsidy system on a large scale. Otherwise neither the Cunard line nor Elder-Dempster line is safe from what British shippers describe as the clutches of Morgan and the American money power. Canadian officials go even further. They say that the Canadian Pacific railway is not out of reach of Mr. Morgan and that the dominion government will be compelled in self-defence to go into the shipping business on its own account and organize with its large subsidies steamship lines, which cannot be brought under foreign control.

The defence of the shipping interests of the empire was one of undertone conversations at the Royal Exchange colonial exhibition dining at the Hotel Cecil, last night. Lord Strathcona was in the chair to welcome the lord mayor, sheriffs and committee, and prominent representatives of Canada, Western Australia, Rhodesia, British North Borneo and the West Indies being present. It was a dull evening, for although there were many speeches, those who had something to say were silent. Among the reticent men were Sir Alfred Jones and W. T. R. Preston, the Canadian commissioner.

In parliament, yesterday, Mr. Wyndham said that unless the Irish land purchase bill could be treated as non-contentious it would not be worth while bringing it forward for consideration. This remark is regarded as indicating the intention of the government to abandon the measure at all events for the present session.
Detectives are watching all the steamers from Calais and Boulogne in anticipation of the arrival of Col.
Lynch.

Invites Friends To His Finish.
Ellenboro, N.C., June 10.—Allan Coggell, one of the wealthiest men in this county, has sent out printed invitations to a number of his friends and relatives inviting them to a dinner to be held at his house, four miles from here, to-night. The dinner is to be served at eleven o'clock.
Promptly at twelve o'clock, Coggell announces, he will give his guests an opportunity of seeing a man take his own life. Just how Coggell will commit the deed is not stated and there is much interest manifested to whether or not it is to be a case of real suicide.

CHANGES ARE FEW.

In the Recount Going on in East Hastings.

Belleville, Ont., June 10.—When the East Hastings recount was adjourned for lunch to-day, nothing of great importance had been discovered.
About a dozen ballots on each side had been objected to by the different lawyers, and decision was reserved by the judge. So far the ballots seem to be above the average, so far as blunders are concerned. The recount probably will not be finished till late this evening.

Recount in North Grey.
Owen Sound, Ont., June 10.—At the adjournment here, to-day, in the North Grey recount, before judge Morrison, there was no change as far as the morning investigation went.

THREE FOUND MURDERED.
Alaska Guide Brings News Of a Wilderness Tragedy.

Seattle, June 10.—After almost incredible perils and hardships, L. L.
Parker, the famous Alaska guide, arrived here from Nome. He states Frank Grimm and Leads Mason, while trapping on the Engarolik this winter found a cabin with nothing in it except half a blanket. Close by they found the body of a man, a quarter of a mile distant they came across the bodies of two other men. All had been murdered.

SHOT HIS COMRADE.
Fatal Termination of a Duck-Shooting Expedition.

Union Lake, N.W.T., June 10.—Sunday afternoon, while James Dufresne and Benjamin Patenaude, both aged fifteen years, were out duck shooting, Dufresne accidentally shot Patenaude, the entire charge entering the unfortunate lad in the left side of the back. He was immediately taken home. Two years ago the same lad shot a brother of deceased, but he recovered.

AN HOSPITAL FUND.
Raised Throughout Empire to Commemorate Coronation.

London, June 9.—At a meeting of citizens, convened by the lord mayor, Sir Joseph Dimsdale, at the Mansion house, a resolution was adopted providing that the national coronation committee, headed by the lord mayor, should take the form of a fund to assist their majesties' hospital fund. A national subscription for this purpose is to be opened throughout the empire.

Ritual Murder in Holland.
Amsterdam, June 10.—The Dutch police have had to take extraordinary measures with a family of wealthy peasants named Scherf, living near the village of Batenburg.

In February, 1900, one of the widow Scherf's adult sons was convicted of the "ritual" murder of a child, which he "sacrificed" in scriptural fashion.
The man was declared insane and sent to a lunatic asylum.

This week two other male members of the family have had to be simultaneously removed. They spoke vaguely of being divinely inspired to make further human "offerings."

Film-Flammers Sentenced.
Brantford, June 10.—At the police court on Monday, two young men, named Clark and Finn, presumably from Buffalo, were charged with defrauding our merchants. The game was that of asking to change a $5 bill, getting that, and asking for a $10 bill, then came the short-change game. It worked with one or two when they were detected, and the case handed to the police. After a little search, the police located the two and arrested them. They were found guilty, and sentenced, each to one year in Central prison.

Spies Run To Earth.
Paris, June 10.—A Vienna correspondent of the Messenger says that at Przemysl, the important Austrian fortress town, two soldiers in the Austrian army, ex-corporal Zaleski, and locksmith, by trade, and his stepbrother, Schuster, a journeyman mason, have been sentenced to four and a half years' and three and a half years' hard labor, respectively, for having acted for many years as spies in the Russian interest.

Killed in a Tornado.
Lake Park, Minn., June 10.—A tornado swept through the county twelve miles north of here yesterday afternoon cutting a path two miles wide and three miles long. Three farm houses were destroyed and ten persons are reported dead.

Princeton's President.
Princeton, N.J., June 9.—Woodrow Wilson, head of the department of jurisprudence and politics, has been

Toronto, Ont., June 10.—North-westerly winds, showers; Wednesday, westerly winds, fair and cool.

Underwear

If there is one month which, more than any other, calls for cool, crisp, tempting underwear, it's the month of June—the month of weddings, of summer dresses that cast their witchery everywhere.

Corsets, Drawers, Night Gowns. No one getting prices as carefully as we fit your gowns, if you're minded to.
