CONFIRMED THIRTY CANDI DATES ON JUNE 5TH.

Welcomed by Crowded Churches--Able Addresses Delivered at Several Places-Congratulates the Congregations. June 5th, was a red letter day for the parish of Roslin, because of the visitation of the lord bishop. During the previous months great changes The ceiling of St. Paul's, Roslin, had been recovered in wood, overlaid with a metallic ceiling in a most artistic manner. The side walls had been newly papered with ingrained paper, sur mounted with a border of Mosaic design. The rest of the fabric had been repainted. The fence at Moneymore had been painted as well as steps leading to the entrances. Lamps, hangings, etc., had been procured in the church since his lordship's previous visit. For this visitation arches of cedar had been erected over the gates leading to the churcha these the Christy's Lake house, are making with numerous cedars planted by the every preparation and are putting this | walks presented a picturesque appear
