be comforted? The speaker said this verse was usually understood to apply to those who mourn for the loss of loved ones, but, while there is in the word that which cheers and comforts the broken-hearted and comforted, the passage has quite a different application.

The beauties of a whole give us a picture of the spirit born man and woman. Only as we realize this poverty of spirit are we led to mourn because of sin.

How many are going on to eternity, rocked in the cradle of indifference because of not having committed what are termed the grosser sins? Such would tell you frankly that they did not feel at all comforted by the broken-hearted and comforted.

BASEBALL ON SATURDAY

THE PONIES AGAIN BEAT THE BOSTON GIRLS.

Longshoremen Won From Orientals, 13 to 11—Ponies Have Matches on the First Four Days of July—General Notes.

Saturday was the husbands' productive association's day at Lake Ontario park, where over 800 people gathered to see the Boston girls and the Ponies play their second match.

The grey heads were out in large numbers, even "King Ben" gracing the contest with his presence.

There was much argument as to the sex of the pitcher and shortstop, but those of doubtful mind may be assured that these players are milk young men, of feminine tendencies, and that the "raser" is not a stranger to their faces.

Ponies won by 10 to 8, forging ahead when they pleased. The girls played wonderfully well, and were accurate scorers.
