What is Going On in the Business World—The Market News.

Since 1872 5,000 miles of railways have been laid in the Japanese empire. G. W. Hastings, manager of the Lake of the Woods milling company states the recent heavy rains have not done any damage so far to the Manitoba crops and he predicts a big year. The Grand Trunk railway system has used the following statement of earnings: Week ending June 14th, 1902, $586,075; corresponding week, 1901, $528,440; increase, $57,635. Chess sales: Campbellford, 9c; Pictou, 9 7/16c; Ingersoll, 9c; Stirling, 9 7/16c; Peterboro, 9 9/16c; to 9c; Woodstock, 9 1/2c; to 9c; Brantford, 9c; Brockville, 9c; to 9 1/2c; Vankele Hill, 9c; Wood, 9c; to 9 1/2c; Winchester, 9c; to 9c. In his first official statement as president of the Dominion iron and steel company and the Dominion coal company, James Ross says: "There is no reason why in the next few years this ought not to be increased to 5,000,000 tons, and within ten years to close on 10,000,000 tons. The following table shows the production of pig iron in Canada since 1894: 1901, 244,974 tons; 1900, 25,000; 1899, 94,075; 1898, 68,755; 1897, 53,796; 1896, 60,630; 1895, 37,829; 1894, 44,791. Although the production of 1901 is about three times as large as that for the year previous, the building of new plants now in progress will ensure a much larger increase this and next year.

A Settlement Reached.

Thursday afternoon another conference took place between the sub-committees of the city council and the county council, relative to the county's account against the city for about $1,700 for repairs and improvements to the county buildings. This was the second meeting tending towards a settlement. According to the figures of the city's two appraisers, the county's bill was excessive by about $350. Yesterday's conference is described by some who were present as being somewhat "warm," in fact some of the city's representatives left the meeting, because matters were not going satisfactorily. Suggestions were made that the dispute be settled by arbitration or by Judge Price, but were not accepted. A basis of settlement was, however, finally determined. The county withdrew an account of $1,700 for fixing up a room not used by the city, and agreed to throw off $65, the cost of summoning the county council together. With the exception of these two items, the city must pay its full share of the account rendered.

Death of Mrs. Gallagher.

An old resident of Kingston, in the person of Mrs. John Gallagher, Montreal street, died on Friday morning, after an illness of a week. Death ensued as a result of apoplexy. The deceased's maiden name was Ann Conway. She was born in county Donegal, Ireland, seventy years ago, and came to Kingston in 1847. Her husband, liveryman and cabman, died thirty years ago. Surviving are five sons and three daughters—Edward, in Toronto; Frank, William, Charles and Michael, and Mrs. James Guigley, Kingston; Miss Kate, at home, and Mrs. Welch, Syracuse, N.Y. The late Mrs. Gallagher was an estimable woman, and her death is sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends. The funeral takes place on Sunday afternoon. A solemn service will be held in St. Mary's cathedral, of which she was a faithful member.

To Succeed Dr. Grant.

Toronto Mail and Empire. The name of Rev. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Westminster, continues to be mentioned in influential Presbyterian circles for the principalship of Queen's university, along with that of Dr. Herridge. The appointment will, however, probably not be made for several months.

SOME INSIDE HISTORY. COMMANDANT GIVES FIGURES OF BOER CAMPAIGN.

Jameson to the Front—He is Once More a Great Power in South Africa—Controls Big Interests.

London, June 20.—A despatch from Kimberley reports that commandant Kemp, Delarey's lieutenant, in an interview said that about 50,000 Boers were in the field at the outset and that only 1,500 out of 6,000 men available fought at Colenso, where the Boer losses were not heavy. At Spion Kop the Boers had only fifty-three men killed. In one of the fights outside Ludsmith the Boers lost fifty-six killed and over 100 wounded. Their losses were heavier at Brankspruit and Vlakfontein. The Boers were often worried by the British, and were often and by night, but when entrenched did not fear the shells. Members of the Boer forces often managed to get into Johannesburg, Krugeropol and Pretoria, procuring valuable information, and frequently crossed the blockhouse lines at night. Commandant Kemp did not allow the Boers of his command to wear khaki, the British uniform.

Jameson to the Front.

London, June 20.—Dr. Jameson is now a man of mark in current affairs in South Africa, whatever may have been his responsibility, direct or indirect, for the raid. He shares with a well-known South African banker the duty of representing and administering the late Cecil Rhodes' great interests, and has taken the place of the Colossus in important companies and holdings. The Scotchman, who in life-long devotion to Mr. Rhodes' ambitions has neglected to make a fortune for himself, now controls great financial interests. This makes Dr. Jameson a man of power in South Africa, who cannot be left out of account in the future. Mr. Chamberlain clearly does not consider it necessary to take a serious view of the back passages of South African history.

GORDON'S END.

He Was Hanged at Brandon, Manitoba.

Brandon, Man., June 20.—Walter Gordon, the double murderer, expired his crime on the scaffold this morning. As early as six o'clock a morbidly curious crowd had gathered around the jail, and by seven all officially connected with the case were in attendance. Gordon sat up last night till about 2 a.m., spending the time in quiet conversation and prayer, with the Rev. William Henry. At two o'clock he lay down for a little sleep and at times appeared very comfortable. He was up at six, dressing himself without the slightest trace of nervousness. At seven o'clock he breakfasted, eating sparingly of some ham, toast and strawberries, and drinking a cup of strong tea. After breakfast Radcliffe, the double murderer, was ascending the scaffold with a firm tread. The noise was quickly adjusted, and within less than a minute from the time the murderer left the jail he was dead. The drop fell at exactly 8:05 a.m., and his neck was broken, causing instant death. Though the pulse beat freely for thirteen minutes.

WHAT STRIKE MEANS.

Would Throw Half Million Men Out of Work.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 20.—If the national convention of coal miners of the United States, called for July 17th at Indianapolis, declares for a strike, over 300,000 men will be called out, and as ninety-five per cent. are organized, a suspension of work at mines producing over 212,000,000 tons yearly will ensue. The states in which strikers exist today are Pennsylvania (anthracite), West Virginia, Virginia, and Michigan. Here are employed 175,498 workers, producing 87,269,625 tons of coal. The states in which unions are organized, having contracts with operators and in which sympathetic strikes may occur are Pennsylvania (bituminous), Illinois, Ohio, Alabama, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri. In these states 181,925 men are employed, and 124,961,050 tons of coal are produced. Those states and territories where unions are not organized, but where the men will be asked to join in a general movement, are Pennsylvania (bituminous), Maryland, Colorado, Washington, Montana, Indian Territory, Arkansas, New Mexico, and Texas. Here are 77,236 men, producing 62,626,442 tons.

Case Still in Progress.

The case of Bedford township corporation vs. W. Fredenburgh is still processing at the county court. There are still a large number of witnesses to be examined, and the case will likely last till Saturday evening. A. W. Gray, T. Mulville, James McNeil, C. W. Workman, C. E. Barr, T. O'Connor, John Brash, B. Botting, Thomas Asselstine, Walter Wood, E. J. Adams and Henry Quinn gave evidence for the plaintiffs as to the height of the water, to the destruction of the short wall of roadway, and to the cost of repairs. On his own behalf, Mr. Fredenburgh was examined this morning.

Queen's! Queen's!! Queen's!!!

It is one of its graduates, Rev. E. D. McLaren, who has been called to the active organizing work of the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. A. Sinclair, principal of the Indian industrial school at Regina, is a Kingston visitor just now, much interested in the great advance in building in his alma mater, Queen's. The Indian school is very successful, and not the least useful, and certainly the most interesting product of the work rooms, is the semi-monthly "Progress," a neat little journal having the art of reproducing much that is entertaining reading.

Extraordinarily Free.

Considering the risks aeronauts take the science or sport or trade (for it partakes of all three) is extraordinarily free from fatal accidents. Chase Green, who made over 600 trips, died at the age of eighty-four, in 1870. Twenty years later Eugene Godard who had made 2,000 ascents, died in his bed. On the other hand, among British balloonists, Capt. Dale was killed before he had completed 200, and Capt. Whalen in 1892, met death in his three hundred and fiftieth ascent. Percival Spencer, most noted living English aeronaut, has probably beaten all these records, and has in addition made parachute descents on all the continents and in most of the seas surrounding them.
