at the June ball. Circling around the closing festivi ties at the college were teas every day this week.

The golf tea last Saturday was postponed on account of Mrs. Alex. Kirkpatrick's tea, and her guests numbered almost, if not quite, one handred. Her rooms were very pretty, and her tea table was most attractive with its profusion of white carnations in quaint vessels of brass. With the exception of Mrs. Arthur Evans, no married people were asked, and only the younger crowd of the unmarried people, so the tea was not large, but was pronounced to be very delightful by all who were there.

Then on Tuesday night, there was the ball, but as that has already been reported at length it is unnecessary to add one word except to say that for some unexplainable reason it was even nicer than the much anticipated June balls usually are. Everyone was pleased with it, and the Commandant, Staff and Gentlemen Cadets are to be congratulated upon its success.

It is said that Frederick Thompson, who managed "A Trip to the Moon' at the Pan-American, will leave shortly for the scene of the eruption to get material for a spectacle. A theatrical writer comes out with this hard crack : "During the past season Adelaide Thurston accomplished the unusual in dramatics. Without the supposed advantage of a New York indorsement' Miss Thurston en oyed a most prosperous season, thus disposing of a hoary theatrical ad age. When theatrical managers cons to a realization of the fact that the so-called "provincials" do not care a snap of their fingers what New York thinks of a play or a player, they will save themselves much worry and cash. What New Yorkers run wild over rarely pleases the denizers of the smaller towns, for the reason that the sur feited citizens of the metropolis re quire highly seasoned and fleshy en tertainment. This sort of thing serves but to disgust the quiet and reposeful inhabitants of the smaller cities. Clara Ward, the princess Chimay whose name has of late been mixed up
