WILL TRAIN NEAR FRISCO

WILL AND JEFF TO MOVE TO SCENE OF BATTLE.

Lanky Rob In Great Form—George Dawson Has Forced Australian to Train Faithfully According to Laws Laid Down. San Francisco, July 11.—Frisco's most famous pugilist, George Dawson, is moving the base of his operations into the immediate vicinity of San Francisco. Both of the fighters and their trainers have agreed that such a course is the correct thing to do, as the sudden changes from the heat of the mountains to the cooler atmosphere in this vicinity at the last moment is liable to have a bad influence on the big fellow.

A VERY VALUABLE RECORD

THE "PROGRESS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE"

Nineteenth Century Series—Lancott Publishing Company, Toronto and Brantford—Editors, Rev. Dr. Withrow, Rev. T. S. Linscott, Charles G. D. Roberts, J. Castell Hopkins, T. G. Marquis. This volume number eight of the very practical and comprehensive review of the past century, is by J. Stanley Little, author of several books upon historical subjects. He has done his work thoroughly and thoughtfully and the result is a valuable contribution to the records of empire and the spirit of progress and unity. The history of the period was most prolific, and a most interesting book is presented. The twenty years' feature, and while England still distinguished with the excess of the French revolution in the name of freedom, the reform bill appears to quicken the life and increase the affection and attachment of the colonies, under local self-government, England was in love with the game of conquest, and the colonies were really sporting speculations. Yet the British continental wars were but a prelude to the imperial idea, and an unconscious building of empire.

FUNERAL OF MR. EMPEY

It Was Largely Attended On Thursday Afternoon.

Napanee, July 11.—James Empey, a farmer living at Sarnyville, about five miles from Napanee, was killed by a bull last Thursday and died Wednesday from the effects of the accident. He was about fifty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and grown-up family. The accident, at first, was not thought to be serious, but on Monday a change for the worse occurred, to the point when the doctors held out no hope for recovery. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

STARR & SUTCLIFFE'S

Stock Sold in Toronto.

On learning that several western merchants were after the Bankrupt Stock of Starr & Sutcliffe a member of our firm attended the public auction by Sutcliffe & Co., in Toronto, on Wednesday, with the intention of purchasing it if it could be secured at a figure to warrant retailing here at reduced prices. The stock, however, in our opinion as well as that of bankrupt stock buyers and wholesale merchants generally, sold at too high a figure to permit of a slaughter sale without loss. We therefore ask customers looking for bargains to open wide their eyes, and if accustomed to glasses, to put on an extra pair ere making purchases from the places of business they are accustomed to trade at, whether it be R. Wadron, Steacy & Steacy, J. Laidlaw & Son, or ourselves.
