MICA AXLE GREASE A Big One. The Cure for Constipation. WOULD SCOUR THEIR FACES WITH TRICKETS, but thousands of persons do things infinitely more foolish. The skin of the face, though delicate, is rhinoceros hide compared with the mucous membrane of the stomach and bowels. Yet these sensitive organs are constantly scourged with drastic medicines, to their incalculable injury. The Cure for Constipation is not a violent cathartic, but a mild and tonic laxative—which is another way of saying IRON-OX TABLETS. Ogdensburg, N.Y. fair will be on September 2nd and fourth.

REMEMBER DEAD BRETHREN ODDFELLOWS HOLD SHORT MEMORIAL SERVICE. Lessons Of The Dead To The Living—Bear Kindly Greeting As The Pathway Through Life is Trud. It is a pleasant knowledge to possess, that when relieved of the anxiety and vicissitudes which beset the pilgrim in his worldly journey, when his burden is laid aside, on the stile which crosses the line dividing here and hereafter, we are not altogether forgotten, that there remain some who will bear us in kindly memory, and who, when nature smiles blithely and wears her brightest garb, will visit our tomb and thereon place a flower in token of fond remembrance. It is with that consciousness that the Oddfellow closes his eyes on things earthly and enters that blissful condition of eternal sleep, which brings to the righteous everlasting happiness. In accordance with an annual custom, a joint committee, representing the two lodges of Oddfellows in the city, on Saturday afternoon journeyed to Cataract cemetery and decorated with bright lured flowers the graves of departed brethren. In all over eighty last resting places of departed Oddfellows were thus beautified. The customary service in connection with this ceremony was postponed until Sunday afternoon, when a fair sized congregation assembled in the Oddfellows hall, Y.M.C.A. building, to take part.

Craig's wharf on Sunday; Steamers Persia from Montreal; Ocean from Toronto; Melbourne from Toledo. The steamer Alexandria arrives to-night from Okeet, N.Y. The work of constructing a sister ship of the new Montreal belonging to the Richelieu and Ontario navigation company, will be commenced this fall at the Bertram iron works, of Toronto. The steamer Corsican, en route from Hamilton to Kingston, collided with the wagon bridge above Belvidere on Sunday morning. Her new steam steer-a gear gave out, and she struck the span in the centre, knocking it into the river. The Corsican fortunately sustained no damage. He Wore His Colors. John Elliott, of the Lower Grand Tunk depot, was in the city Saturday, attired in the full regalia of the Orange order. He was the only Orangeman in the city who showed his colors. Mr. Elliott is in protest of the fact that for fifty-seven years he has not failed to take part in Orange celebrations on July 12th, and his host of friends hope that he will long be spared to wear the regalia of the order, of which he is an ornament, and to uphold the principles which he considers most dear. The Hay Crop Saved. Those are the kind of days that maketh glad the heart of the farmer. The bright, warm sun has saved the hay crop, which is now being harvested. It was feared for a time that it would be ruined by the rains, but if bright weather continues throughout the week, the crop will then be in the barns. Light Weight Coats And Vests. Prevost, of the New York clothing store, Brock street, has a splendid assortment of light-weight coats and vests, the proper garments for summer wear. His summer coats at $1 and $1.50 are special value, sizes 34 to 46. See his window, great variety to choose from. Orangemen At Pittsford. To-day the Orange lodges of South Frontenac celebrated with their Dutch brethren at a picnic in McCaugherty's grove, Pittsford. The American carried large numbers of people to the picnic, at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

THE LEAGUE REORGANIZED THE OGDENSBURG TEAM HAS DROPPED OUT. Antwerp And Gouverneur In Its Place—Ponies Defeat Orientals—Yacht Races On Saturday—Sullivan Wins Again. The originally formed St. Lawrence river baseball league of July 1st is no longer in existence. It dropped dead on Friday, but phoenix-like a league of the same name and consisting of five clubs, at once sprang into existence. Strange to relate, Ogdensburg, that old-time town of ball craze, has dropped from the league, finding the financial part of the sport difficult to manage. In place of Ogdensburg are the Antwerp, N.Y., and Gouverneur, N.Y. teams. A new schedule is being drawn, and the matches played last week are not counted. This week's matches will be: 14th (to-day)—Ponies, at Gananoque; Gouverneur, at Antwerp. 15th—Gouverneur, at Canton; Gananoque, at Kingston. 16th—Antwerp, at Gouverneur. 17th—Antwerp, at Gananoque. 18th—Antwerp, at Kingston; Gananoque, at Canton. 19th—Canton, at Antwerp; Gananoque, at Gouverneur. Ponies 16; Orientals 7. Ponies and Orientals, the latter of the city league, played an exhibition baseball match at Lake Ontario park on Saturday afternoon. The former won out easily by 10 to 7. Orientals started well, but could not keep up the Ponies' pace. However, they battled strongly during several innings, making the hair stand up on "Bill" Cheney's head. Montgomery covered first bag for the Orientals, and although he is on the baseball pension list, he hasn't forgotten the catchism of the game. Neither has Marshall Reid, another pioneer, who is the centre field policeman. Though grey bristles are coming up through his roof, his household name is still known to the boys who keep him in batting form. There were two features in connection with the match: The first was Bailey's catch with his left hand of a long hit, which he robed in with his back to the ball. They in the sixth inning, "Bill" Cheney drove the ball over the right field fence for a home run, the second made at Lake Ontario park diamond. When "Bill" crossed the plate a guard of honor escorted him to the bench, while the enthusiastic fans howled with delight. 0 0 0 2 3 0 7 0 16 Orientals 2 2 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 7 Ponies—Easton, r.f.; Tilton, c.f.; Quigley, l.f.; Daley, c.; Elliott, c.; Hain, 2b.; Hunt, 1b.; Derry, 3b.; Cheney, p. Queen Alexandra, who has bought the king a cigar case, has been mistaken enough to know better than to buy cigars for her husband. The latter is an experiment that can be safely tried only during the honeymoon. At Brockville Saturday morning Judge Edmonds, Reynolds was sworn in as junior judge of Leeds and Grenville by judge McDonald. He was presented with a complimentary address by the members of the Brockville bar. Ottawa fair will be from August 22nd to 30th, when the weather is usually settled. The dog show prizes and arrangements will attract the finest animals on the continent. The ladies' work will be shown under glass cases. The grounds have been greatly improved. The night spectacular attraction, "The Burning of Moscow," will be a grand presentation. Man Is A Fool. When the weather was cold and wet people were complaining, and when it got hot they do not like it. The poor hat will suit! As a rule man's a fool. When it's hot he wants it cool. When it's cool he wants it hot. Always wanting what is not. Never liking what he's got. Maintained a rule. Man's a fool. Hurt By Falling Bricks. George Taylor, a plumber's helper at McKelvey & Birch's, was injured on Saturday while working at Queen's college buildings. A falling brick struck him on the forehead, inflicting a bad cut. A physician put several stitches in the wound. The young man's eye was also slightly injured by the blow.

Every Woman Should Know. That Prof. W. Hodgson Ellis, Official Analyst to the Dominion Government, has recently made a number of analyses of soaps, and reports that Sunlight Soap contains that high percentage of oils or fats necessary "to a good laundry soap." What every woman does not know is that in common soaps she frequently pays for adulterations at the price of oils and fats. Try Sunlight Soap—Ogdensburg Bar—next wash day, and you will see that Prof. Ellis is right. He should know. 208

GOING TO A FOREIGN LAND SERMON BY A YOUNG MISSIONARY ELECT. Rev. C. J. L. Bates Preached Farewell Sermon in Brock Street Methodist Church—A Large Congregation—Other Church Notes. Rev. C. J. L. Bates, the former young pastor of the Portsmouth Methodist church, who will leave the latter part of August to labor as a missionary in foreign lands, preached his farewell sermon in the Portsmouth Methodist church last evening. A number of people from the other Methodist churches of the city were present to welcome him. The preacher based his remarks upon the words Christ used in answering the scribbles as to which was the best commandment of all: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these." Jesus always answered questions in such a way as left nothing further to be said, declaring that the application of the principle expressed by Him. In the words of the text Jesus sought to give expression of our relationship to God and to each other. He summed up in the word "love." God's love is deep and sincere and abiding. He so loved the world that He gave to it His only Son. His love is no mere touch of emotion. Our love for the Father must be a complete self-giving. God requires absolute surrender to Him. Not only a few minutes prayer each day, but by hard study do we come to know God and the inexhaustible treasures of His love. The speaker depicted the fact that children were not to be afraid of the bible or the catechism at their parents' knee, as they did years ago. The hope of the church and the country is in the Sunday-school and the day school—in the intellectual training of the children. Furthermore, we must surrender our will absolutely to God. The lesson that the scene in Gethsemane teaches us is "Not my will, O Lord, but Thine, be done." A certain amount of emotion enters into the christian religion. It is the beauty and glory of our religion that it warms and stirs the heart. Christ tells us to "love our neighbor as oneself." Not competition, but co-operation, is the true meaning of love. Our neighbor is still the one who needs us. The world's heart is crying out for that divine thing called human sympathy. Some people say that the heathen are not badly off as they are. Substant from your own hearts. Christ means to visit them and see what they have left. There is a good deal of the selfishness of the savage in our nature now. There are still millions outside of christianity waiting to be saved.

Immoral Martinique. At the morning service in St. Andrew's church yesterday, Rev. Mr. Mackie spoke about his recent trip to Trinidad, near which occurred the awful Martinique volcano disaster. He gave some interesting information about the people of the latter place, who were divided into three sects—Satanists, Scientists and Indifferentists. Martinique, he declared, was a second Paris, its immorality being of the blackest nature. The leader of the Salatinic movement was a Parisian who died before the awful visitation of death, the people had crucified three pigs, for amusement. Among The Churches. Rev. Prof. Jordan preached at both services in Chalmers church on Sunday. Rev. C. J. L. Bates preached in Portsmouth Methodist church (a former charge) yesterday morning. Rev. James Shortt, M.A., of Manitoba, preached in Cooke's church last evening. He is here on a visit to his brother, Prof. Shortt, of Queen's. To-day the work of repairing Sydenham street Methodist church began, and from now until September the services will be held in the Sunday school rooms. In St. James' church last evening, a series of sermons on the authorship of favorite church hymns. The sermon last night was intensely interesting. In Sydenham street Methodist church last evening, most beautiful duets sung there in many a day. The singers were Miss Perley and Arthur Craig, and their rendition of "Ora Pro Nobis," was especially good. In St. Luke's church, last evening, Rev. A. W. Cooke delivered a splendid sermon on freedom of conscience. He spoke of the rise and progress of the Orange order, which stood for freedom of thought. It was a sermon all Orangemen should have heard of. The hour for mass has been changed for the next two months at the Church of the Good Thief, Portsmouth; it will be at 7:45 a.m., instead of 10:30 a.m. A solemn requiem mass will be sung Tuesday morning at the church at nine o'clock by Rev. Father McDonald for the repose of the soul of the late Fr. Neville. A large congregation is expected to be present. Women And Jewels. Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Ross' German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Wade's drug store. A Yachting Party. Keep your yacht supplied with Clark's lunch tongue and Clark's pork and beans. They're delicious.
