Dear Bir,—
I've been skining now for ages
On the paint that people use And my pleasure is to spoil them, But me thinks I've got the bluest For I struck a kind this morning That would not grow quickly faint, And I found, by asking Venus, That 'twas " Ramsay's Outside Paint."

Why I shone and shone upon it. So's to make the paint degrade; And I nearly had a sun-burst O'ar this stuff that they have made When I saw my work quite useless.

Then I called on every saint;
But they, too, sould not affect it—
"Twas your "Ramsay's Outside Paint,"

And now, Sir; here's my order; Fifty gallone send to me, Of your brightest Golden Yellow; And please send it C.O.D. You see the Sun needs painting. And I wanted something quaint; So I thought I'd send an order For your "Romsay's Outside Paint." Yours truly,
