Ottawa, July 21.-W. T. R. Preston, who has charge of Canadian immigration matters in the old country, is to arrive in Canada about the middle of August. He will be accompanied by the editors of ten or twelve of the leading old country newspapers, provincial as well as metropolitan. The editors will visit all important places in the dominion, the trip being extended right through to British Columbia. It is expected that the resulting dissemination of accurate information about Canada will prove a valuable aid to immigration.
