What is Happening Along the Water Front.

Craig's wharf: Steamer Persia, down. The steamer Tecumseh and consort Maringo are at Garden Island with timber from Toledo. The steamer Swift's wharf: Steamer Kingston down and up; Hamilton from Hamilton; Bideau Queen from Ottawa.

The steamer North King did not come down this morning, owing to the steamer Caspian being disabled. She had to make the lake trip, with the mails. This afternoon the steamer America will cover the Caspian's Bay of Quinte route.

Arthur Fields returned this morning from Port Hope, whither he went with the hope of identifying a captured horse as his own belonging to him, a few days before. The horse, however, was not his. From Port Hope, Mr. Fields went to Peterboro, Lindsay and other places, where he had been unsuccessful in locating his own animal. While in Cobourg he saw two Kingston young men, brothers, who are in jail there for horse stealing.

Was Not His Horse. Arthur Fields returned this morning from Port Hope, whither he went with the hope of identifying a captured horse as his own belonging to him, a few days before. The horse, however, was not his.
