

3 Specials 3 For Saturday. Children's Straw Sailors, 18c. Men's and Boys' $1 Straw Hats, 50c. Men's $1.50, $2, $2.25 $1. JENKINS 114 PRINCESS STREET.

- Lawton Thimble Berries. Fine Raspberries. Florida Watermelons. Jamaica Oranges. All kinds of fruit. Can be bought. Cheapest at.

A. J. REES, Princess St. We Have Some Special Trousers To Show You. CRAWFORD & WALSH, Tailors and Importers, Cor. Princess & Bagot Sts.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY. Owing to prospective retirement from business the old established PHOTOGRAPH BUSINESS of SHELDON & DAVIS is for sale. Apply on the premises.

FOR SALE. GOOD BLACKSMITH SHOP AND DWELLING. THE SUBSTANTIAL BUILDING IN KING STREET, between Water & Doug. streets, and Congress Hotel. In excellent condition.

WANTED. EXPERIENCED HOUSEMAID. Apply to Mrs. Nickle, 130 Earl Street. A COOK, APPLY TO MRS. BORA, 45 King Street, in the evening.

Hanged For Highway Robbery. Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 8.—Will Dorsey, colored, was hanged here today for highway robbery. His case was the first in the history of the state that the death penalty was imposed for this offence, though it has been a capital crime for many years.

50c. Straws For 15c. To-morrow straw hats, men's, all sizes, good values, at 50c., for 15c., at The H. D. Bibby Co.

LOCAL MEMORANDA.

The Daily Note Book For Whig Readers to Post Themselves By. Attend the hat sale at Campbell-Bros. Service in St. George's cathedral, 10.30 a.m., Saturday. The sun rises Saturday at 4.57 a.m., and sets at 7.13 p.m.

MINTON'S JARDINIERS. We have a handsome line made by this celebrated maker just opened. Not expensive, exquisite shapes and odd patterns.

ROBERTSON BROS. LAKE ONTARIO PARK ALL THIS WEEK. DANE'S ANIMAL CIRCUS. Matinee Saturday.

MADE A BIG HAUL. Chicago, Aug. 8.—One hundred packages of greenbacks, each containing $1,000, were stolen by the bandits who held up the Burlington train, on Tuesday night, near Savannah, Ill.

Rioters Held For His Death. Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 8.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Joseph Biddal, who received his fatal injuries in the riot here last week, concluded its inquiry and rendered a verdict holding "Joseph Paluwicz, a butcher; Matthew Pauluskas, a commercial salmon-keeper; and many other rioters unknown to the jury," responsible for the killing.

Posse's Shots Prove Fatal. Oshkosh, Wis., Aug. 8.—Samuel Burrows, a young farmer residing at Nekimi, about five miles from here, who made a murderous assault upon W. L. Wentzel and Paul Schmidt Tuesday, was surrounded by a posse yesterday, at his home. He resisted capture, was shot several times and died while being brought to the city.

A Negro Lynched. Shreveport, La., Aug. 8.—Harry Benton, seventeen years, negro, was lynched near Homer, yesterday, for criminal assault on a four-year-old child of S. W. Watson, a prominent citizen of Homer.

At West Chester, Pa., Miss Elizabeth (patron, aged sixteen, fell in love with Benjamin Shewalter. He won her but not her guardian. Then an elopement was planned. Her guardian chased her for miles, but the couple got safely away and were married.

A REFUSAL TO PARADE

Trouble With Bandsmen at Gales Camp, Ayrshire

WERE PUT UNDER ARREST

AND LATER WERE DRUMMED OUT OF CAMP.

The Bandsmen Did Not Believe They Were Receiving an Adequate Allowance—Remarks of Lieut.-Col. Smith in Dismissing Them. London, Aug. 8.—A painful incident occurred recently at the Gales Camp, Ayrshire, containing between seven and eight thousand Scottish volunteers.

SUBSIDY FOR FAST LINE.

British Subsidy May be Half Canada Gives.

London, Aug. 8.—It is understood Mr. Chamberlain has agreed to urge the British cabinet to contribute one-half whatever Canada contributes towards the new fast mail service, which in case of the acceptance of the Canadian Pacific service, means a British subsidy of £88,000 and a Canadian subsidy of £177,000.

A GREAT CONCERN.

British and Canadian Interests to be Merged.

London, Aug. 8.—The Birmingham correspondent of the Times confirms the report from Montreal, of the formation of an Anglo-Canadian steel combination. It includes Guest, Keen & Co., Boksow, Vaughan & Co., Sir Christopher Furness and the Dominion Steel and Iron Co.

CAN GO TO MADAGASCAR!

This is Where Some Boers Will Locate.

Naples, Aug. 8.—Mr. Reitz, formerly state secretary of Transvaal, arrived here yesterday, on the German steamer Kanzele. He said that everything nearly the English newspapers said should be denied. He added, "We were not beaten by British soldiers, but by absconding Boers."

Mont Pelee Dust In Europe.

Geneva, Aug. 8.—A curious phenomenon, which has been noticed in many places, is attracting general attention in Switzerland. A luminous haze has attended the sunset lately, and scientists attribute this to the presence of fine dust or ash in the upper currents of air, and are of the opinion that this dust has been carried across the Atlantic from Mont Pelee by air currents.

Shot His Wife.

Seneca Falls, N.Y., Aug. 8.—Charles Shandley shot his wife and himself early yesterday, and as a result his wife lies in a critical condition and Shandley is dead.

Richie's Negative Virtues Win.

London, Aug. 8.—The king's improved health has increased the probability that Premier Balfour will reconstruct the cabinet at once. Hon. C. T. Ritchie remains the favorite candidate for chancellor of the exchequer, not because he is suspected of being a great financier, but mainly by the process of exclusion, every other rival being pronounced unfit.

THE TIME FIXED.

For The Coronation of The King and Queen

London, Aug. 8.—The Prince of Wales privately visited Westminster Abbey yesterday, remaining an hour. It is understood that the king will inspect the Abbey to-day. Late yesterday afternoon a portion of the coronation regalia was removed from St. James Palace to the Abbey.

The war office is ingeniously and tastefully trimmed, but several of the club houses are most wantonly disfigured at a high expense. The stands remain at Waterloo Place and Trafalgar Square, but there is a little decoration in White Hall. Below the Horse Guards, the old banqueting hall of Inigo Jones is aflame with red, and the Duke of Buccleuch's stand and other platforms above White Hall Gardens are decorated with blue and gold.

King Speaks To His People.

London, Aug. 8.—The following message from King Edward to his people is made public: To my eye of my coronation, an event which I hold to be one of the most solemn and important of my life, I am anxious to express to my people at home and in the colonies and in India my heartfelt appreciation of the deep sympathy they have manifested toward me during a time in my life of such imminent danger.

Indian Princes' Wish.

London, Aug. 7.—The Times publishes an article on the coming coronation by a special correspondent, who suggests that the reason for the precipitate performance of the ceremony is in order that the Indian princes may be able to say they have seen King Edward when they return home.

Drowned At Old Orchard.

Old Orchard, Me., Aug. 8.—George Ford, a former agent of the Grand Trunk railway at Montreal, and Miss Florence J. Thomas, Montreal, were drowned while bathing at Ocean Park on Thursday. Mr. Bashaun's body has been recovered.

Win For Trades' Unions.

London, Aug. 8.—The trades' unions have won a decisive victory in the Welsh colliery case. Justice Bidgam declined to hold the miners' federation liable for pecuniary losses from the stoppage of work ordered by the striking scale committee. He admitted that the federation controlled the movement involving a violation of the working contracts, but decided that its advice to the miners was honest and without malice.

Thirteen Killed By Explosion.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 8.—A special from Trinidad, says a disastrous explosion occurred at 6.30 o'clock, last night, at No. 3 mine at Bowen, a small camp about ten miles north of this place. Thirteen lives are known to have been lost. The mine is worked by the Union Coal Co., of Denver.

Found No Treasure.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 8.—The Brigantine Blakely, fitted out nine months ago and left here to search for a hidden treasure on Geos Island, a few hundred miles off the coast of Central America, has returned from her voyage unsuccessful. The expedition found no trace of treasure of any kind.

Entering The Country.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8.—The immigrant arrivals last month in the west, totaled 5,761 as against 2,721 for the same period last year. Of the arrivals last month 2,721 were Americans.

STOLE FOR FUN OF IT

"Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"

MAN LIVES A DUAL LIFE

HIS DISCOVERY HAS CAUSED A SENSATION.

Rich and Prominent Farmer Caught Robbing Mill Says He Has Pursued Role of Burglar for Fifteen Years Simply for Amusement.

Chester, Vt., Aug. 8.—A Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde in real life has been revealed by a spring gun, set one night recently for robbers. Clarence A. Adams, a prosperous and hitherto respected farmer now appears in the dual role, his double existence disclosed by a charge of No. 8 buckshot which struck him in the legs. Adams is accused of scores of burglaries and admits them. In explanation he says the story of Jekyll and Hyde fascinated him.

Adams began when he was thirty, he says he will not tell which was his first robbery or where it was committed. He is now about forty-five years old. Adams was caught by the discharge of a spring gun a few days ago at Washburn's mill. Chester has been terrorized for fifteen years by robberies. The postoffice, railroad station and various business houses were entered. In his home has been found much of the plunder.

WOULD LIKE TO SEE IT.

Farmers Form a Political Organization.

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Mr. Whitney was asked what he thought of the agitation which is showing itself to revive a farmers' organization in the province, the proposition being to hold a convention in Toronto during the Industrial Exposition. "I have always maintained that an organization of farmers could be made to have immense benefit in a hundred ways. There is no reason why it couldn't do good just the same as organizations of other classes. Of course, there are organizations and organizations," he added. "It is hard to say what was wrong with the Grange and the Patrons of Industry. They are merely matters of history now."

BELIEVES SON IS LOST.

Brooklyn Man Starts on a Search for Youth. Thousand Island Park, N.Y., Aug. 8.—Theodore L. Pevelevy, of Brooklyn, is at the Murray Hill hotel in search of his son, Theodore L., Jr., who came to the islands three weeks ago and has not been heard of since. It has been learned that young Pevelevy hired a skiff at Murray Hill. His father will not believe he is drowned, but thinks he has become lost among the islands. Yesterday afternoon he chartered a steamer and today he is on his way to the time searching along the river, but without success.

Trees For Transplanting.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—Baron Watt, first-born of Germany, has been in Ottawa for a few days on a mission from German government. He is studying Canadian forest life with a view to ascertaining what trees would be profitable for transplanting. He has already decided that the white pine, red cherry, spruce and black walnut trees would flourish in Germany. He visited the experimental farm and Booth's timber yards, yesterday, and left for Toronto last night.

Will Grapple With Matter.

London, Aug. 8.—In the imperial parliament, yesterday, replying to J. Edward Seely (conservative), who deplored the lack of modern war appliances by the British army and navy and who urged the establishment of a department responsible for the adoption of every invention necessary to the army and navy, the premier, A. J. Balfour, denied that Great Britain was behind other nations. He said the government would grapple with the urgent question of a joint strategical department to the best of their ability.

In Memory Of Heroes.

Culpeper, Va., Aug. 8.—The magnificent monument erected in the National cemetery, to the memory of the soldiers of the 25th New York Volunteer Infantry, who fell in the battle of Cedar Mountain, was unveiled to-day, with imposing exercises in the presence of an immense throng. More than 200 survivors of the regiment came from Rochester to take part in the ceremonies and the number of participants was increased by the presence of a large number of Confederate veterans.

STRIP BANDIT KING'S BODY.

Hundreds of People Participate in Ghastly Scene.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 8.—When the sheriff with the body of Tracy drove through Davenport hundreds of persons crowded about the wagon. By the time the wagon reached Stone's Morgue, the streets were crowded, and from every corner could be heard "Three shouts for Lincoln county." The town was wild. The morgue doors had to be closed and the crowd was asked to stand back. Several persons were allowed to see the body, and then trouble began. Everyone wanted a relic and in a short time nothing was left but the body. Some one even picked up the blood-stained handkerchief which had been used by Tracy to keep from bleeding to death.

CLAIMS ESTATE.

Boston Woman Seeks Wealth Left By Hill.

Boston, Aug. 8.—A new claimant to the estate of $12,000 in cash left by the man known as Charles Hill, at Los Angeles, Cal., is Mrs. Emma E. Varney, No. 171 St. Botolph street, Boston. She claimed to have conclusive evidence that the deceased miser was her father, Lorenzo Dow Sherman, who went to California from Round Prairie, Brown county, Ill., in 1837. Her father, Mrs. Varney says, eloped with a woman named Marian Black, deserting her mother.

A STRIKE DECLARED.

Among Workers With the Cataract Power Company.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 8.—A committee of the Electrical Workers' Union had several conferences, yesterday, with General Manager H. Jenkins, of the Cataract Power Co., but no settlement of the trouble over wages was arrived at and at six o'clock a strike was declared. About fifty men are affected here. In addition the electrical workers at Depey's Falls, where the company gets its power, have been called out. The workers struck about two months ago, and went back after being out about a week, on condition that the wages and hours' question would be settled by arbitration. Each side appointed a man, but the two could not agree on a third.

CUBA TO RETALIATE.

Havana, Aug. 8.—In order to guarantee the projected loss of $35,000,000 congress has decided to impose an increase on American coal and other commodities, not excepting coal which the United States might dump at the naval stations. The increase on coal will be twenty-five cents per ton; that on corn 33 1/2 per cent; on ham, 150 per cent; on bacon, butter, flour, potatoes, poultry, etc. There will be a 25 per cent increase on canned beef, coffee, 100 per cent on American canned goods, beer, lard and Porto Rican coffee, fifty per cent. On Spanish products, seventy to 100 per cent, and on rice 100 per cent.

Atlantic City's Floral Trade.

Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 8.—The entire day, from the assembling of the floral hosts in the morning until the close of the festivities this afternoon, was a grand success. Those who witnessed the great procession said, at its close that it was the most magnificent spectacle they had ever seen, going far beyond their utmost expectations. The festivities of floral fetes day were viewed by more than 50,000 visitors. This great cosmopolitan resort was resplendent with tons of flowers, floral designs, and an extravagant profusion of hunting. The parade took place on the famous boardwalk and afforded a picture that never had been equaled elsewhere. It was composed of over two thousand wheel chairs, all tastefully decorated with flowers and blossoms of innumerable varieties. All along the line the participants were greeted with wave after wave of enthusiastic applause and cheers. After the parade was finished there was a distribution of prizes and a floral dance concluded the festivities.

Will Grapple With Matter.

London, Aug. 8.—In the imperial parliament, yesterday, replying to J. Edward Seely (conservative), who deplored the lack of modern war appliances by the British army and navy and who urged the establishment of a department responsible for the adoption of every invention necessary to the army and navy, the premier, A. J. Balfour, denied that Great Britain was behind other nations. He said the government would grapple with the urgent question of a joint strategical department to the best of their ability.

In Memory Of Heroes.

Culpeper, Va., Aug. 8.—The magnificent monument erected in the National cemetery, to the memory of the soldiers of the 25th New York Volunteer Infantry, who fell in the battle of Cedar Mountain, was unveiled to-day, with imposing exercises in the presence of an immense throng. More than 200 survivors of the regiment came from Rochester to take part in the ceremonies and the number of participants was increased by the presence of a large number of Confederate veterans.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 8, (11 a.m.)—Moderate to heavy showers to north west, with a few scattered showers to-day, but, mostly fair. Saturday, fine and moderately warm.

Warm Weather Goods. Special values in Ladies' and Children's Vests, at 5c., 7c., 10c., 12c., 15c., 20c., 25c. Ladies' Lisle Thread Vests at 35c., 40c., 50c. Ladies' Silk Vests, extra value, $1.

HOSE. See Steacy's special line of Open Work, East Black Cotton Hose, at 15c. Open Work Lisle Thread, Beautiful Fine Quality, at 30c., 35c., 40c., 50c. per pair.

Received this morning; the Latest Style in Ladies' Linen Collars, very narrow; only one inch and 1/4 inches deep. The most sensible and correct thing for warm weather.

New Taffeta Ribbons for Neck Wear and Sashes. Moire Ribbons, Black and Colors, for Sashes. New Lisle and Silk Gloves and Lace Mittens.

Steacy's THE WOMAN'S STORE. BORN. DOYLE-In Hungerford, on Aug. 1st, '91, Mr. and Mrs. James Doyle, a daughter, GERIE-In Trow, on July 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Orr, a son. LEAL-In Trow, on Aug. 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leal, a son. QUINN-In Trow, on July 24th, to Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn, a son. HINES-In Trow, on July 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. James Hines, a daughter. BRADSHAW-In Trow, on Aug. 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rodgers, a daughter. ALLAN-In Newburg, on July 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Allan, a daughter.

Piles. To prove to you that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain absolute cure for each and every form of itching, bleeding and protruding piles, the manufacturers have guaranteed it. See testimonials in the daily press and ask your neighbor what they think of it. You can use it and get your money back if not cured. One a box. Dr. Chase's Ointment.

ILLICIT STILLS. Habitants Prefer the Home-Made Spirits. Quebec, Aug. 8.—An illicit still has been captured in the parish of St. Methode. Beauce, and its supposed proprietor, who was found superintending the working of it, has been taken to jail. There is believed to be a large number of such stills in operation in the woods of Beauce, and merchants attribute to this fact the large falling off of late in the demand for spirituous liquors from the district in question.

A Disastrous Fire.

Port An Prince, Haiti, Aug. 8.—A fire at midnight here burned down six houses, causing damages estimated at $200,000. The people remained calm during the progress of the fire.

Souvenirs. Enamelled Belt Buckles, Brooches, Hat Pins, Cuff Links, Stick Pins, Pocket Knives, etc. Spoons from 75c. to $3.50. Largest Selection in Ontario. A. C. JOHNSTON & BRO., JEWELERS, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.