A Toronto church paper declares two weeks of holidays, with no paper. Seephar papers would not dare do it. Religious folk are indeed privileged.

AS THEY WERE SAYING.

It is refreshing to read of Loughboro township council's passing an account this week for shovelling snow. They keep on saying that people, when they drop out of life, are never missed.

No such thing! Melville Brennan has been missed every day in the year in Kingston. Bank tellers have been getting erysipelas from handling bills. The tax collectors and insurance agents, with higher rates, however, will continue their unrelenting work of saving the people from all danger of contagion.

The editor of that great French paper, Le Petit Journal, calls the editor of the Petit Journal a bar. Each had better write to the other that he is an ass and sign it "yours fraternally."

Some surprise was expressed that Capt. Wessels sent the barrel of flour to the Orphans' Home, the penalty of defeat in the yacht race, when he could have protested and saved money. He has not indicated the true spirit. He is not by any means a frantic kicker, therefore, not an alleged sport.

The cricket field and college ground have furnished a great hay crop, but what a reflection on a city of parks and picturesque features! City grounds given over to hay crops! See the borders of college drive over yet. How can the big institution be pressed as a home of culture and teacher of the arts and industries?

A Dakota editor called a local preacher a lobster, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty; damages $70. But why should a lobster be a word of reproach. It is an offensive creature, which fights only on the defensive. It is boiled alive that human epicures may enjoy a delicacy. Between man and the lobster, therefore, the amount shows an enormous balance to the credit of the lobster.

FEW LINE INTERVIEWS.

Capt. Thomas Donnelly - I have been away so much that I have been unable to thank the Y. M. C. A. leaders for the care and attention they gave the boys at their recent camp down the Rideau. I am sure every one of the twenty or so parents appreciate the goodness of heart displayed.

C. William Wright - Stella Point, that where children grow robust and the chilly blasts of winter. The outing at Stella always shrink the doctors' bills for the rest of the year. I'm growing stouter, myself, at the point.

Alderman Tait - What the city council wants is wisdom - what Solomon of old prayed for and what I have sought all my days. If they had more of this they would have accepted my views with regard to the stone wall on Montreal street. The aldermen say it is the biggest problem they have ever tackled. Why, any two business men could settle the question in fifteen minutes to the satisfaction of everybody.

CAR BROKE LOOSE.

Danger of an Accident Occurring on Railway Line. What might have proved a disastrous electric railway accident, occurred Thursday afternoon on Barrie street, near the corner of Union. At about five o'clock the big motor car was engaged in hauling two empty freight cars out towards the gate when the rear freight car broke loose and started down grade, gaining speed each second. Car No. 12 with a full load of passengers, was following at a short distance. There was a panic among the passengers as soon as they saw the freighter bearing down on them, and all wanted to jump off, but those in charge cautioned them to keep cool as there was not any danger. The car was stopped by a young lady, who left the car and was fortunate in escaping injury. Motorman Shannon of No. 12, was preparing to meet the oncoming freight, and checking its course, but in the meantime Thomas Timms, brakeman on the freighter, managed to climb aboard and by applying the brakes, brought the runaway to a standstill.

To Fire Royal Salute.

Don't be alarmed if you hear the big guns of Fort Henry booming forth at seven o'clock to-morrow morning, awakening you from dreamland. Don't imagine it is another Fenian invasion or an attempt of the Boers to capture this colony from Great Britain. The guns will be fired for a royal salute in honor of the coronation of King Edward VII. The hour is most unusual, but orders must be obeyed. Lord Aylmer, adjutant-general, has sent word that the salute must be fired at this hour, and fired it shall be, twenty-one guns all told.

May Take Up Land.

The prospects are that four or five thousand persons will leave the north end part of New York, during the next year, to settle in the fertile prairies of the northwest. Yesterday many New York farmers were here and sought information as to the mode of securing land, as well as the quickest way of reaching the favored territory. The question of removal is being widely discussed by the farmers of northern New York.

THE MYSTERY UNSOLVED

KINGSTON MAN LEAVES FOR TUNE - HEIRS UNKNOWN.

The Veteran Died in Los Angeles - He Was Quite Secretive in His Habits, and Partially Deaf.

Some days ago the Whig made reference to the late Charles Hill, of Los Angeles, Cal., a former resident of Kingston, of whose heirs fruitless enquiries have been made. Mr. and Mrs. Hill resided on Grave street (now Queen), and Mrs. Hill died here in 1852, when her husband was thirty-five years of age. One son, William, was born in this city, in 1841, and a daughter, Rose, in 1850. Mrs. Jane Shea, Chicago, is another daughter.

A recent issue of the Chicago Record, contains an article descriptive of the aged gentleman and his strange characteristics. Early in May, this year, he entered a hospital in Los Angeles, Cal., for treatment, and two weeks later died there. He told the authorities nothing more than his name and that he had no friends. His paid all his bills before hand, and at his death $2,200 was found on his clothes. Among the old man's effects was found a ring-to-a-safety vault in Union Bank of Savings. Here parcels, marked "receipts," were found to contain greenbacks to the amount of $140,000. The public administrator took charge of the money, and has been making efforts to discover the heir to the fortune, but so far unsuccessfully. Scores of letters have been received by persons claiming a right to the money. If at the end of seven years no claimant is found the money becomes the property of the State of California.

The deceased, who was about eighty-seven years of age, was very secretive in his habits. He wore long whiskers, snowy white, and was somewhat deaf. He always refused to talk of his past life, and lived a life almost utterly sequestered from the rest of mankind.

Somewhere in the world there is some one who is entitled to the $142,000. Who is that person and where is he?

WARNING TO PATRONS.

Must Send Pure Milk in Clean Vessels to Factories.

At Thursday's meeting of the Frontenac cheese board, the following letter from G. H. Bensley, inspector for the Eastern Ontario Dairy Association, was read by the secretary:

"In my tour of inspection in the different cheese factories in the Kingston district, I am sorry to say that after all that has been said at dairy conventions, farmers' institute meetings, and in dairy literature that has been distributed among patrons of factories regarding the care of milk, I find a number of patrons still persisting in sending their milk in old, dirty, rusty cans and cans that are not properly washed, also unstrained milk. Now, I want those patrons to distinctly understand that they are just as liable to a fine for that as they are for watering or skimming their milk; as the milk net covers the while care of milk; it must be pure, clean and sweet. I have witheld names this trip, but on my next round any patron I find sending milk or cans in this condition, his name will be taken and published in all the Kingston papers. The milk must come in better condition, and cheese makers, I want you to brush up, too, or you will get a dose of the same medicine."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Their Claim Doubtful. Kingston, August 8. - I noticed a small paragraph in last night's issue of the Whig, to the effect that the men of the lost contingents of the Canadian Mounted Rifles for service in South Africa were going to attempt to obtain a year's pay from the Government. I consider such a proposal entirely unwise. Mr. Terry, who signed by the view of the preceding proposition, is of the opinion that the termination of the war, is that paragraph not plain enough? Somebody will make a good rake off from these men, if, as you say, they have contributed $5 each towards the expenses that will be incurred. If only 1,000 of these men have each put up $5, that would be $5,000; a large sum to hand over to some officer almost as a gift. JACK SPURS.

No Place on Earth Like It. Dwight Terry, a traveller for the Berlin-Jones Stationery company, of New York, was in the city yesterday and to-day on route to his summer residence on the Rideau, where he will remain three weeks. Mr. Terry will sojourn there until October. Mr. Terry lately purchased a trim little island not far from Chaffey's Locks, and on it erected a handsome summer cottage. He says that there is no other place on the broad earth that can compare with Rideau, especially that part of it near Chaffey's Locks. Wealthy New York friends used to laugh at him and wink at the beauties of the Rideau. But Mr. Terry brought several of them up here and let them see for themselves. They are now as ardent admirers of this picturesque waterway as is Mr. Terry himself.

An Old Newspaper. While cleaning up some rooms under the dome of the city buildings, caretaker Ballantyne found an old copy of the Montreal Witness. It was weather beaten, yellow with age and not in the best of condition. But its pages could be clearly read. The paper is of the issue of Monday, August 11th, 1851. It contains a lengthy article on the book of St. John, and has a long letter from a New York correspondent. Mr. Ballantyne prizes the relic highly.

Excursion Bulletin. Saturday, August 9th, America among 1,000 Islands, 3 p.m. Canadian and American channels, 35c.

A Growing Business. Our trade in peaches, plums, pears, bananas, oranges, muskellons, and all other fruits is growing every day. It goes to show that we sell good fruit at prices that suit the people. T. H. Ferguson, King street.

So Very Many. Outside advertisers, nearly all who do business in Canada, would not give the Whig such a great preponderance of patronage unless its rates were the cheapest per thousand circulation. These outsiders study rates and mediums and act intelligently.

Just the thing for Children. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is remarkably effective with delicate children. They like it and take it readily when they cannot be induced to take Cod-Liver Oil. It is an excellent tonic and just what the little ones need. It makes them eat better, sleep better, and gain in weight, strength and color. Give it to the children if they have a cough or cold; if they are pale and thin; if they are scrofulous or rickety; if their food does not digest or their bowels are out of order. It is pleasant to take.

Good Crowd At The Park. Despite the bad concert in Macdonald Park, and the other counter attractions, there was a good crowd at Lake Ontario Park last night. A great show is being put on this week. Odette, the clever dancing girl, is a prime favorite. Green, with his musical instruments, in the use of which he is an adept, proved a great attraction.

Coronation Day. To be made memorable by the great hat bargains at Campbell Bros.

Be sure and consult Dr. Mecklenburg, the eye sight specialist, of Montreal, about your eyes. Satisfaction guaranteed. Charges moderate. Solid gold spectacles and eye glasses from $2. Gold filled, warranted, $1 up. Nickel, 50c. up. Save your eyes and money by consulting his makes. Regular visits to Kingston at Mecklenburg's drug store, corner Princess and Montreal streets. To-morrow is the last day of this present engagement.

"Boys" trimmed in suits - $18.50. $1.25. The H. D. Bibby Co. You miss the pleasures of outdoor life, without a camera. H. B. Taylor, successor to E. C. Mitchell. Collar buttons, 5c. 40c. 15c. The H. D. Bibby Co.

Kingston Bowlers Won. On Rockwood grounds Friday afternoon the home club was badly defeated by the Kingston bowlers.
