

KING EDWARD VII

SKETCH OF KING EDWARD V

PROVED HIMSELF A CONSTI-TUTIONAL RULER.

Born on November 9th, 1841, He Ascended the Throne on January 22nd, 1901-He is Now Much Beloved.

King Edward VII. was born Buckingham Palace on November 9th, 1841, thus giving a double interest to "Lord Mayor's Day." His mother, Queen Victoria; conferred the title of Prince of Wales, upon him when he was a month old. He was christened Albert Edward, and nearly £200,000 was spent in public rejoicings over the event.

When he was nearing his eighth birthday he performed his first publie duty by opening the Coal Exchange, London. He accompanied his parents to Parliament for the first time when he was fourteen. In 1855 he went to France with the Queen and Prince Consort, and commenced a popularity with that nation which has yearly increased. When seventeen he was confirmed by the Archbishop of Canterbury-"Bertie acquitted himself extremely well" inthis Scripture examination, wrote the Prince Consort

His studies were divided between Edinburgh, where he attended the chemistry lectures of Lyon Playfair, Oxford, where he resided at Christ Church, and Cambridge, where he was a member of Trinity-College though residing at Madingley, having also the benefit of Charles Kingsley's lectures. In 1860 he traveled through Canada, and visited the United States as the guest of President Buchanan. Blondin offered to carry him across the Niagara Falls in a wheelbarrow! Returning home he studied military manocuvres at the Curragh Camp. Dahlin, and his superior officer kept him up to his work "as no one else has done," wrote Queen Victoria after a visit to her son.

To the grief of all, the amiable and gifted Prince Consort died on firmed, in the presence of his parents ents were resolved that he should be sent the King four times to his faith-December 14th, 1861, and hencefor- and sisters. Among the other spec- a well-educated man, and, towards ful subjects, and receive their assent ward the Prince of Wales had to be tators were the three statesmen. The Litany will more than ever his mother's helper Lord Derby, Lord John Russell, and lous educationalists as to the best be sung by two Bishops vested in and deputy. He had a tour in the Viscount Palmerston. The Archbishe teachers and the widest variety of their copes, and this will be followed East with Dean Stanley as a delight- of Canterbury performed the core- tuition. It pleased Scots, too, that by the first part of the Communion

LUCKINGHAM PALACE.

Alexandra, daughter of King Chrismonth before his wedding the Prince ing will be destroyed forever, mine cases out side by oak trees bearing the emtook his seaf in the House of Lords. thing but an indamed condition of the and ever since has manifested a keen mucous surfaces.

personal , interest in Parliamentary | We will give One Hundred Dollars for any His marriage was celebrated in St. of P circulars, free George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, on March 10th, 1863. The King and Queen have had six children: one dying in infancy; the Duke of Clarence, who died in 1892; three daughters Composer of the Coronation (Princess Louise, Duchess of Fife, Princess Wictoria, and Princess Charles of Denmark), and the present Prince of Wales. strained with anxiety by the almost and the freedom of the City of Lonfatal illness which befell the Prince don, which were offered by the Wor- Description of the Observances at of Wales at Sandringham. On his recovery a National Thanksgiving Service was held at St. Paul's Cathedral, and even the pickpockets refrained from plying their traffic as a token of the general rejoicing.

In 1873 the Prince commenced a tour which lasted seven months, and neluded a long visit to India, terminating just before the proclamation of Queen Victoria as Empress of India. The Prince fulfilled many public duties at home with considerable ability. He delivered his maiden speech in the House of Lords on Feb--runry 22nd, 1884, the subject being the housing of the poor. The following year he and the Princess visited Ireland.

In 1891 he was a witness in what was known as the Baccarat case. The same year, by the birth of the Duchess of Fifejs daughter, he became a grandfather. In 1893 his only - surviving son, the Duke of York, was married to Princess May.

In the Jubilee celebrations of 1897 the Prince and Princess effaced themselves with charming modesty, so that all the honor might be accorded to the venerable Sovereign. In 1900 a happily harmless attempt was made on the life of the Prince while leaving Brussels in a train.

On January 22nd, 1901, by the death of Queen Victoria, after a brief illness, the Prince of Wales ascended the throne, choosing the title of King Edward VII. The events of the first year of his reign have evidenced his high respect for the British Constitution, his gracious consideration for all the countless millions of his sublects seattered throughout the empire over which he rules.

on the previous day "for a full hour" juicted himself extremely veril '.

Three applications of Peck's Corn The contaglous discusses hospital' trawa is rapidly approaching cometion, and will be formally opened by constitutional remedies. Dealness is caused Mint. Birmingham: One side carross by an inflamed condition of the mucous lin- portraits of the King and Queen, engets inflamed you have a rumbling sound circled by their titles in Latin and or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely the date 1902. The other side repretian of Denmark, was gazetted. A tube restored to its pormal condition, hearh ten are caused by catarrh, which is noase of deafness (caused by catarrie that can of the cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send E. J. CHENEY & CO. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

PERCY GODFREY,

March-Winning Prize.

Mr. Percy Godfrey, the music master of King's School, Canterbury, In 1871, the heart of the nation was who has won the fifty-guinea prize shipful Company of Musicians for the hest Coronation march, There were 189 competitors from all parts of the

A Tour.

In company with Mr. Tarver, his chaplain, the Prince soon after les confirmation in 1858 set forth on a Continental tour, in the course of which he visited the Pope, rather to the annoyance of the Protestant party in England. He also went to Gifamous . Lines." Returning home, and Queen at the west end of the the went to Edinburgh for nave. Then, from the four sides of

The Coronation Medal.

andra has been designed by Mr. each with a short prayer or address, George Frampton, A.R.A., and is issucd in bronze and silver by the circled by their titles in Latin and losed deafness is the result; and unless the sonts an Imperial crown against a blazing sun, and supported on either blems of the United Kingdom. A cut of the medal appears elsewhere.

> The Sifton murder trial is likely to e heard at the Middlesexe full assizes, lafte Mordens ... witheses, pare

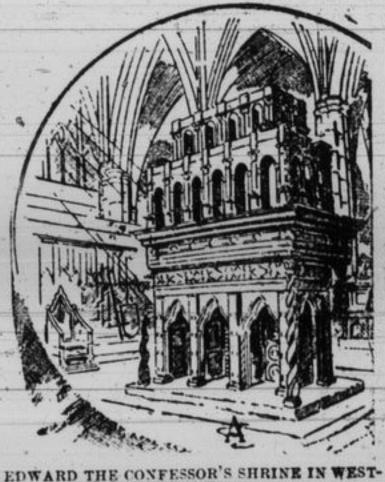

CORONATION

AS TOLD BY CANON ARMITAGE ROBINSON:

the Coronation of King Ed ward in Westminster Abbey.

Canon Armitage Robinson, at Westminster Abbey, thus described the ceremony that will be observed sanctuary, for the King's anointing, peers of the realm. The Archbishop young people did some sight-seeing

MINSTER ABBEY. Note. -King's coronation chair to the left. night before, and delivered them to the nobles appointed to carry them, braltar, and, of course, inspected the | will, with the choir, receive the King

In April, 1858, the Prince was con- a further course of study. His para the theatre, the Archbishop will preful Cicerone. On his twenty-first mony, and had examined the Prince the Heir to the Throne should come | Service and the sermon, which is to to their ancient seat of learning for be "short and suitable to the great says Prince Consort, "and Pergie ac- part of this education; and the brac- | occasion." The preacher, as has aling air of Edinburgh was very help- ready been announced, will be the ful to the health of the Prince. He Bishop of London. Then, when the spent an enjoyable holiday in the oath has been taken by the King, the Salve will cure hard or soft corns. In | Highlands, and became a great ad- | presence of the Holy Spirit will be big boxes. Lie. at Wade's drug store, mirer of Sir Walter Scott's ro- invoked in the ancient hymn "Veni Queen will make their oblations or Creator.' After a short prayer, in the course of which the Archbishop munion service will proceed, will lay his hand on the vessel con-

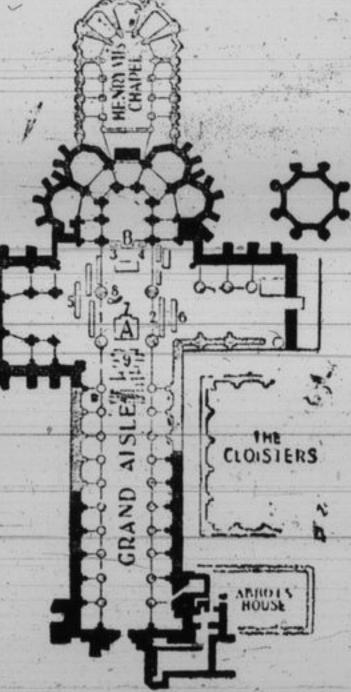

THE STONE AT SCONE. Now under the sent of the King's coronation chair at Westminster Appey. the Royal ornaments are delivered-once laid by the King on the altar, to be redeemed at a price by one of his nobles who carries it-the spurs, the sword, the robes, are placed on the King by the Dean of Westminster, and then are delivered the ring, the the consent of the Archbishop of Canterbury and the King, will be per-

Note A .- Edward the Confessor's shrine. formed by the Archbishop of York, a happy precedent thus being set. King will them solemnly offer the bread and wine which are to be used for Communion. The King and gifts to the Church, and the Com-Archbishop, the Dean, certain Bish-An interesting Coronation medal taining the sacred oil, the anointing ops, and the King and Queen joining to commemorate the crowning of of the King is made, "Zadok, the in Communion. At the close of the wisest of counsellors, and to her gestions. One package makes a ment King Edward VII. and Queen Alex- Priest," being sung. Then, in turn, service the King will pass through came in the summer the relatives of plor twenty-five people. Your Grocer the altar screen and lay certain of the altar screen and lav certain of the Royal ornaments upon the altar of St. Edward, and then return and proceed out of the church.

A Toast.

Here's to the man Who invented the fan. And its anguage, soft and tender; And here's to the breeke . And the sheltering trees, And here's to the ice cream vender; And here's to the lass

The summer-resort addenda. A new organ factory has been es-

Of the seashore class.

THE PRINCE'S BRIDE.

Future Wife.

"He came back greatly pleased sceptres, and last of all the Crown. with his interview with the Princess Then there follows a new ceremony- | of Holstein at Speier," wrote the for in a service like this we must call Prince Consort concerning the Prince that new which is little more than of Wales' first meeting with his futwo centuries old. A Bible will be ture wife and her mother. Everypresented with the words, "Our gra- thing possible had been contrived to cious King, we present you with this give the occasion an informal note. Book, the most valuable thing that The Prince, who afterwards became the world affords." Then the Arch- the venerated King of Denmark, was bishop blesses the King, each bless- traveling on the Continent with his at the Coronation of King Edward. | ing being followed with a loud Amen | charming daughter, and as if by After the Te Deum has been sung, the chance the young Heir-Apparent to In the centre of the cross will be King is lifted into his chair by the throne of Great Britain happenset the Royal Throne, and in the Archbishop and Bishops and other ed to join the little party. The

from this time forth it was known among a few relatives that the Prince | cipal Dyer. of Wales had been delighted with the Princess, and intended to pursue the matter in due course. He was not twenty years of age, so there was no immediate hurry for settling TORONTO down in married life. A few words may be written concerning the Princess who was destined to become Princess of Wales. Princess Alexandra Caroline Mary Charlotte Louisa Julia was the eldest daughter of Christian IX, of Denmark by his marriage with Princess Louise, daughter of the Landgrave William of Hess-Cassel. She was born on December 1st, 1814, so was at the time of first meeting the Prince of Wales seventeen years old: Her father had not then attained to the throne of Denmark, but was simply Commander-in-Chief of the Danish Cavalry. It is not necessary to credit all the stories told of the simplicity of the life led by him and his wife and family in these early days in order to realize that the future brilliance of that household in the Courts of Europe was entirely unsuspected. It was not until the death of Frederic VII., at the end of 1863, that this Prince of Denmark became King of the gallant little country which went through so many conflicts in the nineteenth century before it was allowed to retain its independence. But in 1852 he had been recognized as the heir to the throne. A great deal of the wisdom with which he ruled Denmark was attributed to the shrewd advice of his Royal consort, whose death in September, 1898, was a great grief to all the family, and particularly to the aged King. The Queen of Denmark was fond of literature and art, and imbued her children, of whom | flavor that all relish, It has extraorthere were six, with an interest in dinary virtues for making nervous such concerns. She was one of the people well and correcting impaired diher family, now stretching far over | sells it. Europe, certain of receiving sensible suggestions.

Fashion Notes.

Washable gloves come in great variety this season, in most cases giving Passementeries and, braids will be the popular choice in the autumn. . The coats of costumes designed for early autumn are made long enough skirt. to this effect as well as to the price. EDUCATIONAL.

Pleased With First Meeting With KINGSTON LADIES' COLLEGE KINGSTON, CANADA. Residential and Day School for Girls.

Address MASS M. GOBER, M.A., . Principal.

ACADEMY, KINGSTON. A RESIDENTIAL and DAY SCHOOL FOR BOYS. Lical Grounds of Twelve Acres.

Opens Sept. 9th, 1902. EV, T. J. GLOVER, B. A., Principal.

King Edward's chair, which contains first does his homage and receives together, but had really very little students enrolled last year, 172 young ladies the fateful stone of Scone. The Dean | the kiss of the King. The Bishops | opportunity of coming to a definite | tic science rooms, and art callery recently and Chapter of Westminster, having, and other peers do their homage understanding, even if such a result added. Two matriculation scholarships won first brought the regalia, which have through the representatives of their was desirable just at that time. in 1901. Splendid gymnasium, large athletic been deposited in their charge, the orders. The Queen's anointing and However, what we may term the Ontario. Building heated by steam and crowning then follows, and this, by pourparlers were established, and lighted by electricity. Will re-open September 9th. For illustrative circulars address prin

BUSINESS COLLEGE KINGSTON KINGSTON. BUSINESS COLLEGE TORONTO.

Largest and best equipment in Canada Unequalled facilities for securing positions. 321 Queen Street, Kingston. SEND FOR CATALOGUE. Confederation Life Buildings, Toronto.

Cannot Buy a Better Breakfast Cereal Than Our Brain and Muscle Toilers Are Now Using.

The Choice of Royalty and the Plain People.

Nature's Health Food for the Young and Old.

The millions of a Morgan or the wealth and influence of royalty cannot procure a more delicious, appetizing or healthful breakfast dish than Malt Breakfast Food, now so much enjoyed by our plain people. Malt Breakfast, Food is different from other foods. The pure Malt gives a

FREE SAMPLE OF LIEBIC'S FIT CURE

St. Vitus Dance, or have children or relatives that do If you suffer from Epilepsy, Fits, Falling Sickness, to come more than half way down the so, or know a friend that is afflicted, then send for a free trial bottle with valuable Treatise, and try it. Hat's seem to be growing in size as the sample bottle will be sent by mail, prepaid, to your nearest Post Office address. It has cured where every thing else has failed. When writing, mention this paper and give name, age and full address to THE.

LIEBIC CO., 179 KING ST. WEST, TORONTO, CANADA.