VACATION TIME.

You want Fishing Tackle, Lines, Poles, Spoons. We have some lovely HAMMOCKS, from $1 up. COAL OIL STOVES and REFRIGERATORS. All the cheapest in town.

W. A. MITCHELL'S HARDWARE.

WHAT HE SAID

"Just see the cream on these bottles of milk," was the expression of a man who stopped our wagon on the street a few days ago to arrange for a regular supply of milk. It is a fact that the milk of our dairy carries more cream than milk of any other dairy in Kingston. We intend to have every bottle as good as possible.

A Robbery in the Restaurant at the Grand Trunk Depot in Montreal—A Young Man Has Disappeared.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—The restaurant in the Grand Trunk depot, owned by the Canadian News Co., and conducted by Mr. Barnfield, Toronto, was robbed of a considerable sum of money on Monday night. Mr. Barnfield is very reticent regarding the affair, but it is learned that the robbery was committed by a young Englishman whom they have identified and given names to.

It is announced, to-day, semi-officially, that the Allan Steamship company has put in a tender for the fast Atlantic line independent of their combined offer with the Elder-Dempster and Furness lines.

The agents of the Allan, Elder-Dempster and Furness lines have not received any official notification about the contract with the government for a service to South Africa.

As compared with the last year the port of Montreal is eighteen vessels behind this time last year, but is 17,000 tons ahead. The figures are 417 vessels this year against last year with a tonnage of 727,868 against 718,082.

William John Sims, aged forty-four years, was killed at an early hour to-day by falling from Allan's wharf to the platform between the ship and wharf, a distance of twenty-five feet. He was engaged in loading the ship and in some unexplained manner missed his footing.

Judge Choquette, this morning, delivered judgment in the Dominion Colonization Co's case, in which the manager was charged with carrying on a common lottery.

A Valuable Relic. Capt. John Breden has received from John Gilbert a valuable relic of the stirring war-like times of 1866. It is in the form of a billet ticket, issued in that year, when so many British troops were quartered here.

On her majesty's service. Mrs. Gilbert, Parrie street, Kingston, has just received a letter from John Breden, mayor and justice of the peace, Kingston, June 6th, 1866. John Breden, father of Capt. Breden, was mayor at the time, and the ticket bears his signature. The balance of the writing is that of the late Michael Flaagan, who was at that time city clerk.
