THE MINISTERS ARE BUSY.

Mr. Ross is made sport of by a conservative paper, the Mail, because in a speech at Liverpool, he advocated the purchase of army horses in Canada. It is said he mentioned 500 as the annual contribution. It may have been 5,000. It can be set down as a certainty that he knew what he was talking about and that he made the point he had in mind.

"It is pleasant," says the Mail, "to know that Mr. Ross has thought of Canada while holidaying in Britain." Yes, and it is Mr. Ross' way. He is not idle wherever he is, and when he works it is for Canada, his home.

Nor is he exceptional in this respect. All the liberal ministers have been busy while abroad, and their work is telling in the South African and first Atlantic services.

GOBBLING CANADA'S WOOD.

"The International Paper company," says the Oswego Palladium, "are guarding against the future by increasing their holding on timber lands in Canada to 1,900,000 acres. The company owns 990,000 acres of spruce in the United States and has contracts for 225,000 more, making its total holdings over three million acres. The next movement, probably when the spruce is all gone on this side, will be to get the Canadian supply into this country free of duty."

It is not long since a Watertown print said that the American supply of pulpwood was very large, was, at present sight, practically inexhaustible. The exploits of the International Paper company are putting an end to this fiction. This syndicate, which represents large capital, has been purchasing all the land it can in the United States, and, according to the Palladium, the quantity is limited enough. Hence Canada is being invaded and some of its choicest possessions are being secured.

Quebec is the favourite stamping ground of the American monopolists. There they can buy the pulpwood, cut or uncut, for export, and there is no impediment towards their schemes. The proposal is to adopt Ontario's plan of insisting upon the reduction of the wood to pulp in the province, which would mean the employment of a large number of men and the investment of a large amount of money.

Evidently the International company hopes to avoid the changed conditions that are impending. But how can that be? Every sale of pulpwood is made contingent, it is presumed, upon the laws which may be passed from time to time. The Michigan people thought to evade Ontario's timber regulations and failed. The New Yorkers may have a similar experience in Quebec.

COAL GOING SKY HIGH.

The coal strike is in the fourteenth week and showing no evidence of abatement. Coal in New York is selling at $11 a ton, and is expected presently to go to $14. It will be a positive luxury at that price and can be purchased by the few.

No strike of the proportions of this one has continued so long. It is without a parallel in England, where the miners and engineers, with all their resources, have had to surrender sooner.

Some time ago the men in the Shenandoah Valley were represented as being in a desperate state, and the one riot in which they indulged gave some ground for the conclusion. But order has been restored, and the labour leaders, by the financial aid they command, have instilled hope and persistency into the men.

The silly story has been put in circulation that there is an understanding between the miners and operators. On what it is rested no can conjecture. All the appearances are against it. And what could be the purpose of such a compact? To raise the price of fuel, says one. The price is bound to go up now anyway. The coal barons are not likely to suffer any loss eventually, and they will not consult the people as to how they will collect the dues.

The miners and the people are bound to be out, and the burden will be the heavier the longer the struggle is continued. The release of a few small lots of coal at Oswego amounted to nothing. They gave occasion for false hopes and expectations. The anxiety goes on, and warrants the observation of a contemporary, "that if there is any one in the country who can effectively play the part of mediator he should speak now."

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

The British preference has to go, eh? Is that it? The government may be moving that way, but there is no sign of it.

The French conservatives in Montreal want a new paper. What's the matter with the Journal? Is it bursting the party.

In Cleveland there is a war upon filthy lucre. Some people will not handle dirty money. Others prefer it, and the dirtier the better.

The Tories have nominated their men in North Grey, and expect to win. But—harbour improvements may affect the vote. These "butts" are awful things.

Miss Yohe, whose escapades with Major Strong have been so notorious, says she is not going to return to the stage in America. Good. America has had enough of her and her scandals.

The American preacher who denounced the dance as immoral and the average actions as impure has had more sensation than he bargained for. He is now revising his opinions.

The provincial secretary intimates that it may be necessary to dispose of the asylum buildings in Toronto and remove the patients elsewhere. Why not enlarge Rockwood hospital? Its site cannot be surpassed.

The Canadian Northern railroad has added rolling stock sufficient to move 11,000,000 bushels of Manitoba's grain. What has the C. P. R. added? Upon the equipment of the railroads depends the development of the northwest.

The agricultural implement combine in the United States has had one great effect. It has ended all competition and released from service about ten thousand men. So that combines may be good for capitalists, but they are bad for labour.

Justice St. Pierre, on Montreal, has quite a romantic career, as the Montreal Star points out in a lengthy article. He studied law in Kingston in the office of Mr. Agnew, the city solicitor, served in the American war, was taken a prisoner, and mourned as dead.

Pretty hard to please the average conservative protectionist. Some time ago the liberal government was regarded as a high tariff one. Now it is pronounced a low tariff government, and very faintly until it grants the demands of the Manufacturers' Association.

The Brockville Recorder predicts that all the implement manufacturers of Canada will combine and that the entire output in Canada will be controlled from the one head office. Will the farmer be controlled in the same way? That is the question of greatest interest to the farmer.

PRESS POINTERS.

Bad To Worse.

Toronto Star. The official conservative policy "Adding hypocrisy to folly."

'Twas The Party's Pooh-Bahs.

Hamilton Spectator. It is quite evident that it wasn't the villainous N.P. that drove Mr. Tarte out of the conservative party.

Good Advice.

Hamilton Times. Less tariff, not more, is what Canada needs. Give the masses a chance; the classes can always take care of themselves.

A Real Distinction.

Hamilton Herald. Hamilton is becoming more and more the chief manufacturing centre of Canada, and Ottawa is becoming more and more the chief snailbox centre.

Value Of A Panama.

Brockville Recorder. It has been wisely remarked that the owner of a real Panama hat will be able—possible to trade it for itself full of coal when the cold weather comes.

Ticked By Trade.

Peterboro Examiner. Canadian imports in July were nearly the same in amount as in July, 1901, but Canadian exports—our sales abroad—were two and a half million dollars greater. That is nice.

Some Fresh Officials.

The Brockville Times notes the stoppage at Kingston, by a U.S. immigration agent, of several Jews, whom he termed "undesirable emigrants" and then comments: "What right has a United States officer to arrest—people travelling through British territory? He possesses powers granted him by the United States but none by Canada. He has no right to interfere with the actions of other people in Canada. Let these United States immigration inspectors keep to their own side of the international boundary and stop these alleged undesirable immigrants there if they wish to. Canadian officers can attend to affairs on this side quite well."

Had A Pleasant Trip.

About 600 persons accompanied the bar tenders to Brockville yesterday, and those who attended state that the outing was one of the most enjoyable they had ever attended. Four hours were spent at Brockville sight-seeing. On the return trip dancing was indulged in, there being a brass and quadrille band aboard. About $50 will be cleared by the bar tenders.

Sir Wilfrid will not return to Canada till about October 1st.

Sir William Mulock is suffering from a serious relapse of his rheumatic trouble and his trip to Paris is for the purpose of consulting specialists. The Ontario and Quebec delegates to the Canadian manufacturers' associations spent Monday at St. John, N.B. They were taken on a cruise about the harbor by the board of trade.

Prof. Allaire, Somher Park, Montreal, died from the result of stepping on a banana peel. He slipped on the peel on Saturday night, fell and struck his head on the curbstone, fracturing his skull. The British government has accepted the invitation of the United States government to take part in the exposition at St. Louis in 1904, but it is understood limits the exhibits to educational and fine arts.

Baron Von Waldershusen is contributing an article to the press advocating a union of the Central European states as necessary to protect themselves from the economic ascendancy of the United States and Britain. The touring St. Louis cricket team went to Uxbridge on Monday and defeated the locals by twelve runs in the first innings. The score was fifty-two for the tourists and sixty-five in the second innings and the visitors twenty-seven for nine wickets.

Mr. Jardine, the Canadian commissioner in South Africa, complains of what he calls the South African shipping ring, which is sending business to the United States and Germany. He thinks that the establishment of a Canadian direct line will largely increase Canadian exports.

The captain of the Argonaut rowing club, Toronto, offers to row an eight oared race over the Schuykill championship course, at Philadelphia, between September 15th and 20th, for a trophy or banner to which race the Pennsylvania barge club and others who care to enter, should be admitted.

SUBSCRIPTIONS SOLICITED

For Memorial to Church of England in Bloemfontein.

It has been decided to add a tower with bell and baptistry to the cathedral of the diocese in Bloemfontein, South Africa, as a thank-offering for the restoration of peace, and in perpetual memory of those British subjects who have fallen during the war and are buried in the colony. To ensure this, tablets will be placed in the building, showing that the tower is erected by contributions of the military and civilians, and on which it is hoped that the names of those who have fallen in the war will be inscribed.

When it is remembered that about 7,500 officers, non-commissioned officers, and men are buried in this colony, it is felt that many will be glad to assist in raising a central memorial to their comrades and friends who have died from wounds or diseases, and whose graves are scattered throughout the colony. About £5,000 will be required for the work proposed.

Contributions will be received by the Whig and forwarded to the treasurer, E. Bourdillon, or may be paid to the credit of the "Bloemfontein Cathedral Memorial Fund" at the Standard bank of South Africa, 10, Clement's Lane, London, or South African branches, and at Lloyd's bank, 16, St. James' street, London.

Rev. Canon Orford, brother of Mrs. W. C. Darby, is one of the secretaries. The lieutenant-governor of the Orange River Colony is president of the committee.

A Sinister Move.

The suit for damages to the amount of $30,000 brought by the Kingston Locomotive company against the striking machinists, if persisted in by the company, will be of sufficient importance to warrant the serious attention of all organized labor in Canada. It is not the machinists only whose existence as an organized body is threatened by an attack on its financial resources, but the standing of every labor organization would be seriously affected by an adverse decision in the courts. It will behoove every organization, therefore, to see to it that the machinists shall not be hampered by a lack of funds to fight the suit to a finish, and with the aid of the best legal counsel which can be procured. To do this will need money, and plenty of it. Should it be necessary the various labor organizations throughout Canada must be prepared to stand their share of the cost of fighting a concern which practically tells labor in Canada that it has no right to organize, and which will stop at nothing in its efforts to defeat and destroy such organization. In England a move is being made to destroy unionism, through an attack on its financial resources, and apparently, the same move is to be made in this country.

A Good Record. Port Hope, Ont., Aug. 18.—Lindsay Malcolm, of Stratford, nephew of the late Capt. Milligan, and who has been spending part of his vacation with Mrs. David Milligan, Ping street, won at the recent examinations at Queen's university, the Mowat scholarship ($150), and the Prince of Wales scholarship ($160), and was equal with N. Will Retire Into Absolute Privacy Through Ill-Health. Pittsburgh, Aug. 18.—A. L. Loran, Pa., special to the Pittsburgh Dispatch says: President Charles Schwab, of the United States Steel Corporation, has accepted the advice of physicians and decided to retire indefinitely from active business life. He will leave America to seek some quiet nook in a foreign clime, where not an echo of the strenuous life he has led can reach him. This information is authentic.

Dr. Godin never leaves the Schwab home, and the exact nature of his patient's illness cannot be learned through him.

BABY LOCKED IN A GRIP. Alive, and Well When Farmer Found Satchel. De Soto, Mo., Aug. 19.—William Helm, a farmer living near Irondale, Mo., found a grip alongside the Iron Mountain tracks late yesterday afternoon. He started to carry the valve to the station when he was startled by the crying of a baby. Being unable to open the grip, which was locked, he cut it open with a knife, and found a boy baby inside about five days old. The grip and baby had evidently been thrown off train No. 4, which passed that point at 5.30 p.m. It had lodged in a tree top and from thence fallen to the ground where Helm found it. The child was but little injured. The railroad crosses a big river at this point and is nearly one hundred feet above the water. It was evident by the intention to throw the child in the river.
