Life Ended in a Napanee Hotel .-Left Note to His Wife Bidding | the electric light on Monday night was Her Good Bye - Was a Good poor and persons had to resort to gus.

About half-past three o'clock Tuesday afternoon Chief of Police Baillie received a telephone message from Napanee informing him that a man who had registered at the Paisley house as William Costey, Kingston, had been found dead in his room; it was a case of suicide, apparently, as a gas jet was turned on and the man had been asphyxiated; the chief was asked to notify the man's family, who resided at 121 Stuart street.

A despatch from Napance- brought these particulars of the sad affair : "W. Coffey, a man about sixty-five or seventy years of age, was found dead in his room in the Paisley house.
