HOPE FOR GOOD EVENTS. Closing.

The tourist season on the St. Law rence this year promises to be longer than it has been for the past hy years, as the large bookings at seve ral of the prominent hotels of the region for the last week in August and the first two in September indicates. One of the principal reasons ad vanced for this late business is the expressed opinions of the weather 'sharps' in this and in other parts of the country that the fall of 1902 will be more congenial for camping and out of door sports than most of the summer has been. This opinion has in itself caused many to change their minds about leaving the river. In addition to this many of the ho tels are making arrangements for pro grammes of particular interest river visitors for the last days of Au gust and the first of September.

Married In Kingston.

At the Brock street Methodist church parsonage, on Monday forenoon, oc curred the marriage of Miss Ide Larue, Detroit, to John O'Niel, Pic ton. The mystic words which united the two young people in holy wedlock were spoken by Rev. Eber Crummy, the popular pastor of the Brock street Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Paul Larue, Detroit, for many years a well-known and efficient bandmaster and musician of Pictor, who a short time ago removed to Detroit. She is a highly accomplished presperous plumber of Picton, Mr. and Mrs. O'Niel will reside in pretty little town on the Bay of Coming to Canada to Get Into Our Prisons. .

New York, Aug. 25 .- Count Rocco Dianovich, who says he is an Austrian nobleman, with an ambition to get into prison in every country of the world and then write a book about it, is in Newark, N.J.

He declares he is on his way to test the penal institutions of the dominion. He said this among other things to Mayor Seymour, upon whom called and added that he has spent $250,000 of his ancestral fortune in his sociological studies.

In relating his prison experience the count declares that he has served terms in civilized, semi-civilized and uncivilized countries. Once or twice he has had to organize a prison board n a new country to gratify his mania for a cell. He also says he has once or twie had to break into jail communities where the authorities are Toronto World. Hon. Mr. Ross was met by a World' reavesentative at Hamilton. The hoporable gentleman was sitting in a Pulman by himself, evidently rejoicng mentally on his return home. While he expressed himself in the happiest terms about his trip, he was not at all reticent in saying that he was glad once more to be in the circle of his friends and family.

Hon. Mr. Ross spoke briefly of One thing certain that he ascertained as a result of his trip was that the colonies and Canada were growing in favor in England and receiving more attention. English people talked more about Canada now than ever they did. The Canadian arch was a splendid advertisement in itself, and was very much commented over. He thought good would come out of the intercolonial conference, because he believed the British government was itself interested very much in the discussions that took place at the counsels. The fact that they agreed

SAW END OF LOVE AFFAIR. At a Port the Man Arrested deposit now amounts to over $300. Shoots Himself.

San Francisco, Aug. 25 .- A story of romance and tragedy is brought from South America by the British steamer Peru. At Ilo, Peru, while the steamer was riding at anchor in the roadstead, two passengers came out in a small boat to the vessel. They were Julio Castro, the son of a wealthy mine owner of the Andes, and his Commonwealth bank, similar to the sweetheart; whose name was not known to the Peru's officers. Apparently, he expected to remain aboard until Panama was reached his tickets calling for transportation to that port.

At Mollendo, where the Peru touched soon after leaving Ho, two policemen boarded the steamer and demanded Castro. He was found locked up in his stateroom with his sweetheart. When repeated demands had been made upon him to submit to arrest, Castro stepped out on deck and was soon on his way to land. From 'the small boat he waved-a farewell to the young woman, whom he expected to continue to Panama, though she was later landed at Mollendo.

The Crop Is Enormous-Harvesters Fast Getting to Work-The British Journalists Will View The Operations.

Winnipeg, Aug. 25.-About 100 of the 6,500 harvesters who have already reached here have gone to North Dakota to work. They are likely to have trouble under the alien labor act, and also as regards their return tickets as the labor certificate must be signed by a Canadian farmer. Two thousand five hundred additional harvesters will arrive by to-day's train, bringing up the total so far to 9,000. Advices from Moosejaw say the weather is ideal and the crop one of the largest ever cut there. Gladstone reports an excellent crop and good weather. At Portage la Prairie harvesting is in full swing. Dominion City reports about fifty per cent. of the wheat is in stack, and the yield averages thirty bushels to the acre. At Headingly a large crop is being harvested on the high lands at Regina. Wheat cutting is general, and the reports show that the yield was never better. Reports from other parts of the country are with one or two exceptions equally favorable. The weather has been hot and bright during the last few days, and the indications are it will remain so. The British journalists spent some
