CEMETARY

Remains Taken From the Casket After the Funeral Was Over-The Family Have Nothing to Say.

Orange, N.J., Aug. 30.-A peculiar interment, it is learned, occurred here when the body of Miss Mary Redmond Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Martin, of Mountain Avenue, Llewelyn Park, was buried in Rosedale cemetery without a casket. No reason for the interment of the body without either casket or box was vouchsafed at the home of the Martins. Mrs. Martin said that it was a matter which concerned only the

The funeral was strictly private. When the hearse reached the cemetery the remains of the young woman were removed from the casket in which they were brought from Appledore, Isle of Shoals, N.H., where she died on August 15th, and were buried in nothing Nealson, sister of Mrs. Arthur but a winding sheet.

THE TIMELY RESCUE OF A BRIGHT LITTLE GIRL .

Was on the Verge of Complete Nerpous Prostration and Her Parents Thought Death Would Claim Her.

When growing girls or boys are ailing, too many parents experiment with doubtful medicines, which only touch upon the symptoms of the trouble, leaving it to return later in a more aggravated form. When you use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, you are not experimenting- News Of The Districts On Both they go directly to the root of the trouble by making new, rich, blood, and building up weak nervesin this way they cure, and the trouble does not return.
