Hired A Special Train.

Reginald A. E. Kennedy, managing director of the Times Printing com pany, Hamilton, who has just died as the result of a fall down the steps of the Hamilton mountain, stands on record as the only man in Canada who ever hired a special train to see a football match.

Mr. Kennedy was partial to al branches of legitimate sport, but was particularly fond of Rugby football. The season in question had been mark ed with good plays and Mr. Kennedy was very anxious to see a deciding game to be pulled off in this city. However, he missed the train, arriving at the station just in time to see the vellow sweater of the last Tiger face from view in the rear coach. But that didn't make any differ ence. CANADIAN MARKET HALTS THE MEAT COMBINE.

Statement From Boston That Prospect of Competition From Canada Has Stopped Packers' Trust-Worried Over Matter.

Boston, Sept. 5.-The organization of the packing-house interests it is asby serted, has suddenly been stopped. Schedules of property which were being made in Boston and New England to be filed at Chicago as a basis for taking over all the independent concerns into the trust, were made up and were all ready to send vesterday. but they did not go.

Word was received from Chicago not to forward these schedules. It can be said positively that the reason for holding up the formation of the $500,-000,000 trust is that some of the firms which were to be taken in have grown frightened at the last moment, and unless they can be coaxed into an easier frame of mind the organization will fall through.

From a trustworthy source comes the information that the men who have backed out are alarmed over the possibility that Canadian meats will be put on the free list by congress next winter as the result of publicity. Until the Chicago interests get some sort of control of the Canadian situation, or some assurance that there will be no intereference with the tariff, it looks as if the trust movement would be held up.

The Chicago people are worried also over the fact that the talk against the beef trust has not ended with the Chicago injunction, and that it is possible that upon the return of Attornev-General Knox from Paris he will press local suits against the trust.
