The world's production in 1901 increased 27,237 tons over 1900, or five and three-quarter per cent. The largest increase was in the Rhine district of Europe, 12,965 tons, the next largest in the United States, 12,862 tons. The total exports from the United Kingdom to Africa, according to figures received by the bureau of statistics, were in 1901, $157,000,000, or practically five times as much as the exports from the United States to Africa.

The value of coal mined in Japan is almost equal to that of all other minerals combined. It varies from the hardest anthracite to peat, but the quality is usually inferior to that of American coal. Modern machinery and methods have been introduced in the operation of many mines.

A New York engineering firm since February has placed orders for 500,000 tons of steel rails, etc., for United States, Canadian and Mexican roads. Of these orders, 50,000 were placed in England, 300,000 tons in Germany and 150,000 tons in Belgium.

The greater part of these orders, he said would have been placed in England, but British mills could not accept any more.

Exports of butter and cheese last week from Canada to Britain: Cheeses, 65,139 boxes as compared with 54,976 boxes during the same week in 1901. Butter, 32,249 boxes as compared with 32,293 boxes for the same period last year.

So far this year the cheese exports have been 1,338,029 boxes, as compared with 1,092,538 in 1901, and the butter exports 313,970 boxes as compared with 235,214 in 1901, a great increase.

CLARK ABSENT AND A HOT NOTE ON ATTORNEY'S DESK

Officers Are on the Lookout for the Young Man—He Did Not Want to Go Before Judge McDougall.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—County crown attorney, this morning, found a note on his desk in reference to the Clark extradition case, which said: "I am satisfied your purpose was to annoy me by having McDougall imprison the boy and refuse him to go to the United States. You are not to be successful and you are not to be successful. The boy was assigned. Clark should have come up for a hearing before Judge McDougall to-day, but has apparently fled from Toronto. The detectives are looking for him everywhere, and if he is found he will be promptly returned to Massachusetts to stand trial there for fraud."

The presbytery of Toronto, this morning, refused to consent to the translation of Rev. D. C. Hossack, Deer Park Presbyterian church, to Franklin, Pa. The church there wished him to go, and he could not himself make up his mind and the presbytery had to decide.

The American Association of Traveling Passenger Agents concluded the business of their convention to-day, by deciding on New Orleans as the next place of meeting, after a fight had been made to have the convention go to the City of Mexico. The officers elected were: T. F. Fitzgerald, Los Angeles, president; F. Bennett, New York, vice-president; T. W. Langman, Detroit, secretary-treasurer.

Messrs. Richard Suro, W. F. Harvity, C. E. Kimball, H. L. Sprague, A. Scheffer, C. J. Flett and A. Falconer, were named directors of the South Shore railway at the annual meeting of shareholders to-day.

The Toronto General Trust Co., executors of the estate of the late Hugh Ryan, who was recently granted a winding-up order against the Tobacco Gypsum Mining Co., of Victoria, N. B., on a claim of $2,000, this morning obtained an order for the examination of the sheriff of Victoria county, who it is charged ignored the winding-up order and sold the assets on an execution by John Dunn, the secretary of the company.

Before Mr. Cartwright, at Osgoode Hall, this morning, the examination was begun of the ballots cast in the North Grey provincial election, in which the conservatives are seeking to upset the election of A. G. McKav. The chief point of interest is the ballots from No. 9, St. Vincent. Nothing new was brought out at this morning's session. The ballots were tabulated and carefully looked over by counsel on both sides. Everything is now in readiness for the election trial, the date of which has not yet been set.

CONVENTIONS IN MONTREAL. Dentists And Doctors Are in Session.

Montreal, Sept. 16.—The Canadian Medical Association convention opened to-day, in the McGill medical hall, and the Canadian Dental Association convention met in the chemistry building. At the medical building a number of sectional conferences took place when papers of a technical character were read. Dr. McPhedran, Toronto, presided over the medical section and Dr. H. E. Cushing, Montreal, over the surgical section.

This morning was consumed in amending the constitution and the reading of a paper on "The Nationalization of the Dental Profession in Canada." The discussion was opened by Messrs. Joseph Nolan, of this city, and A. W. Thornton, chairman, Ont., and was followed up by several speakers. At the close of the business session the delegates drove around the mountain and had luncheon on the look out.

At the close of the medical convention's forenoon session, luncheon was served in the medical building.

At the Union of Municipalities convention, this morning, the question of financial relief for municipalities was discussed and as a result, the matter was referred to the executive committee to draw up a plan for the purpose of borrowing on united credit with the object of having the provincial governments, first lend its sanction to the plan and afterwards securing the approval of the Dominion Government. All. Stroud, Ottawa, introduced a resolution, which was adopted, which provided that in the cases of all franchise granted by cities or towns to corporations a stipulation should be made that in case of difficulty between the said corporation and employees the same should be settled by a board of arbitration.

MRS. TAYLOR'S CHARITY. She is to Put up a New Hospital Building.

Watertown, N.Y., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Emma Flower Taylor, wife of John B. Taylor, and only daughter of the late Governor Roosevelt, has just notified President F. B. Sterling, of the board of trustees of the City Hospital, that she will defray all the expenses incident to the erection of a new building on the hospital premises for the care of patients suffering with contagious diseases other than small-pox.

Ask Him To Deny Incident. Milwaukee, Sept. 16.—President Roosevelt is called upon by the Wisconsin Methodist conference to refute the report that he has asked the Vatican at Rome to create Archbishop Ireland a cardinal.

Many Charred Bodies Found. Kalama, Wash., Sept. 16.—Reports from the stricken districts of Lewis River continue to grow worse. The charred bodies of thirty-eight persons have already been found and it is believed more will follow.

Discussing Church Union. A meeting of the congregations of Bethel and the First Congregational churches was held last evening to discuss the proposal of union. The matter was referred to a committee which will report at another meeting to be held this week.

The captain and the men are believed to have drowned.

The war office has decided that members of the Canadian coronation contingent, commanded by Lieut-Col. Pellatt, are not entitled to medals because they refused to remain for the coronation, which took place six weeks later.

The term of the general superintendent of the Methodist church will remain at eight years. There will only be one officer. The interval between two occupations of any one pastorate by any one minister will be at least four years instead of six, as at present.

Naval Constructor Richmond Pearson Hobson, who appeared before a retiring board a few months ago and failed to qualify for retirement, will be assigned to duty shortly by the navy department. He has been on sick leave since July 15th, and Dr. Dixey, of the examining board, now pronounces Hobson fit for duty.

Charles A. Gutke, one of five members of the House of Delegates, confined in St. Louis, Mo., jail on charges of bribery and perjury, was informed of the death of his eleven-year-old son. Judge Davis gave him permission to go home in custody of a deputy sheriff, and Delegate Edmund Bensch, out on bonds aggregating $15,000, volunteered to go to jail in place of Gutke, in order that the latter might attend the funeral.

PUT KNIGHTS OUT. They Cannot Attend the Trades Congress.

Berlin, Ont., Sept. 16.—The only business transacted this morning at the Trades and Labor Congress was the appointment of standing committees and the consideration of the report of the special committee on the revision of the constitution. They recommended a change in section-three, article one to bebar, after January 1st, 1903, from the congress, representatives from the Knights of Labor assembly, the Knights and their friends put up a strong defence, but the recommended clause was adopted, the congress being opposed to dual organizations.

MINES IN OPERATION. One Opened To-day, Another Will To-morrow.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 16.—The Conyngham men of the Delaware and Hudson company, resumed operations this morning. No efforts were made to prevent the men from going to work. Arrangements were made to start work at the Dexter Colliery, of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, near Pittston, this morning, but the plan was given up. It is probable, however, that work will be started to-morrow.

MANY SLAIN. Converts to Christianity Killed by Boxers.

Davin Memorial. Ottawa, Sept. 16.—The fund for the proposed memorial to the late Nicholas Flood Davin, being collected by Henry J. Morgan, now exceeds $20,000 and steps will be taken at an early date to select a design. It is the present intention to have it in place and ready for unveiling, in the early spring before parliament prorogues. On Saturday Mr. Morgan and a representative of Mrs. Davin's family, selected a site for the memorial in Beechwood cemetery. A mound was selected overlooking the graves of Chief Justice Ritchie, Alonzo Wright and others. Mr. Davin's body will be removed to the new grave in a few days.

Killed In Explosion. Roanoke, Va., Sept. 16.—The bodies of seventeen miners, killed by the explosion at the Algona mine, were brought to the surface late last night. Several of the rescuers were overcome by the gas and brought out unconscious. Coming so closely upon the end of the strike in this field, the disaster may cause a suspension of mining as the men have not yet lost that spirit of discontent of which the strike was the result.

Beats All Records. New York, Sept. 16.—The steamer Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which arrived in port this morning from Cherbourg, beat all westward records. She made the run in five days, eleven hours and fifty-seven minutes, which is twenty-five minutes better than the time of the Deutschland.

HILL HAS MAN FOR THE PRINCIPALSHIP OF QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY

The Trustees Will Have a Conference To-morrow—No Appointment Likely to be Made.

To-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock, the trustees of Queen's university will meet in the senate chamber to discuss the appointment of a successor to the late Principal Grant. There are twenty-nine trustees at present enrolled, the vacancy caused by the retirement of Rev. Dr. Barclay, of Montreal, not being filled. Dr. Barclay resigned about two years ago because he was supposed to the university being severed from the Presbyterian church.

From inside sources it is learned that there is little likelihood of an appointment being made this year, though the name of Rev. Dr. Barclay, will no doubt be the most prominent.

The arts, medical and theological faculty professors, with one or two exceptions, have signed a petition to be presented to the trustees, asking for the appointment of the Montreal divine.

On another side the calmer opinion prevails, it being thought best to defer the appointment till the trustees' annual meeting at the end of April next. Those of this opinion desire no friction in the appointment, pointing out that it would be far better to leave it in abeyance so that an agreement would finally be reached that would satisfy all parties.

The names of Queen's trustees are: James Douglas, B.A., LL.D., of New York; Rev. Dr. Milligan, Hon. Justice MacLennan, George Gillie, B.A., of Toronto; Rev. Robert Campbell, Perth; F. H. Chrysler, K.C., J. R. Allan, Rev. Dr. Herridge, Sir Sandford Fleming, Hon. E. H. Bronson, of Ottawa; E. W. Rathbun, Deseronto; Rev. M. W. Maclean, Belleville; W. C. Caldwell, M.P., Lanark; Hugh Waddell, Peterboro; Rev. D. R. Drummond, St. Thomas; Rev. J. Edgar Hill, Rev. Robert Campbell, Montreal; D. B. MacLennan, Cornwall; P. C. McGregor, Almonte; Rev. T. Wardrop, Guelph; Matthew Leggat, Hamilton; H. A. Calvin, M.P., Rev. M. Macgillivray, Rev. John Mackie, G. M. Macdonnell, John McIntyre, R. V. Rogers, D. M. McIntyre, Dr. A. T. Drummond, Kingston.

May Take Man In Scotland. Montreal Gazette.

Rev. Dr. J. Edgar Hill, pastor of St. Andrew's church, has returned, after an absence of six weeks, part of which he spent in Scotland. He was deputed by the chairman of the trustees of Queen's university, Kingston, to enquire about a suitable man for the principalship of that institution of learning, and to report thereon. When seen, he said:

"I have heard of a man, probably the best all-round man in Scotland for the important position of head of Queen's. He has distinguished himself as a professor of theology; he is a man regarded with the utmost enthusiasm by his students; he is a great scholar, is a remarkably able and eloquent preacher, and an excellent man of affairs. He is a man in the prime of life, being forty-one years of age, and the Scotchman church and Canada will find in him, if he agrees to come, one of the strongest men of the time."

Death Of Robert McCammon. Early this afternoon, Robert McCammon, William street, passed into rest. He had been ailing for some years past, but a week ago sustained a fall, which developed a clot of blood on the brain, causing death. The late Mr. McCammon was born in Armagh, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1858, settling in Kingston, where he lived ever since. Thus mother of the Line-stone City's earlier settlers have passed away.

For many years Mr. McCammon kept a bakery and retired about fifteen years ago from a most active life. He was an alderman in 1860, and was one of the party who went out to meet the Prince of Wales in Kingston harbor. In religion, Mr. McCammon was a Presbyterian, an elder in Cooke's church; in politics he was a liberal. Five daughters survive—two at home, Mrs. Spring, also of this city; Mrs. McConkey, Montreal, and Mrs. Dunnett, Toronto.

Want To Meet Here. The International Ticket Agents' Association of America, which will meet in Washington in October, is desirous of meeting in Kingston in 1903, and the secretary has communicated with J. P. Hanley with that end in view. Aids. Behan and Craig introduced the matter in council last evening by a resolution, authorizing the mayor to extend an invitation to the association to meet here next year. This will be the best "ad" the city could possibly secure, as five or six hundred ticket agents from all parts of America will be in attendance.

Christian Endeavor Rally. A Christian Endeavor rally was held last evening, Dr. Lake, president of the local union, occupied the chair. F. G. Lockett spoke in a most interesting manner, his subject being "Active Effort." Rev. Dr. R. Miller, of the Reform Bureau, Washington, D. C., gave an address on the same subject, which was listened to with a great deal of attention, because of its many good points. Short addresses were also made by other Endeavorers. The rally was one of the most instructive held in a long time.

Reposes Amid Flowers. Mr. and Mrs. John Kinch, Sydenham street, have much sympathy in the death of their youngest child, a boy of about two years of age, who yesterday was called to the other shore. The little basket reposed to-day beneath a bank of flowers, contributed in great measure by child friends of the little lad. Mr. Kinch is a carpenter employed by the Tarnovsky Wood Manufacturing company.
