AN INTERESTING CASE. Alleged Malpractice by Dr. Shaw of Lansdowne.

The two days' court of assize at Brockville on Tuesday and Wednesday before Hon. Sir John Boyd, K.C.M. G., chancellor of Ontario and a jury, were fully occupied with a case alleged malpractice greatly interesting the surgical profession.

Altert Cross, of Lansdowne, brought an action against Dr. J. M. Shaw to recover $3,000 damages for alleged unskilfulne-s and negligence.

The plaintiff on September 24th 1900, while threshing grain or farm, suffered a dislocation of right shoulder from a kick of a horse, Dr. Shaw was called in to treat the injured shoulder, and reduce the dis location. It was alleged by plaintiff that Dr. Shaw entirely failed to ac complish the reduction, with the re sult that the plaintiff is permanently injured; his shoulder is useless

Much of the evidence on both sides was of an intricate and surgical character. The plaintiff, among other witnesses, called Dr. Emery, of Gananoque, Dr. Stanley Cornell, of Athens, and Dr. Charles Cornell, of Brockville. On behalf of the defendant there were called Dr. Garrett and Dr. Third, of Kingston, and Dr. Ferrier, of Lans downe. Much interesting and important evidence was given by Dr. Third as to the examination made by him of the injured shoulder through the fluoroscope and X rays. The jury, after careful charge from the presiding udge, Sir John Boyd, returned a ver dict for the defendant on Wednesday afternoon at six o'clock, having de liberated one hour, and the learned chancellor dismissed the plaintiff's action with costs. Hutcheson & Fisher acted for the plaintiff, and John Mc Intyre, K.C., for the defendant, Dr.
