

VALUE OF TESTIMONY.

Greater Than Assertion.

There is none of us so hardened but that when we have been able to aid our fellow creatures by conferring a benefit or bringing a little comfort into their lives we like to have appreciation shown. This generally affords more pleasure than the performance of the act itself, and in this connection the following letter from a Paris, Texas, lady is of more than usual interest.

SEEK CONTROL OF THE PONIES FOR NEXT SEASON.

Several Citizens May Form a Company—New Half-back for Queen's.—The All-Canadian Rugby Team.

Toronto Varsity has commenced rugby practice. The O.R.F.U. executive meets this evening in Toronto to draw up the schedules. "King" Clancy has decided to remain in Ottawa and coach the College team.

Ponies play in Cananook this afternoon. They will play third base in place of Burke. Ruydale, formerly of Queen's and Ottawa Rough Riders, is practising rugby with Montreal Britannians.

"A NORMANDY WEDDING."

A Pretty Opera That Was Cleverly Presented.

An appreciative audience witnessed the production of that delightful opera "A Normandy Wedding" at the Grand Opera House last evening. It is one of the most charming operatic productions ever presented here.

If He Decides to Accept Offer of Trustees—Want Him to Remain in Montreal—Will Consider the Matter for Some Days.

Montreal Herald. "If I accept the offer of the trustees of Queen's University, and become principal, I will be guided solely by a sense of my duty. More I cannot say. I have only received by telegraph the offer of the trustees. Tonight or tomorrow a delegation will be here to lay the offer before me. My first intimation must be to them.

England to-morrow, On the way home the Australian cricketers will leave the situation when it rains down.

Many of the old players have stated their intention of quitting the game, but as they do this every year, we become deaf to the stereotyped declarations.

A possible line-up of Ottawa College football team in its first match is: Fullback, O'Brien; halfbacks, Callaghan, Bell and Gies; quarterbacks, Deacon; wingbacks, Cox, Harrington, Boucher; wings, Hal Walters, Kennedy, Devlin, Corbett, McCredie, Elliott and Latour.

The sum of $2,000 has been guaranteed for the trip of the all-Canadian football team to Great Britain. The team will leave in the early part of November. Early next week the circulars calling upon the various clubs to send their selections for representatives upon the team will be sent out.

Mortality, the Pony pitcher, and Treasurer McDermott, drove out into the country on Wednesday. They sighted an eagle, which "Mory" chased, on foot, for half a mile. A chipmunk next appeared, and he followed this little animal another half mile, while the treasurer went asleep in the rig. When he gets more time "Mory" will return with a gun, and seek the eagle again.

The Montreal Shamrock lacrosse team will leave for New Westminster, B.C., on Tuesday, September 22nd, by way of Chicago. The team has received invitations to play at Chicago, St. Paul, Winnipeg, Victoria, and Vancouver, and it is quite likely one or more of them will be accepted, especially the invitation of the St. Paul people, while there is also a possibility of the champions playing in Chicago. The team will be away at least four weeks.

The Ponies may be controlled next year by a small stock company. It is said that six or eight citizens, of decided baseball enthusiasm, and with $1,000 capital, will make a proposition to take over the team and either secure the old Park Nine grounds on Johnston street, or the fair grounds. Either would do, but the former would perhaps be the better, as they are more central, and within general walking distance. Years ago, two semi-professional baseball teams were run in Kingston, and it is felt that one can surely be successfully managed now.

Wolfe Island Races.

The horse races at Wolfe Island on Thursday afternoon resulted thus: 2:30 trot—Babelene (Dr. Alford), 1, 1, 1. Bibby (Metcalfe), 2, 2, 2. Slipper (Corkery), 3, 3, 3. Time—2:30; 2:29, 2:27.

Running race—Little Maid (Woodman), 1, 1; Alberta (T. T'low), 2, 2. Best time 59 seconds.

C. Millan, C. Horn and H. Davis were the judges.

Should Level the Street.

The roadbed at the corner of Union and Ellerbeck streets is in a dangerous condition, and requires prompt attention if an accident is to be averted. The rails of the street car tracks are several inches above the roadbed, and as they curve here it makes the danger all the greater. Delivery rigs in attempting to cross slide all over the street, and are in great danger of upsetting.

Injured At the Camp.

Gr. Rice, of "B" battery, met with an accident at the artillery camp at Deseronto on Tuesday. While at work at the guns two of his fingers were broken and the hand badly smashed. His friends regret the occurrence.

J. H. Redmond and son, Winnipeg, are spending a few days in the city.

"San Toy" Coming.

"San Toy" will be the attraction at the Grand on Tuesday next. The Toronto Daily Star says: "Toronto dearly loves a good musical play, as was evidenced at the Princess theatre last night when the Augustin Daly Opera company presented 'San Toy,' by Sidney Jones, which made such a big hit last season. The piece met with a most pronounced success, and is bound to have packed houses for the balance of the engagement. Miss Nellie Lynch has the soprano role played formerly by Miss Paula Edwards, and with her vivacity and cleverness makes a lot of the part. The other roles are in competent hands, and the piece is staged beautifully."

Jolly "Weary-Willie" Coming.

The happy-go-lucky, "Weary Willie" will have a new exponent on the stage when Manager E. D. Newell presents the strikingly original comedy drama, "A Jolly American Tramp," at the Grand opera house, Saturday afternoon and evening. This piece is more strikingly interesting than the same author's other plays. In "A Jolly American Tramp" he holds the attention of his audience by the quality of his wit, the deep touches of pathos that he has interwoven in his comedy, and his cleverness in conveying comedy with which it is interspersed. Of course the suspended tramp turns out to be a hero, and the supposed millionaire, whose greed for gold leads him to commit a felony, simply does what all his ilk in the big trusts are doing every day.

Notes Regarding the Movements of Vessels.

Craig's wharf. Steamers Cuba and Alexander up.

The Muskoka, consort of the steamer Orion, has gone into winter quarters.

M. T. company elevator: SS. Rosemont and consorts cleared for Fort William.

The schooner Flora Carvelth, of Oswego, is unloading soft coal at the penitentiary wharf.

Richardson's elevator: Schooner New Dominion cleared for Charlotte; schooner Echo and Ariadne from bay ports; steamer Orion cleared for upper lake ports.

Swift's wharf: Steamers Toronto down and up; Spartan from Hamilton; Rideau King from Ottawa; schooner Falconer from Charlotte with coal.

The steamer Tarret Court, one of the five big freight vessels on their way from Liverpool to Port Arthur, stuck fast in the Queenstown street bridge of the Welland canal while passing up. The big steamer ran between the pier and the open bridge, and was firmly wedged there. Traffic was completely blocked during Wednesday, until they succeeded in getting the steamer clear.

Holds an Officer to Blame.

Troopers J. H. Bevnor, of Fincher Creek, Alberta, W. Shaw, of Calgary, and H. A. Jones, Toronto, are in Toronto in rags and penniless, and without their discharge. They are members of the ill-starred two hundred and ten who were left over in South Africa when the last contingent returned home, and who arrived at Quebec on the Lake Erie on Saturday. Trooper Shaw was a conductor of the Canadian Northern. They claim to be unpaid and blame Maj. Cairnes, 5th Kingston Field Battery, who had them in charge, for their present condition.

ABUSE OF CHARITY.

Money Subscribed for Food Used Otherwise.

"The poor we have with us always," is a gospel truth as plain as convincing to-day than ever. It was written and spoken nearly two thousand years ago. What to do with the poor, how best to relieve their want without encouraging idleness and the misuse of money, has become a difficult question to those who have endeavored to assist the destitute and needy. It is worse than useless, in most cases, to make contributions of money, for it will be squandered on needless things instead of on bread, etc. A case illustrating this point occurred in Kingston only a few days ago. A family living in the northern section of the city were in very destitute circumstances; the little mouths were many, and there was but little to feed them. Kind ladies raised a subscription of $10, secured a supply of food and clothing and presented it to the needy parents, who expressed hearty thanks. A few days later one of the ladies began to wonder if the old suits would fit the boys, and if not, would the mother be able to alter them. With this end in view she visited the home, "Oh, yes, the suits fitted beautifully," said the mother, "I never saw anything like this. The children all looked so nice in their new clothes that I spent the $10 to get their photographs taken." This, an actual occurrence, shows the cause of some people's poverty—ignorance of the value and use of money.

SIXTY-ONE YEARS.

Death of a Former Governor of Upper Canada.

On Sept. 19th, 1811—sixty-one years ago to-day—occurred the death of Lord Sydenham, one of the greatest and best governors of Canada ever had. On the 14th of the month, while he was returning home from an excursion on horseback, and ascending a hill at a center, his horse stumbled over a stone and fell. Lord Sydenham's right leg was caught beneath the animal, and the principal bone of the leg was fractured obliquely and a fearful wound created above the knee.

He was carried to his residence close at hand. He resided in what is now known as the "Arlington House," until late the home of the late Rev. J. A. Allen and the birthplace of that versatile novelist and scientist, Grant Allen. Lord Sydenham suffered great pain for fifteen days, and at seven o'clock on Sunday, Sept. 19th, he breathed his last. He was but forty-two years of age when he died, an age at which the public career of many statesmen is only commencing. He did more than half accomplished. He did more, perhaps, than any other governor-general to make Canada a free contented and happy nation. He settled the Clergy Reserves problem, united Upper and Lower Canada, established registry offices and allayed irritation and discontent. He made the name of Sydenham a name that every Canadian should honor.

Regiment Resumes Drill.

The members of the 14th Regiment have begun their annual fall preparation for the annual fall inspection. Companies "A," "B" and "C" were on parade last evening at the armories, and there was a splendid turnout of the men. The drill has changed a little since the spring parades, notably in the system of "right about turn." Companies "C" and "B" are to have an annual parade this evening for the first time.

Ladies Compete.

A Wolfe Island fair, Thursday afternoon, there was a keen competition for the prizes for the best turnout by ladies. Miss Horne was awarded first, Mrs. Alexander, Melroe, second, and Miss McAllister, third. Alderman Knapp and James Dalry were the judges.

Just the thing for Children.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is remarkably effective with delicate children. They like it and take it readily when they cannot be induced to take Cod-liver Oil. It is an excellent tonic and just what the little ones need. It makes them eat better, sleep better, and gain in weight, strength and color. Give it to the children if they have a cough or cold; if they are pale and thin; if they are scrofulous or rickety; if their food does not digest or if their bowels are out of order. It is pleasant to take.

All druggists sell it.
