THE SHORT-METRE PHRASE OF ALD. TAIT

He and Alderman Graham Cross Swords—J. A. Gardiner Advises City Fathers to Plug Up Courage—Water Works Committee Meets.

The civic waterworks committee met in the city engineer's office at 4.30 p.m. yesterday.

The chairman stated that the new boiler for the waterworks' pumping station had twice been tested, and found to stand 250 lbs. of steam.

A large batch of accounts were found satisfactory, and ordered to be paid.

John A. Gardiner wrote regarding the system on which fire insurance rates are based, pointing out some defects in the city waterworks, which, if remedied, would result in a lower rate being obtained.
