

MERIT MAKES IT FAMOUS.

The Only Remedy in the World. Except a Surgical Operation, That Will Certainly Cure Any Form of Piles.

The study of physicians, the experiments of chemists, the loudly advertised pretensions of quacks, have been for years expended in one direction; to find a pile cure that would cure.

The results have been a number of harmless and in most cases useless ointments, suppositories and even internal remedies, which the public have weighed in the balance of experience and found wanting.

It is now the best known, because its merit and safety have advertised it wherever used. It has been advertised by word of mouth, from one sufferer to another, people who have tried everything else, even submitting to painful and dangerous surgical operations without avail.

A book on cause and cure of piles sent free by addressing Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

CAT WAS IN WAY

STORY SOLD IN OTTAWA BY RETURNED SHANTYMAN

Says the Animal Lacerated His Arm and Tore His Clothes Before he Killed it With His Pocket Knife.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Joseph Paquette, who came down from one of the Export Lumber company's shanties on the Desert River, yesterday, with his arm in a sling, and who is boarding at a lodging house on Murray street, told of an exciting experience with a wild cat. Paquette tells the following story:

"I was out in the bush on the trail from one of the shanties to another with a message to the foreman, when I was caught in the dark. I was about three miles from the shanty and thought that I could easily reach it before it grew too dark. All at once there was a hellish yell, and a big cat jumped into the path. I stopped and looked at it, and it looked at me myself. It's coming at me, and I had not time to think when the beast sprang and caught me by the arm. I sunk my teeth into my arm and started to claw the clothes off me. I kicked it in the stomach and caught it by the neck. I wrestled with the brute for about two minutes, and it was only when I stuck my large pocket knife into his side that he let go and fell over. I never was so scared in my life, and I don't know yet how I managed to fight the beast. I made my way to the shanty and had my arm fixed up and was sent out by the first team going to the railway."

FATALITY AT CORNWALL. Michael Snetinger Killed by the Fast Express.

Cornwall, Oct. 10.—Michael Snetinger, a brother of John G. Snetinger, of Colborne, Ont., was instantly killed yesterday by the G. T. R. international limited. The accident took place within 100 yards of the Cornwall station. He was driving from town to his home at the toll-gate. A west-bound train was pulling out and prevented him from seeing the express approaching on the north track.

When Mark Was Young. Senator Stewart, of Nevada, tells this story of Mark Twain's journalistic days in Carson City:

He boarded at the home of his brother, who was a model citizen and a Christian. One morning I was a guest of this brother at breakfast. We had just seated ourselves at the table when a voice drawled from the stairway above: "Have you read the Scripture lesson this morning? Yes," was the reply. "Hark the family prayers," continued the voice from above. "Yes, Sam," said the host, smiling at me. There was a pause, and then in the now well-known drawl came the further question: "Said grace?" "Yes," responded the patient head of the household. "All right, then," came the cheerful comment from the stairway: "I'll be right down." And presently the irreverent youth, who in a few years was to promote the gayety of nations, joined us at the breakfast table.
