> > A SUDDEN SUMMONS.

Miss Marie DuFlessis Found Dead in Bed.

Sympathy is extended to Capt. and Mrs. DuPlessis in their sad bereavement. It, was a distressing shock they received this morning. About a month ago Miss Marie DuPlessis came here from her home in Sorel, Que., to visit her brother, Capt. DuPlessis, of the R.C.F.A. She enjoyed perfect health, seemingly, until Friday afternoon, when she complained of feeling unwell. A physician was summoned, and, upon examination, gave it as his opinion that the indisposition was temporary and not dangerous. Miss DuPlessis retired as usual Friday night and this morning, not having been heard moving in her room at half-past nine o'clock, a domestic was sent to arouse her, and made the startling discovery that the young lady lay wrapped in eternal sleep. Death had entered the chamber stealthily and stilled forever the cheerful voice. A physician was quickly called, but was unable to recall the vital spark. Miss DuPlessis was charming person, who made a host of friends during her short stay here. and who will be sorely grieved to learn of her sudden death. She was
