RED HOT HEAT

In The Education Bill Controversy

MASS MEETING

WAS HELD IN LONDON ABOUT THE MEASURE.

Denunciation of the Bill Was Applauded—Attitude of Irish Nationalists Not Yet Defined—Fight to a Finish is Predicted.

London, Oct. 15.—The education bill controversy is at white heat on the eve of the re-assembling of parliament. A mass meeting, organized by the London Progressive council, was held at St. James' Hall last night, and every speech in denunciation of the government's bill was applauded with genuine fervor. Dr. James Guinness Rogers addressed a similar meeting in the Metropolitan Tabernacle, and there was a workmen's demonstration against the bill at North Campbell. Liberal and Non-conformist meetings are held nightly in all the northern counties and midland centres and the Welsh villages are in a ferment of excitement. Mr. Brassey is conducting the bye-election at Davenport, on the education issue, and is receiving powerful aid from Non-conformist ministers.

The attitude of the Irish Nationalists is not very clearly defined, but the English Catholics are boasting that no votes in opposition of the bill will be cast by Mr. Redmond's followers. Possibly no decisive action will be taken by the nationalists until the return of the Irish leaders from America.

The prime minister, looking more robust and in better color than for a long time, spoke at Manchester, and Austin Chamberlain, with ministerial authority at Galashiels. Mr. Balfour is leading the government party with firmness and courage, and temporarily minimizes the opposition to the bill as ill-informed and ineffectual. As has been generally expected, after Mr. Chamberlain's Birmingham speech, the prime minister expressed his determination to stand or fall by the bill, but he at the same time said, he regretted to find himself in opposition to conscientious people, and added that he would gladly do what he could to meet their objections. Prominent Balfour's vindication of the education bill has revived the drooping spirits of the unionist press. Everybody looks now for a fight to a finish.

A DYING YOUTH.

He Was Tended by King's Own Nurse.

London, Oct. 15.—King Edward, in his numerous acts of kindness and charity, is not a man to let his left hand know what his right hand is doing. As an instance of this story is told by a Beside correspondent:

The king recently learned that a young man, William Donald, employed in Edinburgh, had come to his Balmoral estate hopelessly ill of the same trouble through which the king recently passed, to be nursed by his mother. The king sent his physician, James Reid, to ascertain if anything could be done, but the great doctor found himself unable to do anything. The king then visited the cottage himself, saw the youth and expressed his deep sympathy for him.

Then he told Mrs. Donald that the nurse who had attended him through his serious operation and illness was still with him, and that he would send her every day to dress her son's wounds and make him comfortable; also that a water-bed would be sent from Balmoral Castle. He added that if she could suggest anything to please her son it would be carefully attended to.

Old Prison Ship Found.

New York, Oct. 15.—After lying buried for over a century, the famous English prison ship, Jersey, in which several hundred revolutionary soldiers were killed while the British held New York, has been accidentally discovered at the Brooklyn navy yard by the workmen who are putting up the launching stays for the battleship Connecticut. Historical associations have been searching for the Jersey for fifty years. The hull burned hull of the ship is lying under twelve or fourteen feet of dirt and water and is in perfect condition.

Have A Steady Effect.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Premier Ross, in his address at Victoria University convocation, suggested that there should be a chair of colonial constitutional history, and expressed the wish that graduates would turn to public life, where they would have a steady effect. He urged them to enter it in the spirit of Edmund Burke, who said: "I entered public life for the good I might do to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland."

Attempt Frustrated.

Cape Town, Oct. 14.—A daring attempt to rob a mail train in Natal has been frustrated. When the train stopped at Pinetown bridge men entered the mail van of the train from Pretoria which contained £12,000. They engaged the guard, but detectives concealed in the van overpowered them while attempting to get the money. Three of the robbers were captured, but the fourth managed to effect his escape.

Eleven members of the French order of the Legion of Honour have arrived in Montreal, en route to the North West.

WILL MARK IT.

The Boundary Over The 49th Parallel.

RAILS FOR LINE

WILL BE LAID WITH HOME PRODUCTS.

Mr. Hutchison Expects to Have 15,000 Square Feet at His Disposal For Us at the Coming St. Louis Fair.

Mr. Russell, engineer of the government railway to Temiskamingue states that the commission, at its meeting in Toronto on Saturday, decided to lay the railway with eighty-pound rails. Dominion Commissioner of Exhibitions, William Hutchison, has returned from St. Louis, where he has been choosing the site for Canadian buildings in which he proposes to place the Canadian exhibits.

Canada will not have a separate building for exhibits at the St. Louis fair, but only offices and reception rooms. The exhibits will be placed in the various buildings, and Mr. Hutchison expects to have about 15,000 square feet at his disposal. Everything in connection with the fair is going as well as possible. The price of labor, however, promises to be high before the work is all completed.

The minister of marine has been strongly urged to appoint a commission to investigate the sardine fishing question in Nova Scotia. The ground taken is that the supply is being rapidly depleted by the detriment of the herring industry, and that the enormous quantities shipped from this country are building up canneries in Eastport, Maine.

The underwriters have issued a new tariff for Eastern Ontario, which includes a reduction of forty to fifty cents a thousand on school buildings, according to their class. ADVOCATED IMAGES.

Lively Discussion in English Church Congress.

London, Oct. 15.—Great interest has been taken by society in the debates of the Church of England congress, where one day there was a lively discussion of the question of ritual. Rev. Athelstan Riley, in an impassioned appeal, advocated the use of images, amid repeated cheers of members of the English Church Union. Preliminary Welsh-English vigorously protested and declared that the members knew nothing about the worship of images, or they would not cheer any such suggestion. A very warm controversy ensued between the high and low church partisans, with the result that the presiding bishop had to intervene to secure due courtesy in the progress of the debate.

At another meeting of the congress, there was a warm discussion on society and how it spent its Sundays now-a-days. Several clergymen urged measures for maintaining religion in the homes of the rich, under the changed conditions of modern life, but no practical suggestion was arrived at as to how to convert society from its evil ways. Lady Knightley was particularly severe on the disregard by society of Sunday, with its big luncheons and dinners, and its devotion of the rest of the day to bridge.

London, Oct. 15.—John O'Donnell, the nationalist member of parliament for the South Division of County Mayo, has been sentenced by the crimes act court at Birr to three months' imprisonment at hard labor and to an additional three months in default of bail for good behavior. TIMBER ON LAKE BOTTOM.

Lost Years Ago Near Lindsay and Worth $100,000 Now.

Peterboro, Oct. 15.—Somewhere between the mysterious surface of the Seagog lake, a few miles from Lindsay, is a large quantity of oak timber, which is worth many tens of thousands of dollars somewhere at the mouth of the winding river where to sands of summer visitors spent so many pleasant hours in passing to and from Sturgeon Point, Bobcaygeon, Redan Falls, and other well-known resorts, the buried timber has lain for about fifty years.

The facts connected with the sinking of the timber are now known only to the oldest inhabitant. Away back about 1850, Alexander Dennistoun operated largely on the waters of the Seagog, Cameron, and Balsam lakes, and in those days square timber was the chief product of the forests in this locality. The timber was floated down in vast rafts made up of hundreds of clogs, the whole being run through Peterboro to Lake Ontario, and towed to Quebec.

Mr. Dennistoun had a foreman in one of the camps named Joe Demore (whose widow still lives at Fenelon Falls). Demore, instead of cribbing his oak with a few sticks of pine to keep it afloat, built his raft entirely of oak. This timber was floated down in one huge block to a point near the mouth of the Lindsay River, where it was tied up for the winter. In the spring the rafts had disappeared beneath the surface of the Seagog, having become water-logged during the winter. In those days oak was plentiful, and it was decided that it would not pay to raise it. In a few years the circumstance was forgotten.

The timber is as sound to-day as it was when cut, having been preserved by the water. John Thompson, of the Dickson company, says that the timber, judging by what he has heard about it, is worth $100,000 or more. Some time or other it will be recovered, and will make some one immensely rich.

ASKED TO STAY AWAY.

The Servian Cabinet All Cut Up About It.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—A despatch from Belgrade says it is officially announced that the Servian cabinet has resigned. The Poilitische Correspondenz says that the crisis was brought about by the renewed postponement of the visit of King Alexander and Queen Draga to the czar. Formal assurance was given to the king and queen last year that the czar would receive them but since then they have been unable to obtain a definite date for the visit. They had, however, completed their preparations to go for Livina, where the czar is at present staying, when a cold formal message was received asking them to indefinitely postpone their visit. The reason for the message is understood to be the czar's refusal to meet Queen Draga.
