Told in The Twilight

The Autumn time has come. On woods that dream of bloom. And over purpling vines. The low sun fainter shines.

It is safe to say that there is not a day in the year's round which is kept with more varying emotions which is approached in more various attitudes.

MISS ELEANOR THOMAS. Daughter of a railroad magnate, wedded last week.

a chance to get an extra good dinner, or a cheap excursion. Still others will look upon it as a sort of little Christmas in advance.

A meeting of those interested in Queen's Women's residence, was held at the residence yesterday. Mrs. MacGillivray, who presided, expressed her great pleasure at seeing such a large turnout.

Here is a pretty scrap for the girl who loves all things domestic—and who is there among us that does not, except she be a freak?

It rains—what lady loves a rainy day? She loves a rainy day who sweeps the earth.

Miss Edith Young, of Montreal, is visiting friends here.

NAPANEE NOTICES.

Death of John A. Cathro—Personal Paragraphs.

Napanee, Oct. 15.—Miss Annie Leonard, Glenvale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Warriman, Richard street, Miss Lucy England, in the west visiting her brother for the past year or more, arrived here last week to spend some time among relatives and friends.

Boyne Harshaw, of the Merchant Bank, Owen Sound, spent Sunday in town with his father, A. T. Harshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. McKim, Bridge street, are rejoicing over the arrival of their daughter on Sunday. W. J. Garrett will spend Thanksgiving day in Williamsford with relatives. E. McLaughlin leaves tomorrow to take in the ticket agents' excursion to Washington, D. C.

Word reached here on Monday of the death of John A. Cathro in Lindsay on that date. The deceased was well known in Napanee, having carried on a general furnishing establishment until ill health compelled him to give up business about a month ago. Early in the spring an attack of typhoid fever set in and so reduced him in strength that he suffered a couple of relapses, and his weakened constitution was not able to bear the strain. He died at his father's home in Lindsay, which he went about a month ago. A wife and two small children are left to mourn the death of a loving parent and husband. Deceased was but twenty-six years of age. The funeral occurs today in Lindsay.

W. Moffatt, farmer proprietor of the Campbell house, was in town yesterday. Mrs. H. Armstrong and little son left this week to visit her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Tucker, Shamonyville.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. Notes Regarding the Movements of Vessels.

Yesterday afternoon, the students class received their first instruction in gymnasium work. Twenty young men were on the floor. In the evening the business men's class was held.

Soft coal is being used in the large furnace, but it has been found necessary to burn hard coal in the smaller heaters.

Good Thing For Hunters. The Grand Trunk railway is offering special fares to hunters who want to do deer stalking in the "Highlands of Ontario," Muskoka and adjacent territory. Reports from this district promise a record year, and the deer are much more numerous. The fact that there is an open season for moose this year, November 1st to 15th, will induce many hunters to take advantage of these low fares and enjoy this exhilarating sport.

The Stomach's "Weal or Woe." The stomach is the centre from which, from the standpoint of health, means "weal or woe." A healthy stomach means perfect digestion—perfect digestion means strong and steady nerve centres—strong nerve centres mean good circulation, rich blood and good health. South American Nervine makes and keeps the stomach right. Sold by H. B. Taylor and Henry Wade.—52

Exploded The Shells. Sergeant Maj. Long, of "A" Battery, R.C.F.A., has returned from Deseronto, whether he went on Saturday to explode fifteen or sixteen shells. These had been used during practice at the recent artillery camp there. Not having properly exploded, they were very dangerous things to be scattered around. The sergeant-major exploded them with gun-cotton.

Bibby's, To-night. Bibby's. New hats, new neckwear, new shirts, new collars at the H. D. Bibby Co.

Albermar White and City Engineer, Kirkpatrick drove into the country yesterday and secured an option on 200 acres of dry hard wood, which they can secure at $3.50 a cord, free on board cars at place of shipment.

Jim Dumps had scarcely slept a wink. All night he'd toss about and think. But that's all past—he'll ne'er endure insomnia. He's found a cure! 'Tis "Force." At night when lights are dim It soothes the nerves of "Sunny Jim."

Wouldn't Believe at First. "I wouldn't believe it till I tried it, but 'Force' is a cure for insomnia. I used to stay awake night after night. Now I can't get a big bowl of 'Force' just before going to bed, and sleep and I have become good friends again."
