> The city of London, the largest city in the world, and which in age can look back nearly 2,000 years, can present in its county council the outcome, the ripe, perfected fruit of the British monarchy, Of the 130 members of the council there are twelve' or fourteen peers, and equal number of workingmen, with lawyers, banners, manufacturers, artists, soldiers, shopkeepers and a few builders. No mem ber gets a penny of pay. Not a member has ever tried to use his position for any pecuniary advantage. The very suspicion of such an effort would ruin the one suspected for life. Moreover, no outsider has ever ventured to approach are councillor with the sug gestion of a bribe, If space permitted I would compare this with our national, state and city councils, the most corrupt bodies probably in the world. At the present time there are three bills before congress. The canal bill, which is being blocked by railroads and Senator Morgan of Alabama and his corrupt following; the Cuban reciprocity bill blocked by the sugar-trust; the irrigation bill, just passed, which means $10 per acre for -75,000 acres, $750,000,000 for private benefits. The city of Bos ton is probably one of the best gov erned cities in the United States, but it is corrupt to the very core, as witness the recent purchase of Kelley's ledge for a site for the Franklin trade school.
