

We Can't Sell Coal

But we can and do sell the nicest COAL OIL HEATER in town for $4.50

AT MITCHELL'S HARDWARE, 87 PRINCESS STREET.

You spend a good deal of your life in your shirts. If you wear "Zook" Shirts you will certainly live more comfortably than in inferior makes.

SAVE YOUR COAL.

Cover your furnace, pipes and heaters with HOOPER'S ASBESTOS CEMENT. REQUIRES NO EXPERIENCE TO APPLY.

CAPILLI FORMA WONDROFUL HAIR PRODUCER.

Table with Montreal Stocks and New York Stock Exchange data.

This Label Marks The Finest Livingston Bros Custom Made Clothing

Livingston's Clothing. There is not a customer in the city but who has been bettered by the purchasing of Livingston's Clothing.

THE 5 P.M. EDITION.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

What is Going On in the Business World—The Market News. France exports 500,000 worth of surgical instruments annually.

HOKEY AT PITTSBURG, PA. Military College Wants to Play There Again.

The Farmers' Market. Toronto, Oct. 23.—Deliveries of grain on the street market today totalled 1,700 bushels, against 2,300 bushels yesterday.

At The Grand On Monday. "Tangled Relations," which will be at the Grand on Monday next, is a clever bit of genuine comedy.

To The King's Taste. Catering for parties, assemblies, banquets, etc., will be carefully attended to if you leave the order with T. H. Ferguson, King Street.

Bibby's "Overcoats." Bibby's. The Westminster overcoats, are strikingly and stylishly made.

At The Grand On Monday. "Tangled Relations," which will be at the Grand on Monday next, is a clever bit of genuine comedy.

Livingston's Clothing. The object of our extensive advertising in the papers and through other channels is not so much to exploit the merits of Livingston's clothes.

NOISY SCENES

In Evidence in British House Of Commons

LIVELY EPISODES

THE IRISH MEMBERS CONTINUE TO STRIKE.

On Thursday They Got After Wyndham—The Secretary Bombarded With Questions—A Warm Debate Over the Belfast Elections.

London, Oct. 21.—Another scene was caused by the Irish nationalists in the House of Commons yesterday. The Nationalists bombarded Chief Secretary Wyndham with all kinds of relevant and irrelevant questions.

At Catarqui—A Woman And Two Men Injured. A serious stabbing affray took place in William Potter's hotel, Catarqui, on Thursday night.

A STABBING AFFAIR

At Catarqui—A Woman And Two Men Injured. A serious stabbing affray took place in William Potter's hotel, Catarqui, on Thursday night.

NOBODY CARES FOR TARTE.

Run After Because He Was a Minister. Montreal, Oct. 21.—I am of the opinion that the people who ran after Tarte did so because they looked upon him as a strong minister.

MURDERED BY BULGARIANS.

Massacre Mohammedan Peasants and Officials. London, Oct. 21.—According to official reports, says the Athens correspondent of the Times, the Bulgarian bands which recently crossed the frontier near Djumaya, before encountering the Turks, massacred sixty Mohammedans and two tax collectors.

ARE MORE COMING?

The rumor is current on the streets that the Locomotive Works company will bring out from the old country another batch of machinists.

GIVES THANKS.

Half Million Dollars to Teachers' College of Columbia. New York, Oct. 21.—At a meeting of the Teachers' College trustees of Columbia university, it was announced that John D. Rockefeller had offered to give $500,000 to the college.

A CHILD'S NERVE.

Arm Cut Off By a Train—Display of Great Power. Toronto Junction, Ont., Oct. 21.—A remarkable nerve was shown by the four-year-old daughter of Isaac Francis yesterday.

WE HAVE A CARLOAD OF FRUIT.

For Saturday consisting of 100 baskets table grapes at 25c; 100 baskets wine grapes at 20c; 20 baskets orange quinces at 40c; 40 baskets table pears at 40c; 20 baskets seckel pears at 50c; 60 baskets canning pears at 40c; 110 baskets peaches at 40c and 50c. Carnovsky's on the corner.

WE ARE IN WANT OF FUEL.

And empty baskets. For every basket with our name printed on the handle returned to us on Saturday, we will allow 5c for it on the price of a basket of peaches.

Kingston Lodge, No. 59, I.O.O.F., met last night and considered the third degree of two candidates. Several new members will be initiated next week.

COUNTY COUNCIL MEETS.

And Settles Wolfe Island Assessment Trouble.

The county council met Friday afternoon at half past two o'clock to consider the Wolfe Island assessment which had been raised $32,000 two years ago.

NEWS OF WORLD

TELEGRAMS FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF EARTH.

Matters That Interest Everybody

Izalco volcano, in Salvador, is in violent eruption. James Wright, Algonquin, committed suicide by taking Paris green.

Burglars took several hundred dollars' worth of merchandise from William H. Baltzel's store in Lyons, N.Y. Leave of absence, with permission to travel abroad, is granted to Lieut. Col. J. Carson, 5th Regiment, Toronto.

Capt. James A. Lynch, of the 25th Infantry, Plattsburg, Pa., has been reduced ten files in grade for not paying his debts.

Some further particulars are filed in the Norfolk election petition, charging the payment of railway fares for votes from outside the constituency.

The British admiralty has given out contracts for the construction of three warships, described as "Scouts." The vessels will have speed of twenty-five knots in fighting trim.

Provincial Detective Rogers left Toronto to-day for Lincoln, Neb., to bring back Robert Z. Thompson, who escaped from Sarnia jail and whose extradition has been granted.

Reading, Pa., coal companies will not sell to retailers who "leech." Only those who are willing to dispose of it to the public at a fair profit will get any. That is President Baer's strict order.

Nearly four hundred recipients of coronation war honors were invested by King Edward, at Buckingham Palace, to-day. The investiture was carried out in the ball-room with unusual ceremony.

In militia orders it is noted that Capt. C. F. O. Fiset, Royal Canadian Regiment, Toronto, will be transferred from No. 5 regimental depot to No. 3 regimental depot, from the 16th November inclusive.

More than a quarter of a million dollars were raised by contribution at the Methodist convention at Cleveland, Ohio, for the advancement of mission work, and it may be increased to half a million.

The trial of George Cook, for murdering his wife in July last, opened at Halifax, to-day. The jury was promptly secured, and at adjournment for lunch, the best part of the crown evidence had been taken.

Amaziah L. Ashman, for forty years proprietor of the Sinclair House, New York, died to-day. He was seventy-two years old. Mr. Ashman was one of the charter members in the Hotel Association of New York city.

The Tokio correspondent of the London Times cables that the recent report that arrangements had been completed to extend the Russian-Japanese trade relations is baseless. Nothing of the kind has taken place.

Mrs. Annie Kingsley, New York, stabbed in the heart by her husband and upon whom an almost unprecedented operation was performed, died on Thursday. The operation consisted in stitching up the wound in the heart.

The Toronto board of control this morning cancelled a contract made a week or so ago for 1,000 tons' run of fine coal to be sent from Buffalo. The contract required that one car a day be delivered, but none has arrived yet.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier left Montreal for Quebec at noon, to-day, by the I.C.R. Hon. Mr. Carroll, solicitor-general, was a passenger on the train. Previous to his departure Sir Wilfrid had a long conference with Senator Cox, of Toronto.

The Bulgarian government has sent an identical note to the powers, pointing out that unless reforms in Macedonia are insisted upon by the government of Bulgaria will be unable to hold in check the pro-Macedonian movement which is agitating this country.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., is in holiday attire for the big four days' celebration to commemorate the opening of the great five million dollar water power canal and power house marking an important epoch in the industrial history of the Soo and north west. The celebration began last night with a reception and a banquet at the Iroquois.

Why He Quit Iowa. Kansas City Journal. Henry Clay Dean, who was a famous orator a generation ago, was referred to many years after he had moved to Missouri from Iowa as "Henry Clay Dean of Iowa." He used to explain his move from the Hawkeye state in this way:

"You see, they passed a nefarious prohibition law in Iowa, and there's your whiskey gone. Then they abolished capital punishment, and there's your hanging gone. And now the whole population seems to be drifting towards universalism, and there's your hell gone. I can't live in a state that has neither hell, hanging nor whiskey."

Conductors Annoyed. A liquor dealer and a grain-dealer boarded a street car last night long after 6 p.m. and tendered working-men's tickets. The conductor refused to accept them according to his instructions, and demanded red tickets. These not being forthcoming he stopped the car, and ordered the men off. At the last minute one of them produced a $10 bill, and the conductor surprised them by promptly changing it and retaining the fare. Citizens who insist upon putting working tickets into the fair box after hours cause the conductors much trouble.

Sale of Toll Gate.

The county property committee has leased the toll gate on the York Road, at Catarqui, for the ensuing year, for $1,900, an advance of $150 upon the price of last year. George Brown, Catarqui, is the lessee.

Bibby's Hats.

We sell the Barrington, English hats $2. The H. D. Bibby Co.

William Murray, Jr., auctioneer, conducted a sale of cattle at the fair grounds on Thursday afternoon. Good prices were obtained.

NEWS OF WORLD

TELEGRAMS FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF EARTH.

Matters That Interest Everybody

Izalco volcano, in Salvador, is in violent eruption. James Wright, Algonquin, committed suicide by taking Paris green.

Burglars took several hundred dollars' worth of merchandise from William H. Baltzel's store in Lyons, N.Y. Leave of absence, with permission to travel abroad, is granted to Lieut. Col. J. Carson, 5th Regiment, Toronto.

Capt. James A. Lynch, of the 25th Infantry, Plattsburg, Pa., has been reduced ten files in grade for not paying his debts.

Some further particulars are filed in the Norfolk election petition, charging the payment of railway fares for votes from outside the constituency.

The British admiralty has given out contracts for the construction of three warships, described as "Scouts." The vessels will have speed of twenty-five knots in fighting trim.

Provincial Detective Rogers left Toronto to-day for Lincoln, Neb., to bring back Robert Z. Thompson, who escaped from Sarnia jail and whose extradition has been granted.

Reading, Pa., coal companies will not sell to retailers who "leech." Only those who are willing to dispose of it to the public at a fair profit will get any. That is President Baer's strict order.

Nearly four hundred recipients of coronation war honors were invested by King Edward, at Buckingham Palace, to-day. The investiture was carried out in the ball-room with unusual ceremony.

In militia orders it is noted that Capt. C. F. O. Fiset, Royal Canadian Regiment, Toronto, will be transferred from No. 5 regimental depot to No. 3 regimental depot, from the 16th November inclusive.

More than a quarter of a million dollars were raised by contribution at the Methodist convention at Cleveland, Ohio, for the advancement of mission work, and it may be increased to half a million.

The trial of George Cook, for murdering his wife in July last, opened at Halifax, to-day. The jury was promptly secured, and at adjournment for lunch, the best part of the crown evidence had been taken.

Amaziah L. Ashman, for forty years proprietor of the Sinclair House, New York, died to-day. He was seventy-two years old. Mr. Ashman was one of the charter members in the Hotel Association of New York city.

The Tokio correspondent of the London Times cables that the recent report that arrangements had been completed to extend the Russian-Japanese trade relations is baseless. Nothing of the kind has taken place.

Mrs. Annie Kingsley, New York, stabbed in the heart by her husband and upon whom an almost unprecedented operation was performed, died on Thursday. The operation consisted in stitching up the wound in the heart.

The Toronto board of control this morning cancelled a contract made a week or so ago for 1,000 tons' run of fine coal to be sent from Buffalo. The contract required that one car a day be delivered, but none has arrived yet.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier left Montreal for Quebec at noon, to-day, by the I.C.R. Hon. Mr. Carroll, solicitor-general, was a passenger on the train. Previous to his departure Sir Wilfrid had a long conference with Senator Cox, of Toronto.

The Bulgarian government has sent an identical note to the powers, pointing out that unless reforms in Macedonia are insisted upon by the government of Bulgaria will be unable to hold in check the pro-Macedonian movement which is agitating this country.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., is in holiday attire for the big four days' celebration to commemorate the opening of the great five million dollar water power canal and power house marking an important epoch in the industrial history of the Soo and north west. The celebration began last night with a reception and a banquet at the Iroquois.

Why He Quit Iowa. Kansas City Journal. Henry Clay Dean, who was a famous orator a generation ago, was referred to many years after he had moved to Missouri from Iowa as "Henry Clay Dean of Iowa." He used to explain his move from the Hawkeye state in this way:

"You see, they passed a nefarious prohibition law in Iowa, and there's your whiskey gone. Then they abolished capital punishment, and there's your hanging gone. And now the whole population seems to be drifting towards universalism, and there's your hell gone. I can't live in a state that has neither hell, hanging nor whiskey."

Conductors Annoyed. A liquor dealer and a grain-dealer boarded a street car last night long after 6 p.m. and tendered working-men's tickets. The conductor refused to accept them according to his instructions, and demanded red tickets. These not being forthcoming he stopped the car, and ordered the men off. At the last minute one of them produced a $10 bill, and the conductor surprised them by promptly changing it and retaining the fare. Citizens who insist upon putting working tickets into the fair box after hours cause the conductors much trouble.

Sale of Toll Gate.

The county property committee has leased the toll gate on the York Road, at Catarqui, for the ensuing year, for $1,900, an advance of $150 upon the price of last year. George Brown, Catarqui, is the lessee.

Bibby's Hats.

We sell the Barrington, English hats $2. The H. D. Bibby Co.

William Murray, Jr., auctioneer, conducted a sale of cattle at the fair grounds on Thursday afternoon. Good prices were obtained.

Advertisement for John Laidlaw & Son featuring 2 Special Bargains To-morrow. 342 Pairs Ladies' Fine Kid Gloves. 415 Yards Taffeta Silks. Special Price for This Lot To-morrow 69c. PAIR.

Advertisement for The Lockett Shoe Store featuring Girls' School Boots and Cheap Sale. At other lot received of Girls' Box Calflaced Boots, excellent quality, good soles, sizes 11 to 2, with either Spring or Low Heels.