ORPHANS' HOME

ANNUAL MEETING HELD ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Reports Were Satisfactory—Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton Doing Good Work—The Children Sing Chorus—Addressed by Three Pastors.

The annual meeting of the directors of the Orphans' Home was held in the City hall on Friday afternoon. In the absence of Mayor Shaw, who was in Toronto, Alderman J. B. Walkem, the acting mayor, presided.

Dean Smith opened the meeting with prayer, followed by a chorus by the children. "All Things Beautiful and Fair." The chairman, in the course of his opening remarks, stated that no work should appeal more to the people than that in connection with the Orphans' Home.

Miss Mucklestone, secretary of the board, read the annual report, which stated that seventy children had found shelter in the home during the past year. Of these, thirty had been placed in new homes.

Into their second chorus, "Annie Laurie," the children threw great energy, and they sang the sweet old song very well. Other choruses rendered by them were "Good By, Summer," and the National Anthem.

QUEEN'S NEWS.

Prof. Ross, Montreal, to be One of the Speakers.

A name has not yet been chosen for the new arts' building presented to Queen's by the citizens of Kingston. Suggestions are "The Kingston Hall" and "The Kingston Arts' Building."

Over fifty freshmen have been registered so far in medicine. The total registration in that department will reach 200.

William McCartney has been given the contract to build the tower foundation of the Grant Convocation hall, to permit of the laying of the corner stone on November 6th.

Dr. Thibault addressed the medical Y.M.C.A. on Friday afternoon, his subject being "Mrs. Eddy, the Christian Science Founder." He criticized her religion and methods.

There will be no formal ceremonies in connection with the theological faculty opening this session. Classes begin on November 3rd.

Rev. Prof. Ross, Montreal, has accepted the invitation to speak at the memorial ceremonies in connection with laying the corner stone of Grant Convocation Hall.

SPORT IN GENERAL.

Notes About the Various Sporting Fields.

There is talk of an English lacrosse team visiting Canada in 1903. The "B" Battery association football team plays in Oshesha this afternoon.

The Peterboro rugby team will likely figure in the Ontario senior series next year. Dr. Bowie, of Brockville, refereed the Rough Rider Argonaut match at Ottawa this afternoon.

St. Mary's and Crescent teams play the final match for the baseball championship of Ontario this afternoon. Toronto Varsity will run a cheap excursion to Kingston next Saturday by G. T. R., for their match with Queen's.

T. Warren, of Queen's, will referee the Napanee-Pictou association football match at Deseronto this afternoon. There are now three ex-Ottawa College men with McGill, Capt. Nagie, half-back Richards, and quarter-back McNeil.

Thomas Stewart has matched his stallion Prince Charlie against Maggie S., of Napanee, for $100 a side, to be raced Thursday next, at Napanee. Both horses have a mark of 2.24.

Queen's senior rugby team has not practiced this week as it should. The university is badly in need of a gymnastic instructor and trainer. Perhaps the athletic committee will soon be able to engage a man.

Charles Howley, manager and captain of the Montreal baseball club, has been appointed an inspector of immigration by the United States government. He will be stationed at Cornwall, and his duty will be to prevent undesirable immigrants from getting into the States.

The Ottawa Journal declares that Hutton and Ralph, of the Rough Riders, have been approached, and offered positions in Toronto. The Hottogton papers are continually holding up their hands in holy horror at other cities doing that trick, and here their own townsman "took" to the same practice.

Both Ralph and Hutton play hockey and lacrosse as well, and so Toronto wants them. Columns have been written of the great kicking done by Hardisty, of the Toronto Argonauts, and yet what effective work has he ever done.

How many goals has he kicked? As compared to Parkin, who played center half-back for Queen's from 1888 to 1891, Hardisty is a child at kicking. Parkin could kick seventy-five yards without difficulty, and knew how to put the ball over the goal from a drop kick in midfield.

High Crown. New derby hat with flat brim and high crown, very swagger. Jenkins.

The Belleville Intelligencer has discovered that the business of one man in that "deserted village" has been far in advance this month of anything in previous years. It will be found that the man in question is a ticket agent, and that his sales are increased by the people buying yard-bush with which to get away from Belleville.

DAY'S EPISODES

PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP BY OUR BUSY REPORTERS.

The Spice of Every Day Life—What the People Are Talking About—Nothing Escapes Attention. Men's cashmere socks, heavy, black, 25c. Jenkins.

Insure your property at McCann's, 51 Brock street. The members of the A.O.H. are arranging for a Halloween assembly on the evening of the 31st next.

Cooke's church reception to Queen's University students will be held on Friday evening, November 7th. On the 12th and 13th inst., J. H. Mills will sell by auction the household effects of the late Mrs. W. R. McNeil.

Jabez Robinson, M.P., of West Elgin, promises to introduce, at the next session of parliament, a bill for the prevention of lobbying. The provincial license department has issued instructions to local license inspectors to prosecute hotel-keepers who have slot machines in their bars.

There is no dealer but has something in stock which he can make prominent in an advertisement. If it be not novel, it may be made attractive by reasonable price. Men's braces, 25c., 50c., 75c. Jenkins.

Men do not catch fish by staying at home and looking out upon the water. Merchants who seek to catch trade must get out and hustle for it. Advertising enables them to enter all homes and have a fair hearing.

The excavation of McKelvey & Birch's new store on lower Brock street has been completed, and the contractors are now engaged in laying the foundation for the new building, which is expected to be up by the end of the year.

There are several nasty holes in the granolithic cross-walks on Princess street that should be repaired. They have existed for a year and more, and while less important defects are remedied, these are allowed to remain.

Within a few days, it will be fifty years since Cooke's church was opened for public worship. There will be special anniversary services on November 16th, and the preacher for the occasion is Rev. George F. Johnson, M.A., of St. Andrew's church, Westmount, Montreal.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of the People—What They Are Saying and Doing.

H. K. Doolittle, No. 132 Main street, Watertown, N.Y., is in Kingston. Mrs. E. Walker, Kingston, is the guest of Mrs. M. A. Prickett, Deseronto.

Miss Annie Goodenale, Kingston, is the guest of Miss Lizzie Smyth, Deseronto. Mrs. A. S. Vallant and Miss Pearl Vallant, Deseronto, are in Kingston on a visit to friends.

Dr. Gray, Kingston, will attend to Dr. Scott's practice at Lanark, from November 1st to 15th. Rev. A. M. Currie, M.A., of Upper Gore, called to the pastorate of St. John's church, Almonte, graduated at Queen's in 1889.

Charles Martin, Westport, has been nominated by the Frontenac county council for a course in the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Mrs. B. James, Clergy street, who has been visiting her son in New York City, and other relatives in Utica, N.Y., for the past few weeks, returned home yesterday.

John Exim, who is now in Westport, Ontario lecturing on Christian Science, and who is well remembered by Kingstonsians, has been secured to lecture here on Sunday afternoon, December 14th.

Adjutant Macnamara and Lieut. Hoole, of the Station Army, will meet on Sunday as arranged. Their date has been postponed until November 16th. To-morrow three special officers, going to Toronto to-morrow, will attend the meetings of the army here.

A LITTLE ACCIDENT. Saved a Lot of Money. Food that will safely and surely carry a man through exhausting menial work is worth knowing of.

A man in St. Louis, Mo., says: "In my work it is necessary to begin at seven o'clock and work straight through without lunch until 2 p.m. You can readily see that this is a strain on the ordinary person, and I was frequently worn out and sick with hunger and weakness. On numerous occasions when two o'clock came, I was so utterly exhausted and unstrung as to be forced to lose the remainder of the day, and that carried with it a loss of money.

The first package of Grape-Nuts came into our house a little over a year ago by accident. There has been almost immediately after beginning to use Grape-Nuts, I felt its good effect in my ability to work those long hours in comfort. There was no sickness or weakness, and no loss of time from exhaustion. In my business, it is also necessary to work every day, every night of each week. The change from day to night work, then back again is certainly no light 'real' on the reserve force of anyone, and my invariable preparation for this task is a generous amount of Grape-Nuts and cream, a light lunch but a most sustaining one.

An old friend was visiting me recently, and while eating the evening meal, was extolling Grape-Nuts to him. He rather doubted the deliciousness of the food. My three children, aged four, six and eight years, were at the time watching a large cream cake on the table, and enjoying "in anticipation" the treat. I asked them which they would prefer for dessert—cream cake or Grape-Nuts. Without hesitation, they answered in chorus "Grape-Nuts." My friend was convinced.

The only breakfast the children have is Grape-Nuts and rich milk, and you could not find a more healthy trio. Name printed on Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

SOCIAL SATURDAY NIGHT.

AN IDEAL MEDICINE.

It's funny, but the hardest thing in the world for a woman to do, after she has paid her little ten or fifteen minute visit, is to say good-bye to her hostess and leave the room gracefully. Make a list of the guests, and then check off the names of those whom you think can leave a room with any degree of glory to themselves, or of comfort to their hostess. Aren't they painfully few now? Why this is thus is shrouded in mystery. Why a woman who can entertain with infinite tact and charm who never says the right thing to the wrong people, or vice versa, who can turn the most embarrassing situation into one of ease and comfort, who can enter a room with any amount of dignity and grace, should, when she comes to leave that same room, give herself an embarrassed jerk, in a pause in the conversation, shut her parasol or her card case, and with a premonitory "Well, proceed to take leave of the lady of the house in a spasmodic manner, and then walk out of the room with an air of being on unfriendly terms with everyone in it, is one of the unsolved riddles of society.

The art of leaving a room in such a way as to make each individual left behind feel that she has been personally included in the formal good-bye to the hostess, is an art which is an ornament of grace to its possessor's neck, and one which places her on the top rung of the ladder of social success. And it is an art, something more, not born. It's the one thing in which a family tree, and a well-authenticated grandfather don't help the situation in the least. They do say, the dear people who write for the papers, and tell us what to do in the most emergent of emergencies, that it's a delicate compliment to your hostess to rise and say farewell in the midst of your own conversation, thus indicating that only necessity tears you away. It may be—may, but it seems to me to have its drawbacks. Suppose the lady was of a suspicious turn of mind; and thought you were so bored that you couldn't even stay long enough to finish out your sentence with decency?

A very large tea, in honor of Miss Jenkins, of Petrolia, claimed Mrs. Garrett as hostess on Thursday afternoon. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. Benson, who made the tea, and Mrs. Alex. Kirkpatrick, who poured coffee, their assistants being Miss Grace and Miss Jessie Kirkpatrick, Miss Mabel Dalton, Miss Frances Macaulay, and Miss Louise Kirkpatrick. The table decorations were chrysanthemums, faintly tinted with mauve, a large vase filled with the pretty flowers rising from a centre of mauve silk in the middle of the table, a smaller vase containing the same blooms being at each corner. Ices were served by Mrs. Stafford Kirkpatrick in a small room adjoining the tea room, the girls helping her being Miss Rita Kirkpatrick, Miss Lorraine Dalton and Miss Gladys Drury. Fluffy white chrysanthemums decorated the table, which was lighted with pink-shaded candles. Amongst those present were Mrs. Lennox Mills, Miss Lindsay, Montreal, Mrs. Baxton Smith, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Crisp, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Willie Kirkpatrick, Miss King, Miss Callaghan, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Bate, Miss Sinclair, Mrs. Frank King, Miss Lewis, Mrs. Hiram Calvin, Miss Marion Calvin, Mrs. Groux, Mrs. Hogue, Miss Hogue, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Lewin, Miss Lewin, Miss Mildred Macmorine, Mrs. Wain, the Misses Waldron, the Misses Mackenzie, Mrs. Hugh Fraser, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. John Strange, Miss Strange, Mrs. File Fowler, Miss Fowler, Mrs. March, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Skinner, the Misses Gober, Mrs. Mackerras, Miss Dennistoun, Peterboro; the Misses Ferguson, Mrs. Dalton, Miss Edith Folger, Mrs. Nash, Miss Ethel Herby, Mrs. Power, Miss Gertrude Power, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Herald, Miss Herald, Mrs. Walter Connell, Miss Bessie Smythe, Mrs. Smythe, Miss May Smythe, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Martin, and a host of others.

Mrs. J. S. R. McCall entertained at a very enjoyable five o'clock tea yesterday. The tea table, which looked especially pretty, with its wealth of colorful and pink carnelians, was in charge of Mrs. Neil-Polson, Mrs. D. E. Mundell, and Mrs. William Wright, their assistants being Miss Jessie Pichon, Miss Jessie McCann, and Miss Vera Mullin, who all wore very pretty summer frocks. Amongst those present were Mrs. Cunliffe, Mrs. Frank, Miss Marion Lewis, Mrs. Kilborn, Miss Dupuy, Miss Macmorine, Mrs. J. G. Elliott, Mrs. Livingston, Miss Sutherland, Miss Crothers, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. William Mitchell, Miss Jessie Dickson, Mrs. Cov. Mrs. Hobart Davis, Mrs. Uglow, Mrs. Massie, Mrs. John Renwick, Mrs. George Chie, Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. J. Crawford, Mrs. D. E. Starr, Mrs. Madden (Toronto), Mrs. R. Chown, Mrs. Dowsley, Misses McWilliam, Miss Kidd, and very many others.

The opening dance of the season, which claimed that charming young matron, Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, as hostess, was in every way a most delightful affair. The pleasantness of which quite overrode the discomfort of getting to it through the blackness and down-pour of Wednesday night. None of the details which go to make up the success of a dance were wanting. The spacious old house is an ideal place for such a function, and with it as a background, and a tactful hostess and pretty girls in fresh frocks for the foreground, there was nothing left to be desired.

The marriage of Mr. Anson Flower Robinson of New York, and Miss Margaret Williams of Watertown, took place at Trinity church, in that place on Wednesday, and was one of the most fashionable weddings which has taken place there for some time. The groom, who is a graduate of Columbia College, is a nephew of the late Honorable Roswell P. Flower, and is now connected with the firm of Flower & Co., in New York.

A very fashionable wedding took place at St. John, N.B., on Wednesday when Miss Dorothy Talbot Nicholson, daughter of the late John W. G. Nicholson, was married to Lieut.

Commander John B. Sparks, of the North American Squadron, in Trinity church, St. John, the officiating priest being the Reverend Canon Richardson.

The wedding of Miss Theresa Kormann, to Mr. A. J. Small, which was to have taken place on Wednesday, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the death of Miss Kormann's mother.

The marriage of Miss Rose Macdonald, of Vancouver, B.C., another niece of Mrs. James Macdonald, is announced to take place also next month.

Announcement is made that the marriage of Miss Arleen Macdonald, William street, and Mr. W. T. Miller, Hamilton, will take place on November 5th, in the morning.

Miss Ethel Herchner, who is paying her P.P.C.'s, is to be married in November. Every one is very glad to know that this bright and popular girl is not going very far away from Kingston.

The engagement is announced of Miss Miriam Hellmuth, daughter of Mr. Isadore Hellmuth, K.C., of Lawton, Deer Park, and granddaughter of the late Bishop Hellmuth of Huron, and of Mr. Clarke Gamble, K.C., to Mr. John Meredith, barrister, son of the Hon. Chief Justice Sir William Meredith.

The engagement has been announced in St. Catharines of Miss Susie Peterson, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Charles Peterson, of Port Hope, and of Mrs. Peterson, of St. Catharines, to Mr. Arthur Nesmith, of the Imperial bank staff at Niagara Falls, Ont.

Mrs. Thomas Mills, 120 University avenue, will receive in the future on the first and second Fridays in the month.

Master Eric Clarke, of Rockwood House, who has been very ill with typhoid fever for two weeks, his temperature being very high, has at last taken a turn for the better, and is now on the high road to recovery.

The Reverend Wilfrid T. Kingsley, formerly of Wolfe Island, after spending a pleasant holiday in the Highlands of Scotland, as the guest of Admiral and Lady Fane, has returned to Rome to resume his studies.

Miss Lindsay, of Montreal, is staying with Mrs. Mills, "Bishopscourt." Mrs. Oliver, who has been in Toronto for some little time, will go to Hamilton for a short visit before returning home.

Mr. Bill Calvin has been in town from Quebec for a few days. Mrs. Waddell, Sydenham street, has rented her house furnished for the winter, which she may spend in Montreal.

Mrs. Hugh Nickle has taken the house on Bagot street, at one time occupied by Mrs. Harley, for Mrs. Mildred King, Alfred street, entertained at a very pleasant tea on Thursday.

Mrs. Yates left her home on Wednesday, and is en pension with Mrs. Irwin.

Mrs. Gibson, who was Mrs. Stuart Robertson's guest for a few days, left for Hamilton on Tuesday. The Misses Ferguson, King street, entertained at a very enjoyable little tea on Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. Clarkson, and Mrs. Boake.

Mrs. Hugh Macpherson, of University avenue, has left for Portland, Ore., to spend the next few months with her parents. Mrs. Macpherson will be very much missed by her large circle of friends.

SOCIAL SATURDAY NIGHT.

AN IDEAL MEDICINE.

A New Discovery Which Cures All Forms of Catarrh. The tablet is the ideal form in which to administer medicine, but until recently no successful catarrh tablet had ever been attempted.

The old time treatment of catarrh was in the form of inhalers, washes, douches, sprays, etc. Later an internal remedy was used with greater success, but being in liquid or powder form were inconvenient to use and like all medicines in liquid or powder form, lose their medicinal properties when opened or exposed to the air.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain highly concentrated antiseptics, Hydrastin, Blood root, and Red gum which kill the catarrh germs in the blood and mucous membrane, and in this respect are strictly scientific and modern, because all authorities are now agreed that catarrh is a constitutional blood disease, and local applications can have only a transitory effect.

The use of inhalers, douches and sprays is a nuisance and inconvenience and can in no wise compare favorably with the same antiseptics given in tablet form internally, where they can reach the stomach and blood and kill catarrh germs right where they are produced.

A prominent lawyer and public speaker of Pittsburgh says: I have been troubled with catarrh of the head and throat for twelve years. In this climate it seems impossible to get rid of it. The continual dropping of mucus from the nose into the throat caused irritation and hoarseness, seriously interfering with my public speaking. It took me an hour or more of coughing, gagging, expectorating and sneezing every morning before I could settle down to work and this condition gradually brought on catarrh of stomach, causing loss of appetite, poor digestion and a foul breath, which annoyed me exceedingly. My physician advised me to try Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I took them for two months and was astonished to find how quickly they cleared my head, throat and stomach and I have no hesitation in recommending them. They are not only pleasant to take, but they seem to get at the very root of trouble, because since using them I have had no trace of catarrh.

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full sized package. They can be carried in the pocket and used any time and as often as desired since they contain no cocaine, mercury or any other injurious drug.
