EDUCATING THE PEOPLE. The secretary of the Manufacturers' Association has given an official contradiction to the story that a huge fund has been suggested and for the influencing of public opinion through the press as the association desires.

At the annual meeting reference was made to the necessity of education in the interest of Canadian manufactures, and it was understood that a fund would be provided in order to make this mission or work a success.

The secretary of the association informs the people, however, that the education sought is of a different sort, that it applies to the extolling of Canadian wares among the Canadian buyers, that the fund is $50,000 in place of $500,000, and that is really under the direction of the association's campaign committee.

That Mr. Tarte is going to be a political force so far as the press is concerned goes without saying. He and his sons own La Patrie and Desbats, of Montreal, and The Mercury, of Quebec, and the views of the ex-minister will be expressed through them in a very vigorous fashion.

THE TOUR A FAILURE. Mr. Borden, the leader of the opposition in the Dominion, has, since his return to the east, given out that his visit to the Pacific Coast—with long halts and many meetings in British Columbia and Manitoba—will be of great advantage to the party.

Winnipeg Free Press, whose representative watched the progress of events and recorded them faithfully, has it there was only one meeting, of the series, which was marked by enthusiasm, and that was the final one and banquet in Winnipeg. The audiences, generally, were noticeably cold and noticeably out of harmony with Mr. Borden on many points.

There was a time, says the Free Press, when the west was filled with conservative partisans whose support of the party's policy never wavered, however pinical it might be to their material interests; but that day has long since passed.

Mr. Borden set out with the purpose of moving the western people to his side, his way of thinking, and has not succeeded. 'Mr. Borden,' adds the Free Press, 'has made absolutely no impression upon that large body of public opinion which is hostile to the fiscal policy of the conservative party.'

The death of Mrs. Cady-Stanton marks a distinct loss to the women suffragists. She was their leader for many a long day, and exerted her strength in vain.

Mrs. Mary Ann Mills, of Exeter, 117 years old, should communicate with Sarah Bernhardt and lift her up a bit. The divine Sarah, at 58, is said to be suffering from severe melancholia; following the solitude in which she indulged while she wrote of the "sorrows of old age."

Dewet has tired exhibiting himself as a trophy of the war and goes back to South Africa. The old spirit of independence has been revived in him. He would rather work hard for the reconstruction of his country than wander about a foreign land in search of sympathy.

The anthracite coal transporters allege that they have lost fifteen millions by the strike. They propose, it is said, to add 50c to the rate of freight. They handle about fifty million tons of coal per year.

A grand jury in Toronto recommends the abolition of imprisonment in the case of juvenile offenders, and the substitution of whipping or whipping. The jury is acting in conformity with the judgment of penologists who claim that the prisons are defeating the purpose for what they are established, and confirming the youth of our land in their criminal careers.

They Drew Lots. Paris, Oct. 29.—There was a drawing by lot, yesterday, of deputies who are to investigate the election at St. Flour, department of Cantal, in August, when Count Jean De Castellane, on the face of the returns was apparently beaten by M. Hugon. Count Jean made a charge of fraud in the counting of ballots.

Will Not Leave. London, Oct. 29.—Speaking at Southampton, yesterday, the chairman of the London & Southwestern railway company said there was no truth in the rumors that the Atlantic Shipping combine would deprive that port of vessels plying between there and America. On the contrary, it was the intention of the combine to arrange for a large increase in the amount of shipping business done at Southampton.

MILLER'S WORK FOR THE ONTARIO BUREAU OF MINES.

Reports That United States Iron Masters Are Closely Watching the Situation in Ontario.

The season for geological field work which is now closing has been an active one for the Ontario Bureau of Mines, and a good deal of exploration has been carried on, especially in the newer parts of the province, which will considerably increase the present stock of knowledge regarding the mineral possibilities of these parts of Ontario.

Professor W. G. Miller, provincial geologist, made an examination of an extensive area of gravel on Lake Savant, north-east of Sturgeon Lake, in the District of Thunder Bay, where discoveries of gold in placer form had been reported.

Mr. Miller has just finished a trip down the Mississauga River, the lower portion of which runs through the copper district is one in which promising discoveries of copper have been made covering a large area of territory, and may be expected to produce some good mines in the not distant future.

Mr. Miller has located some area of crystalline on the C.P.R., which may prove useful in the future in connection with the iron or other metallurgical industries in the district. The limestone outcrops along the north of Cartier, on the four points of Geneva Lake, as well as east of that place, Mr. Miller is now proceeding to make an inspection of the working mines in North-western Ontario, which will occupy him for several weeks—at least.

The reports that United States iron masters are scanning closely the possibilities of the iron ore situation in Ontario, and have their experts in every locality where ore has been discovered. The strong similarity between the geological conditions in the United States iron ore regions south of Lake Superior and those in some parts of Northern Ontario have led United States iron men to interest themselves in this province.

GONE BACK TO IRELAND. Likely to Force the Measure Through. London, Oct. 29.—The Irish members, collectively, absent themselves from the House of Commons, yesterday, and returned to Ireland. The sitting was devoted exclusively to the education bill.

Likely to Run Smooth. New York, Oct. 29.—Tribune's London cable says: The most pressing difficulty of the restoration has been solved by the Irish members shaking the dust of Westminster from their feet and returning to their native land.

PICKETING BY LABOR UNIONS Comments on Decision Rendered by Justice Andrews.

Picketing, as practiced in the interest of a labor union as the result of a retail business firm being declared "unfair," is discussed at length in an opinion just delivered by Supreme Court Justice William S. Andrews, of Syracuse. There have been numerous court decisions both in America and England on this subject, and many of them differ widely.

"More picketing," says Justice Andrews, "assuming that there is no threat or intimidation, assuming that it is confined to simple persuasion, I do not regard in any sense as unlawful, whatever may be the motive of the picketers."

On the other hand he holds that when picketing amounts to a trespass, a nuisance, a threat or actual violence or intimidation, the offenders should be enjoined by a court of equity.

In other words, Justice Andrews believes that there are two kinds of picketing, one lawful and the other unlawful. Lawful picketing must be confined to a mere request that does not constitute or imply a threat to do unlawful injury.

As the latter proposition there is not the least question that the Syracuse justice is right. It probably would be upon the point that it is possible for picketing to be conducted lawfully that the decision would be attacked should it go to a higher court for review.

A Serious Outlook. Berlin, Oct. 29.—Gloomy reports from the German industrial districts are published in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung, which says that for years to come Germany must expect to stand still or even witness a retrograde movement in her industrial life.

G.T.R. Improvement Plan. Montreal, Oct. 29.—The Grand Trunk railway company has just decided to carry out a scheme of improvements at Bonaventure station, which involves practically the entire reconstruction and rearrangement of the existing building.

For Pale, Thin Bloodless Girls. Who Are Weak, Languid and Despondent There is no Preparation so Efficacious as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The question often arises as to why Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is so remarkably successful as a treatment for the ill of girlhood and womanhood, and the answer is found in the fact that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes directly to form new, rich, life-sustaining blood.

Severely ill woman's illness are due to deficiency in the quality or quantity of the blood, and are permanently overcome when the blood is enriched. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is making hosts of pale, weak, bloodless girls and women strong and healthy.

Mrs. Tupman, a prominent lady of Richmond, Va., a great sufferer with woman's troubles, tells of her cure by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For some years I suffered with backache, severe bearing-down pains, leucorrhoea, and falling of the womb. I tried many remedies, but nothing gave any positive relief. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in June, 1901. When I had taken the first half bottle, I felt a vast improvement, and have now taken ten bottles with the result that I feel like a new woman."

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?"

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the feminine organism, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

Mrs. W. H. Pelham, Jr., 108 E. Baker St., Richmond, Va., says: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I must say that I do not believe there is any female medicine to compare with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I return to you my heartfelt thanks for what your medicine has done for me."

"I took only six bottles, but it has made me feel like a new person. I thank God that there is such a female helper as you."

Be it, therefore, believed by all women who are ill that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they should take. It has stood the test of time, and it has hundreds of thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women. Perhaps she has just the knowledge that will help your case—try her to-day—it costs nothing.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
