COAL STRIKE

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE AFTERMATH.

What Was the Cause of it All?—The Woman's Exhibition—Its Object—Interest in Politics.

(Whig correspondence, letter No. 1,328.) New York, Oct. 21.—The strike is ended, and now we count the aftermath. In algebra we figure on an unknown quantity in plus and minus, and now we seek for the solution of the strike, groping in the dark and more ignorant than when the strike began.

Let us ask ourselves what was the cause that led to this terrible rebellion in which country and industry joined hands for conquest. There was none in the air; life was held by the weakest of all possible tenures and men heretofore deemed honest and industrious sank to the level of pirates whose only mission was destruction and death.

Capital has acted quickly for the end which is sure to come. The battle was between two divisions of labor, one sought independence of its capital alone, the other looked for success to an organized union no matter what its character or aims.

rebellion to the Women's Exhibition, which has just closed at the Madison Square Garden, and no grander exhibition of female strength has been held in this republic since its foundation.

The one of the noblest professions for instance. A profession which gives direction to every human life—the teacher of our public or private schools. If the reward of a male principal shall be $3,000, the reward of a female principal for precisely the same employment is frequently $1,000 less.

Laugh at me if you please if on a wintry day of discomfort I sit smiling over my rood cup of coffee, my fish-bowl and buckwheat cake, which sends me forth to labor with a sense of confidence I never enjoyed when I sought my grass.

Have you any skin disease or eruptions? Are you subject to chafing or scalding? Dr. Agnew's Ointment prevents and cures any and all of these, and cures itching, bleeding and ointment piles besides.

Fall Importation of 1902. Prevost, of the New York clothing store, Brock street, has received all his fall importations for outer work in his tailoring department.

Don't think the world is watching you and hanging on your actions and words. After you are gone the world will miss you just about as long as it takes the hole to fill up in a pall of water after you take your finger out of the very hard rubber cover of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring you would not have had that coated tongue or bad taste in the mouth this morning.

The "Widow King" will have on her last trip to Ottawa on Tuesday, November 24, at 11 p.m. Next week she will run one or two trips to Smith's Falls, connecting with steamer Olive for Ottawa and Montreal.

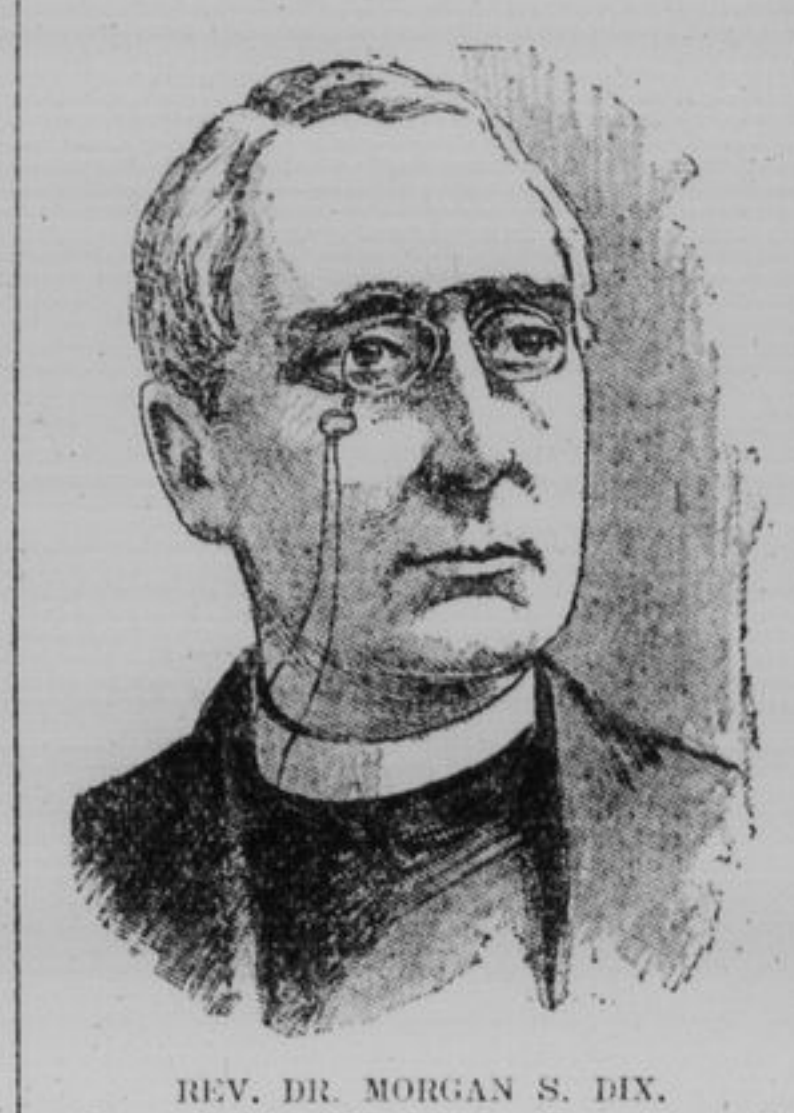

Tennis (the most fascinating and popular game in the world.) Never before has there been gathered together such an array of beautiful and distinctive premiums for so light a service.

said that straws show which way the winds blow, but bets do not always decide an election. However, it would be wise for the democrats to keep an eye on the Newburg ice man, and it will be wisdom on the part of the republican directors to remember that the democrats are neither dead nor sleeping.

MORGAN DIX JUBILEE.

A Joint Celebration That Causes Interest.

REV. DR. MORGAN S. DIX. New York, Nov. 1.—Not since the celebration of Trinity church's bicentennial in 1897 has there been so much interest in the famous and wealthy parish as is felt in the celebration of the anniversary of the ordination and restoration of the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix.
