MUST BE RATHER DAMP.

Britt (Iowa) Tribune. While stopping at Ogden a few days ago, we noticed bubbles continually rising on the waters that cover the farming lands.

WHEN CONTENTMENT REIGNS.

The chief aim of every family should be contentment. Without this quality, no home can be maintained on the lines of peace, happiness and progress.

SALT AS A COLORING MIXTURE.

A chemist in one of the oleomargarine factories has found that salt bled until it is brown will give a yellow tint to margarine. Salt having a legal status as a component of oleomargarine, its use as coloring may circumvent the ten cents a pound tax on the commodity.

COMBATING EARLY FROST.

The California method of combating an early or late frost is effected by heating the lower stratum of air, thus diminishing radiation from parts, each of which has a cover, and which are somewhat like those for burning charcoal, are used.

MISERABLE NIGHTS.

What to Do When Baby is Fretful and Sleepless.

It is wrong to take up a wailing baby from the cradle and walk it up and down the floor all night. It demoralizes the infant and enslaves the parents. Baby does not cry for the fun of the thing; it cries because it is not well - generally because its stomach is sour, its little bowels congested, its skin hot and feverish.
